Special Notices.

The English and American Printing-House Squares Contrasted!—Our Mr. BAKER, who is now traveling in Europe, visiting all the principal Type Founderies, Printing and Publishing Houses, with especial reference to improvements in Typography, writes from London:

"I lately went to the English Printing-House Square, and found it to be a small, dark, gloomy, out-of-the-way place, as far inferior to our wide, open, public, and splendid Square, as the English are in their Printing Presses and Machinery, compared with ours. The London Printers are astonished to know that we have so noble a place devoted to Printing, and are very much pleased with our 'STEAM PRESS,' containing views of The Square, and its Neighborhood." The New Building of The Daily Times justly excites their admiration; they have nothing approaching it here. In fact, they are behind us in everything, and in nothing more than in their Printing-Houses—'Printing-House Square,' especially."

☞ As our "PRINTING-HOUSE SQUARE" is thus becoming so well known abroad, we propose to make its features still more familiar in every part of the United States, and will furnish, without charge, fine Electrotype Engravings of The Square to Newspaper Publishers who desire to give their readers a View and Description of this most prominent Printing locality in the world. The Electrotype Cut referred to, will be sent, upon application, to any part of the country. Copies of "THE STEAM PRESS" will be forwarded by mail upon receipt of a 3 cent postage stamp. Address

Proclamation by the Mayor.

Whereas Mrs. FANNIE DEANE HALSEY, a resident of this city, left her home on the 1st day of June, and her dead body was found on the 5th day of June last, in the water near Bay Ridge, in Kings County; and whereas, circumstances connected with the disappearance and death of Mrs. Halsey warrant the suspicion that she was murdered; Now, therefore, I, FERDINAND FERNANDO, Mayor of the City of New-York, by virtue of the authority vested in me, do hereby offer a REWARD of $100 for the apprehension and conviction of the murderer or murderers of the said Fannie Deane Halsey. The above reward will be paid on the certificate of the District Attorney that the arrest and conviction were secured by the person claiming the same.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal at the City Hall of the City of New-York, on the 8th day of July, A. D. 1859.

Hooped Skirts.—A telegraphic dispatch in the newspapers of this morning announced that an injunction was yesterday granted at Cooperstown, by Judge Nelson, against Lombard Brothers, in favor of Osborn & Vincent, for infringement on their Patent. It will not, however, state that the injunction was granted in the absence of counsel for the defense, and without opposition.

We desire to give notice that we have retained as counsel, in opposition to said Patent, Messrs. GILBERT DEAN and STEPHEN D. LEAV, and that they have already obtained proof which renders it beyond a doubt that said Patent cannot be sustained. And we request any person who may be sued to bring to us forthwith the papers served, and we will see that they have the necessary information to defend successfully any such suit.

LOVE. [L'AMOUR.] LOVE.
"SELLING LIKE BREAD."

"A very bold book, and its boldness is its beauty, for it is the boldness of chastity, of a lofty and tender morality. The demand for the work in Paris was unprecedented; it sold like bread, and was in the hands of everybody."—[New-York Home Journal.

"THE PROHIBITED BOOK."

"L'Amour has just been translated by Dr. Palmer, from the French of that most erudite and enthusiastic admirer, Michelet. To begin with, the 'Sacred Congregation of the Index' has gazetted it, thus signalizing for it a most eager and general perusal."—[New-York Atlas.

NEW BOOKS—NEW BOOKS.
READY THIS MORNING.
LOVE. (L'AMOUR.) LOVE.
From The North American Review.

"L'Amour is, of course, a book which every man and woman in France (and, indeed, throughout the European Continent) will read, and which will most likely go through an unlimited number of editions."

LOVE—(L'AMOUR).
Translated from M. Michelet's great French work.

The unprecedented success of this last book, by the celebrated Michelet, is surprising. Edition after edition is called for. Booksellers throughout the country are re-ordering it in large quantities. "Praised by some, and condemned by others: it is the 'sensation' book of the day." One volume, 12mo., muslin. Price $1.

PERSONAL
RECOLLECTIONS OF THE REVOLUTION.

A Domestic Diary of the actual events which occurred among a colony of inhabitants in the neighborhood of New-York and Long-Island, during the War of the American Revolution, together with Personal Reminiscences of Washington and Lafayette never before published. Related by the daughter of a clergyman, and prepared from records now in the possession of the family of the author. Edited by Sidney Barclay.

One of our most distinguished historical remarks of this volume, that it is the only history of private home events published, and is interesting on this account—all previous works being more or less statistical and general. This volume alone shows the occurrences and incidents which existed in one neighborhood. 12mo., muslin, printed in antique. Price $1.

HARTLEY NORMAN.

"A new novel, of freshness and well-drawn characters, happily conceived, and painted with great truth of detail." By Alan Hampden. One volume, 12mo., muslin. Price $1 25.

Any of these Books will be sent by mail, postage free, to any part of the United States on the receipt of the price, by
RUDD & CARLETON, Publishers and Booksellers,
No. 130 Grand-st., near Broadway, N. Y.

YOUNG LOVERS AND HUSBANDS.

"Furthermore, we have given the book thorough examination, reading it out of it aloud, and now earnestly recommend it for general story (for it is a book to learn from). To young lovers, or rather young husbands, we especially recommend it."
[Newark Daily Advertiser.
