HET HOLLANDSCH BITTER.—We have received another certificate out of Grand Rapids, Michigan, dated 19th June, 1853.

PETER DANE, a Hollander, desires us to publish to the Nieuwsbode, that the Holland Bitters entirely cured him of Indigestion, Fever and Debility, with which he suffered all the spring. Peter Dane is grateful to the proprietors of this great remedy, and takes this way of recommending it to his countrymen.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ FEVER AND AGUE! FEVER AND AGUE! FEVER AND AGUE!—Emigrants and others who remove to the Western parts of the United states, complain in bitter terms of the fatal disease that prevails in those sections. Some of the most intelligent physicians bear testimony to this fact. Dickens, the Shakespeare of this age, in picturing "Little Eden," a Western settlement, in a book entitled "Martin Chuzzlewit," says that the most flourishing institution was the Fever and Ague, which had killed all who attempted to make a permanent residence of it. Mark Tapley, who could only be jolly under the most gloomy circumstances, said that Fever and Ague had given him cause for more jollity than he would like to experience again. Dr. Hostetter's celebrated Bitters is the only cure for this terrible disease that we would recommend to the public. Try them and be convinced of their powers.

☞ KEEP THIS FACT IN MIND.—Many of our exchanges, in speaking of lottery establishments, announce among those which are bogus, those which, claiming to be legalized, evade the payment of their responsibilities to the public whenever a citizen happens (as it is rare in their case) to draw a prize. They except, however, from this category, the well-known firm of WOOD, EDDY & Co., Wilmington, Delaware, or Augusta, Georgia, which establishment, besides being legal, is responsible, and pays without hesitation all prizes drawn upon them. A splendid chance is now presented to their forthcoming drawings. Any one who sends an $5, $5, or $2 50 to either address, will find it a good investment. Send early and be sure of your chance.—New York Leader.

Since I originated the Gift Book Enterprise, I have repeatedly called the attention of the public to my large and liberal offers, to which they have always warmly responded. I can now, with more satisfaction than ever, call attention to my largely increased inducements to purchasers. Being very heavily engaged in publishing, I exchange my own publications for those of other houses, and am enabled to procure all my books at the original cost of making, and thus can and do supply the majority of the other houses engaged in the Gift Book Trade, with their books, cheaper than they can procure them from other publishers. I can also by my heavy purchases of Watches and Jewelry, for cash, furnish them with their gifts at lower rates than they can buy them from the manufacturers.

Having such an advantage in buying, I can insure my customers better gifts with their books than any other house, and can give my Agents a larger commission. A valuable gift will be delivered with each book at the time of sale. Gifts worth $200, at the lowest wholesale prices, will be promptly distributed with every $1000 worth of Books sold.

Send for a Catalogue, which will be mailed free to any one, containing the most valuable collection of Standard productions in Literature, Philosophy, History, Geography, Travel and the Sciences, with all the favorite works of Fiction and Romance, and every other department of Literature, elsewhere described below. Send for it, for if you don't wish to order Books, you will obtain a very valuable book for reference, as it contains all the designs in books to gift, and will cost you nothing.

Special Notice to Book Buyers.—As there are parties of doubtful responsibility advertising Gift concerns, and using my name in making up prospectuses, or fictitious names, without the intention or ability to fulfill them, hoping thereby the popularity of my enterprise to deceive and plunder the public, I would caution my patrons not to warn all against them—but if any are deceived and cheated by them, they should not be considered as a nuisance, but along with them, for they are base imitators of an enterprise that has cost me an immense amount of time and money to place to the position which it now occupies, commanding an extensive and increasing trade, approved and endorsed, with the most entire freedom and confidence, by the leading Publishing Houses in the Union, whose letters of approval and endorsement are in my possession, and will be shown to all doubters at any time with the greatest pleasure.

DR. J. H. ROBINSON

ON THE

NORTHERN TRAPPING GROUNDS!

Nick Whiffles "in the Pison Newspapers ag'in, by mighty!"

The

NEW YORK MERCURY

FOR SATURDAY, JUNE 25th, 1859.

(NOW READY AT ALL THE NEWS DEPOTS AND BOOK STORES,)

Will contain the initial chapters of a new Western tale, from the graceful and felicitous pen of

DR. J. H. ROBINSON,

who has been engaged to write EXCLUSIVELY for that journal for a term of years. This story is entitled

"PATHAWAY;

OR,

THE MOUNTAIN

A TALE OF THE NORTHERN TRAPPING GROUNDS,"

And is considered by the author to be the very best work which his talent has yet produced.

Those who know the dramatic power and ELEGANT STYLE, the interesting situations and BEAUTY OF INCIDENT, which have rendered famous all the writings of the

cannot but hail with delight this new emanation from his pen.

THE TRAPPING GROUNDS OF THE NORTH AND WEST

form a peculiarly favorable field for the location and working out of a romance, and the characters that roam through that FLOWERY WILDERNESS are especially fitted for introduction into its pages.

The readers and admirers of

Dr. Robinson's Writings

will remember with pleasure the character of

"Nick Whiffles"

in a story of that name, recently published, and will be glad to learn that the same personage will figure in surrounded, as ever, by many "Drollkilties," and lending to the romance a vein of sympathetic humor and quaint drollery that will render it irresistible to the lover of fun and the student of human nature.

