When leaving Athletic Park after the prize fights last Saturday, R. L. Auerbach, cashier at Macfarlane & Co.'s and an old resident of Honolulu, was struck by a wagon and knocked to the ground. Three ribs were broken, but today he was reported to be resting well, though some days will elapse before he is able to be about again.

At last night's meeting of the Republican central committee, the report of the sub-committee on revision of rules was approved, excepting the proposal to have the polls open for the primary election from one to six o'clock. It was deemed better to retain seven as the closing hour. The matter of a primary law was considered one for the committee on platform. Publicity of expenses was thought to be desirable, but better to be made a subject for legislation applying to all political parties.

DEATH PENALTY NEEDED TO STEM CRIME WAVE, HE SAYS

Cathcart Makes Statement Regarding Epidemic of Assault cases—Jury Should Fix the Punishment, Is the Opinion of City and County Attorney

Dissatisfaction with the Territorial statute that places on the circuit judge the responsibility of choosing between the two sentences of life imprisonment or hanging for a prisoner convicted of criminal assault appears to be growing among the members of the legal fraternity, reaching a new stage in its spread this morning when Chin Fan(the Chinese convicted of this o°ense a few days ago, was sentenced to life imprisonment by Judge Robinson this morning.

Attorney General Alex. Lindsay, Jr., declared a few days ago, when Nung Chung was given a similar sentence for a like offense, that in his opinion the law is unfair, and should be modified in such manner that conviction by the jury would specify a definite penalty, relieving the court of the onus.

"It is quite apparent the punishment given now is not producing the desired result," said City and County Attorney Cathcart this morning, to a representative of the Star-Bulletin. He did not recommend the extreme penalty in this morning's case, declining to make any suggestion then that would influence the court's decision. But outside the court he asserted:

"Capital punishment, I believe, must be inflicted if the wave of crime of this character is to be effectually checked in the islands. Life imprisonment apparently is having little effect.

Fifth Conviction in year.

"This is the fifth conviction for this particular kind of crime that we have had in Honolulu in the last year, and the third of the kind since the first of last January. Four of those convicted have been Chinese, the fifth being a Hawaiian. And right on top of the last one, on the day that Chin Fan was to be sentenced yesterday, came the news of still another offense, virtually the same save that the offender was prevented from completing his fiendish work.

"What we need is one or two cases of capital punishment, but the law should not impose the responsibility of the sentence on the judge."

"In the present case the evidence given before the jury indicated that the crime was the work of a fiend—a man probably fifty years of age assaulting, in succession, three little girls. Although he was o ntrial for only one assault the evidence was complete for conviction for either one of the other two cases. If life imprisonment for this man is not sufficient to check others, I believe the full penalty should be given, setting an example, and then see whether it will have a deterrent effect on the nefarious business."

As yet, however, no word has been heard intimating that steps will be taken for the repeal of the present statute and the substitution of another remedying the difficulty by practically compelling the jury to pass sentence on the convicted person.

Rawlins Makes Plea.

When asked this morning if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him, Chin Fan, through the court interpreter, replied in the negative, but his counsel, Attorney William T. Rawlins, arose and in the course of a brief talk, assailed the newspapers for what he declared to have been misstatements concernign the age of the complaining witness, declared his own faith in the prisoner's acuse and announced his intention to demand a new trial, and, failingi n that, to appeal the case. He also asked for the minimum penalty.

He said the newspapers had repeatedly given the little girl's age as seven years, when in reality, he declared, according to the evidence in the case, she was more than eleven, and would be twelve years old next January.

BUSINESSMEN DRESS HOUSES FOR JULY 4TH

If all the merchants of Honolulu make as creditable a display in the way of decorating their places of business for the Fourth of July celebration, as Stanley Stevenson of King street, the cty will represent blazng patriotism from end to end.

The building in which Stevenson carries on his work is not a pretentious structure, far from it in fact, but that has not deterred its enthusiastic tenant. He has utilized the entire front of the building in his plans. The gable is covered with a great painting representing a copy of the famous picture "The Spirit of '76." As this failed to cover the entire available space, Mr. Stevenson has added another picture representing a strenuous youth of Revolutionary days ringing the old Liberty bell. Both pictures are framed in green leaves and the effect is striking to say the least.

While Stevenson started on his decorative work early, other merchants began to get out their bunting and flags in various arrangements today and the indications are that when the morning of the Fourth dawns the city will be attired in a manner worthy of the occasion.

Although the Merchants' Association and the Chamber of Commerce joined in a request to the navy department asking that the cruiser Colorado be permitted to remain in Honolulu over the Fourth, no answer was received and the cruiser sailed for Bremerton today.

The parade feature of the day's festivities is receiving much attention from those in charge. Prince Kalanianaole, grand marshal, has sent out his aides to line up the cowboys of the island, and scores of them will ride in the procession and take part in the gymkana sports in the afternoon.

