INVESTIGATOR TO MAKE REPORT ON SOCIAL CONDITIONS SOON

Miss Frances Blascoer Almost Ready to Submit Recommendations as Result of Survey

The two reports in which Miss Frances Blascoer embodies the results of her investigation of the industrial conditions surrounding Honolulu women and girls and of her study of the question of dependent and delinquent children, will be given to the public in a few days.

They contain matter of the greatest interest to all lovers of the city, and are full of helpful suggestions that ought to bear large fruit in the near future. The investigations cover a period of five months and were made by Miss Blascoer for the trustees of Kalulani Home, who brought her here for this purpose from New York, where she had been engaged under the Russell Sage Foundation in special social researches. The coming of Miss Blascoer resulted immediately in the institution of a complete social survey of the city, of which her own work was but a part.

The other sections of this survey are being conducted by large, enthusiastic committees and when their reports are forthcoming Honolulu will have data essential to the prosecution of advanced social work. In fact, Miss Blascoer's advent will mark a new day in our social history, coincident as it was and contributing as it did to the inauguration of this campaign of comprehensive study at eight o'clock on Monday evening, November 11, at the residence of Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, 1641 Nuuanu Street, there will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of the investigation, to which all interested persons are cordially invited. Here there will be some informal discussion of recommendations made by Miss Blascoer and an opportunity to bid her farewell, as she is scheduled to return to New York on Wednesday.

BODY OF VIVAS LAID AT REST

The last rites over the remains of the late Attorney J. M. Vivas, whose tragic death occurred at Wailuku on election day as the result of an automobile accident, were held at Makiki cemetery late yesterday afternoon. The funeral service and arrangements were under the direction of the two large Portuguese societies of which he had been a member, the Sociedade Lusitana Beneficente d Hawaii and the Santo Antonio Beneficente de Hawaii.

From 9 o'clock yesterday morning until 4:30 in the afternoon the body of this man, who for years had been one of the most prominent among the Portuguese of the territory, lay in state at the Lusitana hall, where hundreds of friends joined the bereaved relatives in gazing at the well known face for the last time. The body arrived in Honolulu early yesterday morning on the Manna Loa from Maui, accompanied by Maj. J. M. Camara, a half-brother, and was taken first to M. E. Silva's undertaking parlor. From that point it was transferred to Lusitana hall. Rev. A. V. Soares of the Portuguese Evangelical church officiated at the funeral ceremony in the afternoon. The pallbearers were Judge Quarles, L. A. Andrews, Antonio I. Silva, A. V. Peters, Jose P. Rodrigues and Joao Moniz. Masses of floral offerings from the family's many friends banked the bier and later were strewn over the grave at Makiki.

THE HAWAII

Even the rain fails to keep the people away from this cosy house of good films, and since the management closed in the roof why folks don't have to shift seats any more as they used to which is quite an improvement.

Last night's program was well worth going out in the rain to see as all the pictures were splendid with one exception. "Pat Clancy's Adventure," supposed to be a comedy drama, but it was rather poorly acted. "Brown of Harvard" need not be mentioned as nearly every one has seen the play or read the book. "Fires of Driftwood" is a splendid film and the feature of the evening's program is "Broncho Billy's Xmas Dinner" featuring the public's favorite actor, Mr. G. M. Anderson, and it is full of stirring events and action all through. The same program will be repeated tonight.
