[From the Kuokoa, July 19, 1882.]

A BAD LAW.—The bill that was introduced by Kaunamano, read before the legislature and passed as a law, which relates to the choosing of district judges, is one of the evil deeds of the last legislature, and the bad effects of this law will doubtless be felt in the future. Heretofore, the district judges have been appointed by the Governors, with the approval, however, of the Judges of the Supreme Court. This was right, because the Supreme Court was the head of the judiciary department, and the judges of this court are the ones best fitted to decide who are fit to act as district justices. Also, there are many perplexing questions that come before the district justices, in their administration of justice, and there are no others to whom they can go for answers to their questions on points of law save the Judges of the Supreme Court. The Governors of the islands are not, as a class, educated in the law, they are not able to instruct the judges properly in the duties of their office, for they are not versed in them. Again, the Governors are not competent to select men fit for the office of district judge for this same reason, that they are not versed in the law.

For these reasons, the former law was a very good one, which directed that the approval of the Judges of the Supreme Court should be necessary to the confirmation of the district judges. But in the bill passed, which Kaunamano brought in, the part of the Supreme Bench in the matter is done away with. Now, the appointment of the district justices belongs solely to the Governors, regardless of the approval of the Supreme Bench. What is the reason for this? Did Kaunamano not know what he was doing? Did the Members of the House not know the mischief and great evil that would spring out of this bad enactment? If it be so, this is another illustration of the misfortune that lights upon a land when its legislative work is enturusted to incompetent hands. But there is something peculiar connected with the passage of this bill, that it was delayed until very near the time of proroguing the legislature, and it was then passed recklessly, with precipitate haste, as if, perchance, it were feared that it should meet with the light before it became a law. This is a law that an enlightened judgment cannot approve of, and, as we have said before, evil will come from this statute.

The KUOKOA has been notified by the Minister of the Interior to discontinue the publication of the laws that have been passed by the late legislature, and the Pae Aina and Saturday Press have received the same warning. The Government has acted crookedly in this, because there was an agreement made between the two parties as to publishing the laws and as to the pay for the same. We were told to publish the laws at the price formerly agreed upon. But when J. E. Bush entered the office of Minister of the Interior, one of his first acts was to disregard the agreement entered into by his predecessor, Simon Kani, regarding the publication of the laws, and to tell us to stop. We are sorry for the Minister, that he should do such an act as this, for he has disgraced himself and his office. The trouble he has thought to bring upon the KUOKOA and the other papers and their numerous readers has failed of its mark. The Government or the man who lends himself to do such contemptible things as this makes himself to be despised. But the Minister of the Interior says this is not his work, it is something he could not help; "it was the work of the Cabinet," says he. If this is true, it is a mark of the extreme childishness of the Government, and it ought to be changed speedily, before it goes on to utter good-for-nothingness.

[From Ke Hawaii Pae Aina, Aug. 19, 1882.]

During the many years we have been engaged in the newspaper business, the most surprising thing we have known has been the wickedness and folly of our pres-Cabinet's direction of affairs. Their first act after assuming the helm of state was to conduct the nation into the deep slough of an insane debt, the means of embarrassing and ruining our beloved country and of cutting short its independence. Hawaii (nei) is a rich land, blessed with temperate breezes, peopled by a brown-skinned race, surrounded by a great ocean.

The Premier of this Cabinet is not a man noted for his understanding and skill in governing well. His very first acts towards some of our race on the Island of Lanai were treacherous. For many years after that, he was a sheep raiser at Palawai. If the Government is in the want of wool, then let him be the head of the Wool Raisers' Board, not the Premier of the Cabinet for the conduct of the Government. He has proclaimed, through his two-mouthed trumpet, his love for the race, for the land and the King, but his hands are poluted, and his gifts to the King are mixed with evil. He has just persuaded the legislature to pass a law to drown the race, through its appetite for rum, the sink of poverty and distress, and at the same time he has wrongly taken from the Supreme Court the power of appointing district and police justices. If this is the way our Cabinet Ministers carry on the Government, we would prefer to calling it a way of weakening the state, and these blind leaders are heaping up a burden of indignation and wrath. The wisest course for them to pursue, as gentlemen, would be for them to pass in their commissions, to take their hats and leave.

In the name of the father, who is of one blood with this race, we protest against the appointment of vagrant foreigners, who have wandered over land and sea to these Islands of the ocean, like the chief of our present Cabinet, to be blind guides, to lead astray our beloved land and to despoil our homes.
