NOW READY:
"PROTECTION TO HOME LABOR AND HOME PRODUCTS NECESSARY TO THE PROSPERITY OF THE AMERICAN FARMER: By HENRY CAREY BAIRD," is the title of a large, full tract of sixteen double-column pages, to which we ask the attention of the friends of Free Labor throughout the country. There is not a farmer of any party or of none who can read this pamphlet without signal instruction and profit, no matter though he should dissent from that view of Political Economy and National Policy which it inculcates. Never was the ruinous nature of that system of Agriculture which grows a few rude, bulky staples for a distant market more vividly exhibited than in this tract, while no ordinary farmer can read it without at least resolving and seeing how to be a better farmer than he has ever yet been. We beg our friends everywhere to order at least a specimen of this tract, for we are sure they cannot read it without wishing their neighbors to do otherwise. Price 4 cents a single copy, 25 cents per dozen, $1 25 per hundred, $10 per thousand. If required by mail, one cent each in addition, to pay postage.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.
"THE POLITICAL TEXT BOOK FOR 1860.—This important compilation of political information which no politician should be a day without, is selling very rapidly. Already between ten and twelve thousand copies have been disposed of, and the demand is rapidly increasing. The Text Book is not, as some may suppose, a Republican document. On the contrary, it is intended for general use, and parties of every complexion can refer to it as to a veritable history. The title explains the object, namely, to give 'A brief view of Presidential nominations and elections including all the national platforms ever yet adopted; also, a history of the struggles respecting slavery in the territories, and of the action of Congress as to the freedom of public lands, with the most notable speeches and letters of Messrs. Lincoln, Douglas, Bell, Cass, Seward, Everett, Breckinridge, H. V. Johnson, etc., touching the questions of the day; and returns of all presidential elections, since 1836.' The work is comprehensive, and in our opinion every question discussed is fairly stated. The tables of elections are really invaluable. This work is published by The Tribune Association."—[New York Dispatch.
"This is a work of 256 closely printed pages, neatly bound, just laid on our table. Its title indicates its character. It presents in a portable form, convenient for every-day reference, the most important materials for forming a correct judgment on the political questions that now press for solution, and contains a great mass of information pertinent to living issues, and indispensable to every intelligent actor in our present politics. It will prove invaluable to the politician, and it should be in the hands of every voter. It is no argument for the tenets of either party, but a simple record of the political action of all parties since the commencement of the Union."—[Bloomsburg (Pa.) Republican.
"We are confident that so large an aggregate of correct political information was never before embodied in a single volume."—[Canton (Ill.) Register.
"THE PRESIDENTIAL CANVASS.—'The Political Text Book,' prepared by Horace Greeley and John F. Cleveland, is composed entirely of official documents and undisputed facts. It will be as acceptable to the Breckinridge-Lane party as to the Lincoln-Hamlin party, for it contains, fairly and fully set forth, all the material facts and announcements of principles and measures which either party will require in advocating its claims before the people. An alphabetical index refers directly to the matter sought, and there can be no dispute as to the accuracy and authenticity of the record."—[The Century.
"The book should certainly be in the hands of every person interested in the result of the present Presidential contest."—[Gazette, Burlington, Wis.
"The N. Y. Tribune has at length issued its Political Text-Book for 1860—the fullest and most complete collection of facts bearing on the pending Presidential contest."—[Alton Courier.
"POLITICAL TEXT-BOOK FOR 1860.—An examination of it convinces us that it will constitute an invaluable auxiliary to all who desire to familiarize themselves with the history of political parties, and the records of distinguished statesmen."—[Censor, Fredonia, N. Y.
