Wilson's Celebrated Dandelion Coffee (a new preparation), recommended by the most eminent physicians of Europe and the United States as a safe and effectual remedy in all cases of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, Bilious Affections, Sick Headache, Costiveness, and highly valuable in Chronic Derangement of the Stomach and Bowels, Sea-Sickness, &c., and is also one of the most superior nutritious beverages for all persons of delicate constitution.

The many thousands who have been reluctantly compelled to abstain on the use of ordinary Coffee owing to the serious injury done to their health, will find this preparation much superior to the best Java Coffee, both in taste and flavor, to say nothing of the great and acknowledged medicinal benefits.

The present preparation is therefore offered to the Public as possessing all the properties of the fresh roots of the Plant, which it will retain unimpaired in any climate or for any length of time.

This valuable article is exclusively prepared by the subscriber by a new chemical process of which he is alone the inventor.

It is carefully prepared and put up in Tin Boxes, at 50 cents each, with full directions by JOS. P. WILSON, at his Chemical Laboratory, corner 27th-st. and 3d-av., and under his own immediate superintendence.

Sold by Jobbers and Retail by Hegeman, Clark & Co., Nos. 168, 172, 512 and 776 Broadway and by all other respectable Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canadas, and at the principal Depot, corner 27th-st. and 3d-av., New-York. None genuine unless signed on the wrapper.
JOSEPH P. WILSON.

Spratt's Patent Self-Sealing Cans will preserve Peaches, Tomatoes or any other Fruit or Vegetables in a fresh state and with their natural color and flavor, without the addition of spice, sugar or any other preservative property. They are easily opened or closed, simply by turning a screw at the thumb. The genuine hermetically SELF-SEALING CANS have cast in raised letters on every can "SPRATT'S PATENT, WELLS & PROVOST, PROPRIETORS." Full directions for Preserving accompanying the Cans. Price of quart Cans, $2 50 per dozen; half-gallon, $3 75 per dozen. Wrenches and Funnels, 10 cents each. WELLS & PROVOST, Sole Proprietors, No. 321 Pearl-st.

Richardson & Boynton's Warming and Ventilating Warehouse, No. 374 Broadway.—The special attention of the trade and others is invited to our assortment of HEATING and VENTILATING APPARATUS, comprising every variety of the latest and most approved patterns of Furnaces, Ranges, Registers, Ventilators, &c. Including five sizes of Boynton's Patent Self-Sealing Furnace—an entirely new article, worthy the attention of those interested.

New Publications.

The new Book by the author of "Alone."
THE HIDDEN PATH.
By MARION HARLAND.
One elegant 12mo. Price $1 25.

From The N. Y. Evening Post.

"The following notice of this work which we find in The Richmond Enquirer, is doubtless from the generous pen of Mrs. Anna Cora Ritchie, and contains a just tribute to the literary talents of the most successful female writer which Virginia has yet produced."

Let this noble production (we use the adjective in its fullest sense) be upon the table, enliven the hearth, be the household companion of every true-hearted Virginian. Foster this gifted daughter of the South with the expanding sunshine of appreciation, the refreshing dews of praise—stimulate undeveloped genius, which has never yet "penned its inspiration" to walk in her steps, emulate her achievements and share her honors—let Virginia produce a few more such writers, and the cry that the South has no literature of its own is silenced forever! The Hidden Path is a work that North or South, East or West, may point to with the finger of honest pride and say, "Our daughter sends this message to the world—yours this balm into wounded hearts—traces for wavering, erring feet this 'Hidden Path' which leads to the great goal of eternal peace."

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"PUTNAM'S MAGAZINE.—Two numbers of this leading American magazine have reached us at the same time, and brought upon us an embarras des richesses. The articles number some eighteen in each, and there is not one that we should be inclined to pass over. Indeed, Putnam has a peculiar attraction for us, as we see in it a reflection of the mind, manners and intelligence of our transatlantic cousins. It carries us into a new country and makes us acquainted with all the characteristics in an easy, unflatted manner. Politics are not neglected; but we do not detect faction or even party, and we read under a persuasion that we are gathering the impartial opinion of the best minds in the United States."
[London (Eng.) Weekly Times.

"'Putnam' is growing every month stronger, healthier, more to the purpose. It has some fine brains at work for it, and really begins to give the country some genuine criticism on literature and art. It gives us ideas—it teaches us something—and, better and dearer than all, it gives us something to quarrel with! The brief notices of new books in 'Putnam' are independent, condensed, to the purpose. They generally touch the core of the matter and show that the books have been read before being noticed. Of how few critical publications can we say as much!" [Philadelphia Morning Times.

TERMS—$3 a year, or 25 cents a number. Subscribers remitting $3, promptly in advance, to the Publishers, will receive the work for one year, post-paid, in any part of the United States, within 3,000 miles.
