SPECIAL NOTICE TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN!—The unprecedented demand for WELLS'S ILLUSTRATED NATIONAL HANDBOOK has rendered it impossible to fill orders promptly. The publisher therefore asks of his patrons a little indulgence. Two steam-presses are now running on the work, and ample preparations are made to keep pace with the demand. In a few days orders will be filled the day received. Present orders will be filled in the order received.

The Publisher deems this general notice necessary, as from the multiplicity of unfilled orders, it is impossible to make the apology due by direct communication. Respectfully,

J. G. WELLS, Publisher's Agent, No. 11 Beekman-st.

COOPER'S NAVAL HISTORY.—NEW EDITION.

THE NAVAL HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES. By J. FENIMORE COOPER. Continued to 1856, from the author's MSS., and other authentic sources, with portraits of the author and Com. Jones, Plans, etc. 3 vols. complete in one, 8vo. Cloth, $2 50; Half Calf, $4.

This work was, on its first appearance, at once republished in London, Paris and Brussels, and was received there and here as the authoritative national history. It is commended by the best critics as an accurate and impartial account of our gallant Navy, as it would be possible to make; and in the words of Bancroft, "the most masterly composition of which any nation can boast, on a similar subject." It at the same time receives the testimony of the English Reviews—peculiarly valuable on this point—that it is "fair, unwarped by national prejudices, and altogether a valuable history, which cannot fail to pass into universal circulation."

This History was Cooper's favorite work while in the full vigor of his powers; to perfect and complete it was the object of his latest and unfinished labors; and when death closed his literary career, the eminent authors who survived him, Irving, Prescott, Bryant, Bancroft and others, joined in the highest tribute to his historic and literary ability.

"The Continuation" (says The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser) "is executed with great fidelity, clearness and ability. We know the writer to be a man of character, with the instincts and culture of a gentleman, and the education of a scholar."

So well known and recognized is Cooper's work, as the only national naval authority and text-book, as well as an elegant, accurate and entertaining history, that we need only call attention to this thick and handsome octavo—the only full and complete edition, and essential to every public and private library which aspires to include the best editions of our great histories.

NEW LAW BOOKS.—JUST PUBLISHED BY LITTLE, BROWN & Co., LAW AND FOREIGN BOOKSELLERS, No. 112 Washington-st., Boston, STORY ON CONTRACTS.

Fourth Edition, revised and greatly enlarged. In 2 vols., 8vo. Price $11.

Every page has been studiously examined and reconsidered in the light of the modern authorities, and in many places the text has been re-written; very large additions have been made throughout, and new chapters have been written on the following subjects: Joint and Several Contracts, Change of Parties by Assignment, Change of Parties by Novation or Substitution, and the Statute of Frauds. The Reports have been carefully consulted, and a large body of important cases has been added, while nearly every citation in the book has been specially re-examined and verified, so as to secure exactness in the references to cases, of which over ten thousand are cited. The work is now the largest in the English language on the subject of contracts.

HOWARD'S REPORTS, VOLUME 18.

DUER'S CONSTITUTIONAL JURISPRUDENCE.

Just published by LITTLE, BROWN & Co., LAW AND FOREIGN BOOKSELLERS, No. 112 Washington-st., Boston.

1 vol. 12mo. Price $1 75.

PORTRAIT and FUNERAL of GEO. STEERS, with some splendid Original Pictures, in FRANK LESLIE'S ILLUSTRATED NEWSPAPER for SATURDAY next.

"AN EXCITING and INTERESTING BOOK." "FULL OF HUMANITY, FREEDOM AND RELIGION."—Reader, do you wish to read it? Send at once to the bookstore for FANNY HUNTER'S "WESTERN BORDER LIFE; Or, WHAT SHE SAW IN KANSAS AND MISSOURI."

Says The New-York Independent:

"Fanny Hunter is not a fictitious personage, but a real person, telling her own experience of actual life. She is wide-awake, too, sprightly, observant, good at story-telling, with a dash of humor, and a deep, earnest, womanly sentiment for humanity, freedom and religion. Her book has a positive and an intrinsic interest; and, as a narrative of substantial facts, it will introduce the reader to real life in our border Slave States, as no fiction can portray this."

One neat 12mo. Price $1.

A MEMORIAL VOLUME to BISHOP WAINWRIGHT.

D. APPLETON & Co., Nos. 346 and 348 Broadway, HAVE JUST PUBLISHED A MEMORIAL VOLUME.

THIRTY-FOUR SERMONS, BY THE RT. REV. JONATHAN MAYHEW WAINWRIGHT, D.D., D.C.L., Late PROVISIONAL BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW-YORK. EDITED BY HIS WIDOW. WITH A PORTRAIT ENGRAVED ON STEEL.

One Volume 8vo. Price $2 50.

This "MEMORIAL VOLUME" owes its title to a suggestion of an old and particular friend of Bishop Wainwright, the Venerable Bishop of Connecticut.

The Memoir is from the pen of another old and tried friend, the Bishop of New-Jersey.

The Funeral Address, now published by special request, was preached by an associate and fellow-laborer, whose respect and affection for the Bishop were the growth of an almost daily intercourse of twenty years.

The task of conducting the volume through the press was committed to the Rev. Dr. J. A. Spencer, who, with filial reverence, has faithfully devoted his excellent taste and judgment to its accomplishment. And the publication is hallowed to every true heart by the tender and ever-watchful care and oversight of one whose all of life is bound up with the Sacred Memory of the departed. [Extract from Preface.

The volume gives the secret history of the case, together with personal sketches of the principal characters, including Judge Loring, Wendell Phillips, Richard H. Dana, jr., Theodore Parker, Gov. Gardner, Gen. Edmonds, Mayor Smith, Hallett, Freeman, the Suttle family, &c. In an Appendix will be found official documents, letters, and other matter illustrative of the subject, together with a detailed account of the first slave case under the Constitution of 1789, in which the Supreme Court decided that Slavery no longer existed in Massachusetts.

"Pyles," the well-known Boston Correspondent of The New-York Tribune, writes to that journal respecting the work as follows:

"It makes a small volume, beautifully printed and excellently got up in every respect. It is a model of succinct and lucid narration, with no attempt to heighten the effect of the facts by rhetoric, and yet it is so managed as to stir the blood as no mere art could. . . . I recommend this book to the attention of every one who wishes to know how a slaveholder can command the entire national, State and municipal power to catch and carry back his slave. It is a most instructive lesson, and cannot be studied too carefully."