In addition to this attraction, the plot will be found more INTRICATELY MYSTERIOUS, and the situations more replete with the fire of DRAMATIC INTEREST, than in any other story the author has yet written. It is full of

Wild Life and Action, crowded with stirring incident and

Perilous Adventure,

and through the whole story runs an underplot which interweaves a golden-threaded woof of sentiment, tinting all with the radiant light of the gentle charm of love.

The most exciting and picturesque scenes of

PATHAWAY

will be chosen as the themes for a series of

Beautiful Illustrations,

from the pencil of the most celebrated of American artists,

FELIX O. C. DARLEY,

whose drawings have made the

New York Mercury

such a favorite with all who appreciate true artistic excellence. The clear and vivid style of Dr. J. H. Robinson's descriptive writing is such that the artist can seize upon his creation without difficulty, and chose the best powers of are brought to bear with as great a unanimity as if both were wielded by one person.

The proprietors of the MERCURY are proud of the popularity which their journal has attained, and cannot but take some little credit to themselves for the good which they believe they have done in carrying out their first intention—that of making the

a medium for the familiarization of the reading public with the best works of the most

DISTINGUISHED AMERICAN AUTHORS.

To secure this end, they have spared no expense; and whatever they have thought could gratify the taste of their thousands of Readers, they have done, without questioning either the labor or expenditure required.

For the exclusive right to the works of

DR. J. H. ROBINSON

they pay a larger price than any American romancer never before received from any newspaper, and the public are already aware of the great outlay necessary for the engagement of such men as

BAYARD TAYLOR,

FELIX O. C. DARLEY,

GEORGE ALBANY,

and others. Yet it is believed that the increasing

Refinement of the Popular Mind

demands such men, and the "Mercury" is intended to keep up with the progress of the age.

A series of

Brilliant Novelties

will appear in the columns of this

JOURNAL OF

AMERICAN LITERATURE,

in rapid succession, and while the proprietors are eminently well satisfied with the share of popularity they have already accorded, they are determined to deserve it more by using every means possible to increase the attractiveness of their paper.

FOR JUNE 25,

CONTAINING THE FIRST CHAPTERS OF

PATHAWAY,

OR,

The Mountain Outlaws.

Lyon's Magnetic Powders

Will destroy Garden Insects, Cockroaches, Bed Bugs, Fleas, Ants, Moths, and all pests of the Vermin kind.

The importance of a reliable article of this kind is inestimable. In warm weather all nature teems with these annoying foes. This powder is the only article ever discovered which will exterminate them. A company of botanists, from the Horticultural Society of Paris, while under the tents of Asia, observed that all insects fighting upon a certain kind of plant very soon dropped dead. This fact was made use of to guard their night camps from these intruders. Quantities of the plant were brought home by Mr. E. Lyon, and found a positive insect destroyer in every experiment. It is simply a powdered leaf, chemically prepared to resist the effect of age and climate. Medals and Letters Patent have been obtained from the Governments of England, France, Germany and Russia, from the world's Fair, Fairs, and numerous medical and horticultural colleges and societies.

Letter from the President of the United States.

Executive Mansion' Washington, Jan. 31, '58.

MR. EMANUEL LYON—Dear Sir, I have the pleasure to inform you that the Royal Commission of the World's Fair, at London, have awarded you a Medal and Certificate for the great value of your Magnetic Powders, Exterminating Insects, &c.

MILLARD FILLMORE, Chairman.

The above was accompanied by a certificate from Prince Albert.

It is free from poison.

NEW YORK, October 1, 1858.

MR. E. LYON—Dear Sir, We have analyzed and tested your Magnetic Powders, and find them perfectly harmless to mankind and domestic animals, but certain death when inhaled by bugs, ants and insects.

MES R. CHILTON, Chemist.
SARANE E. REID, Prof. Chemistry, N. Y. Ladies.

Mr. John L. Rowe, Superintendent New York Hospital, says "he has expelled all the bugs, ants, roaches, moths, &c., with Lyon's Powder, and finds it of immense value."

Every gentleman and housekeeper must have a direct interest in an article of this kind. References can be made to the Astor, St. Nicholas, and Metropolitan Hotels to Judge Meigs, President of the American Institute; James Gordon Bennett, Gen. Winfield Scott, Cyrus W. Field, L. M. Pease, the Five Points Mission, &c., &c. Judge Meigs says "This discovery of Prof. Lyon is of national importance. The Farmers' Club have proved it thoroughly. It will destroy locusts, grasshoppers, ants, moths, bugs, and all vermin. Garden plants can be preserved, and houses made pure."

Arrangements are now made through Messrs. Barnes & Park, of New York, to have it sold throughout the world. Many worthless imitations are advertised.—Be cautious!

"NEW YORK, Nov. 8, 1858.

"In retiring from business, I have sold all my Insect Powders and Philo. Letters Patent, and the secrets pertaining thereto, to Messrs. Barnes & Park.—This Powder is a discovery made by myself, and brought from the interior of Asia, and is unknown to any other persons. The genuine and effective article is put up in tin canisters, and will continue to bear my name. E. LYON."

Rats and mice cannot be reached by a powder, and are killed by a Magnetic Pill. Order them through any merchant.

The Lyon's Powder kills insects in a trice,
But Lyon's Pills are mixed for rats and mice.

Sample Flasks, 25 cents; regular sizes, 50 cents and $1,00. Follow directions. Use freely and thoroughly.
