To the Public.—The employees of Messrs. LIGHTE & BRADBURYS deem it but justice to themselves and to their employers to correct a statement, made by some of the papers, that they had demanded higher wages, and, being refused, had struck. This is not so. Messrs. Lighte & Bradburys raised our wages, some three months since, to nearly the old prices paid before the panic of 1857. We yesterday held a meeting, to deliberate whether we should demand a still further advance, corresponding with the general demand of the Piano Forte Makers. We decided to do so, and the demand was readily acceded to by our employers.

LETTERS FROM SPAIN AND OTHER COUNTRIES. By WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT. 1 vol. 12mo. Cloth. $1 25.
"The descriptive letters of Bryant are almost above praise, distinguished as they are by consummate fidelity, scholarly moderation, that tranquil poetic beauty, which is native to the author of "Thanatopsis," and above all, by a classic purity of style, fresh from "the well of English undefiled," which should make them a model for all students of elegant composition. Led by a guide so trustworthy, eloquent and wise, we find on the picturesque routes of Spain "fresh fields and pastures new," full of new lessons and new delights.
THE FOSTER BROTHERS. Being the History of the Social and College Life of two Young Men. 1 vol. 12mo. Cloth. 400 pages. $1.

From The London Examiner.
"Full of life, and fun, and vigor. . . . . These sketches of school and college life are among the happiest of their kind. Particularly well written is the account of life at 'Cambridge.'"
PASSAGES FROM THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF SIDNEY, LADY MORGAN. 1 vol. 12mo. Cloth, $1.
"This volume brims with sense, cleverness and humor. A lively and entertaining collection of great men's thoughts and quick woman's observations: a book to be read now for a season, and to be sought hereafter for reference."—[London Athenæum.
ONWARD; Or, THE MOUNTAIN CLAMBERERS. A Tale of Progress. By JANE ANNE WINSCOM. 1 vol. 12mo. 75 cents.
"This volume is intended for the encouragement of those who are endeavoring to fulfil life's great end—to glorify their God on earth, and to be rendered meet for His eternal kingdom. It is for those who are wishing, and for those who are striving; for the dwellers in the valley, who look wistfully on the hills above; for the clamberers on the mountain side, who are going from strength to strength, trusting to appear before their God in Zion."—[Extract from Preface.