The grand marshal increased the number of his aides last evening, the completed list being as follows: Mayor Joseph Fern, Arthur Jones, Oscar Cox, Jack Fernandez, Robert Parker, Homer Smith, Ralph Lyons, George McCorriston, Guy Macfarlane, Lani Lemon, William Douthitt, George Wilkinson and John Clark. Norman B. Courtenay is the assistant grand marshal.

For some reason not made public, the members of the local G. A. R. post will not appear in the parade. This was decided upon at a meeting last night. The committee was disappointed when notified of the action, for it was believed that the G. A. R. would be among the first to lend their aid to a patriotic project. Arrangements have been made, however, to fill the place the aged patriots would have taken in the procession.

The old Hawaiian warship Kaimiloa which will be burned to make an American holiday, was towed over to Sumners Island last night and filled with combustibles. On the night of the Fourth, the historic vessel will be fired. Arrangements have been made to make this feature a reproduction of the burning of a warship driven ashore and set on fire by the enemy's guns. The spectators will see the flames climb into the rigging and hear the reports of the shotted guns as the flames reach them. Then will come the explosion of the magazine and the crumbling of the ship into ashes.

The Metropolitan Meat Market will close at 8 o'clock Thursday morning. There will be two deliveries tomorrow. None on Thursday.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Judge Robinson, sitting for Judge Whitney, this morning granted a divorce to Rikichi Hiraki from Mitsu Hiraki. The petitioner alleged desertion and adultery.

United States Marshal Hendry's accounts for the quarter ending June 30 were approved by Federal Judge Clemons this morning, and have been mailed to the Attorney General at Washington.

Pleading guilty of assaulting a customshouse officer, the seven Chinese sailors from the British tramp steamer, Indian Monarch were fined $15 and costs this morning by U. S. District Judge Clemons. The fine was paid by the Inter-Island Company, enabling the men to rejoin the crew and prepare for sailing tomorrow morning.

Lieut. W. E. Whitehead, who has been stationed at Guam, is now on temporary duty with the Colorado and says he is ignorant of any orders to appear as a witness in the court-martial hearing ordered for the Governor General of Guam in Washington. He does not know where he will be ordered to after being detached at Bremerton.

The Matson Navigation steamer Hyades, from San Francisco by the way of Puget Sound ports is an arrival off the port this afternoon. The Hyades brings a large general cargo for Honolulu, Kahului, Port Allen and Hilo. The vessel also carries a big shipment of lumber and timber for island ports. On deck there is a considerable number of head of horses for local importers. The Hyades will berth at the Hackfeld wharf.

Prof. M. E. Bairos will leave Honolulu Thursday for Kauai, where he will exhibit the tuberculosis display of the health department in the various communities of that island. In addition to keeping the exhibit open during the day, he will give lectures in the evenings, illustrated with lantern slides, showing the various methods of contracting the white plague, its manner of treatment and kindred subjects.

Just as news of the appointment of Judge Hard's successor was received this morning, plans had been perfected for temporarily filling the vacancy in the fourth judicial district on Kauai. Chief Justice Robertson, of the supreme court, was about to appoint one of the circuit judges of Honolulu to hold court on the other island, disposing of a number of cases in which juries would be waived and thus relieve the calendar of the September term.

C. H. Yong, or Young, editor of the Korean Times, still faces a charge of criminal libel, the outgrowth of the trouble in the Korean colony last winter when he was expelled from the Korean National Association. Victor H. Nghee committed suicide and the editor bitterly attacked Park Wan Kurl, a rival editor. Two criminal charges were preferred against Yong, and Circuit Judge Robinson yesterday morning dismissed one but denied the mition of defendant to strike out the allegations of the other.

S. S. KANSAN GETS AHEAD OF DECLINE

Alexander & Baldwin, Ltd., received a cablegram from its New York branch dated July 1 stating:

"Kansan arrived yesterday, basis 3.83.

"American, Howell and Arbuckle refineries quote basis refined 5c.

"Raw market is barely steady at the decline.

"Cables report European crop having favorable weather."

By arriving when she did the Kansan saved 0.04 cent a pound on her cargo at the basis met as compared with today's quotation of 3.79.

LUNCH GIVEN CAPT. COWELL

Captain J. L. Cowell, master of the Oceanic liner Ventura, Mr. William Reid, Purser in the same vessel, were guests of honor at a luncheon given at Commercial Club at noon today, the affair being under the auspices of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, at which Secretary H. P. Wood presided.

The luncheon was attended by Messrs. W. H. McInerny, A. J. Gignoux, Bertram Von Damm, C. E. Wright of Hilo, Fred Waldron, and members of the press.

Delightful informality prevailed and during the course of the spread general remarks were offered by several present. Captain Cowell assured the Honolulu business men that he stood ready to do all in his power to spread the fame of Hawaii throughout the far south Pacific. Purser Reid, has ever been a booster for the islands, in the course of the many years he has been associated with transpacific steamers operating between the Pacific coast and the Orient

ROBERT W. BRECKONS, U. S. District Attorney, returned this morning from Hilo, where he has been spending the week-end. He says the big volcano is keeping up to the advertisements of its unusual activity.
