FIGHTING THE KARTEL

Simla, India, June 6.—The sugar bill, empowering the Government of India to impose a countervailing duty on sugar until the Brussels convention becomes effective, passed the council today. The Viceroy of India, Lord Curzon of Keddleston, in a speech, exhorted the refiners to improve their methods and justify the protection provided by the countervailing duties imposed on bountied sugar.

As announced from Simla May 23, sugar shipped prior to that date will be exempt from the new duty.

WAS AMERICAN'S FIGHT

London, Jun 2.—"Kid" McFadden of San Francisco knocked out Jem Williams of London in the fifth round at the National Sporting Club tonight in a fight for the bantam-weight championship of the world and a purse of £350. This fight was the sharpest five-round contest which has been seen in London for a long time. A big crowd attended, including Tom Sharkey, Gus Ruhlin, Joe Walcott and others who are to participate in the pugilistic tournament to be held here in connection with the coronation festivities.

McFadden could not get down to the weight, and was allowed to go on at 129 pounds. He forced the fighting from the start, and proved to be the stronger. Williams, however, was active, and had the better of the third round. But the end came suddenly at the end of the fifth, when McFadden landed a half-hook on the Englishman's jaw.

CHAMBERLAIN DISPLEASED

New York, June 3.—A cable to the Sun from London says: Colonial Secretary Chamberlain had an audience with the King at Buckingham Palace last evening. There is reason to believe that he is displeased with the terms, which he considers the King forced on him. He has received the popular ovations for his statesmanship with scarcely a smile. He has said to friends in criticism of the easiness of the terms and in the relation of the coronation to the settlement, that the Government has been forced to sell the empire for a circus. His irreconcilable imperialist allies say large sums of money passed through indirect channels to certain Boers before peace was signed.

NEW BRITISH AMBASSADOR

New York, June 6.—Hon. Michael Herbert, the newly appointed Embassador at Washington, intends to leave in a few days for London to confer with Lord Lansdowne, cables the Paris correspondent of the Tribune. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert probably will remain in London for the coronation ceremonies. They will not make any decision as to their plans until ascertaining the wishes of Lord Lansdowne, but owing to personal matters, including the breaking up of their residence here in the Avenue d'Jena, it is not likely that they will start for the United States before the end of August or the beginning of September.

MILES NOT SUMMONED.

Washington, June 6.—Secretary Root today stated that General Miles had not been summoned to Washington. The General, it is said, is now en route from Fort Riley, Kan., to West Point, in response to an invitation to attend the centennial celebration there next week.
