Morehead's Magic Eye-Water,
A safe, prompt and infallible REMEDY for all inflammatory and external DISEASES of the EYE.

This new and beautiful preparation has been suggested by recent discoveries in chemical science, and is indorsed and recommended by several of the most eminent physicians of this city, who have tested it in their practice. A valuable and reliable EYE-WATER is needed. Few diseases are more annoying and prevalent than those of the eye. Few are so readily relieved, if the proper means be used in time; and none are more serious, if they be neglected.

It is not departing from the truth to assert that in nearly all cases where the internal structure of the eye is not involved, a few applications of the MAGIC EYE-WATER will restore perfect health to the organ, and render any further doctoring or medicine unnecessary.

The proprietor would regret to insult the good sense of the public by recommending his EYE-WATER as a certain cure for Amaurosis, which is a paralysis of the optic nerve; for Cataract, in which the crystalline lens—or window of the eye—has become opaque or darkened; or even to squint at curing Strabismus, and promise to make crooked eyes straight. No such nonsense is intimated. Any person with "half an eye" could readily see through such an assumption. We simply offer the world a safe, prompt, and reliable remedy for all external complaints of the Eye, and for all conditions of inflammation of the organ. We further assert that the MAGIC EYE-WATER will give tone and strength to the sight, and impart new vigor to enfeebled vision. This is the whole story.

Manufactured by the proprietor, D. C. MOREHEAD, M. D., No 19 Walker-st. New-York.

MOREHEAD'S MAGIC EYE-WATER is sold by all respectable druggists. Price, 25 cents a bottle.

THE well-known literary critic of Harper's Monthly uses the following language in his notice of THE HOUSEHOLD OF BOUVERIE:
* * * "Everywhere betraying a daring boldness of conception, singular fertility of illustration, and a combined beauty and vigor of expression which it would be difficult to match in any recent works of fiction. * * * In these days, when the most milk-and-water platitudes are so often welcomed as sibylline inspirations, it is somewhat refreshing to meet a female novel-writer who displays the UNMISTAKABLE FIRE OF GENIUS,
however terrific its brightness."

9TH THOUSAND OF

TIMOTHY TITCOMB'S NEW WORK,

MISS GILBERT'S CAREER.

An American Story, by Dr. J. G. Holland, author of "Titcomb's Letters," "Bitter-Sweet," "Gold Foil," &c.

From the numerous notices of this work, already received, we select a few extracts having special reference to the inimitable CHARACTER 'CHEEK,' who has already become a very great favorite with the public:

"'CHEEK,' we think the most original character introduced. It has no double in the novels of the day, and is as much a child of the author as Leather Stocking was Cooper's."—[N. Y. Home Journal.

"His power is especially noticeable in 'CHEEK.' His temper, his intelligence, his keenness and accuracy of observation, and his friendly, almost officious, communicativeness withal, are brought out with admirable skill. This character is incomparable."—[Taunton Gazette.

"Among the successful delineations in this novel—we must not overlook the immortal 'CHEEK.' He is a true specimen of the better sort of Yankees who sprout out in every rural district, concealing beneath an uncouth costume, awkward manners, and dialect of unequaled quaintness the noblest qualities of a man.—'CHEEK' is an unmistakable New-Englander, born on the soil and dyed in the wool—no bogus imitation—his speech is redolent of the kind of pumpkins and codfish and may well serve as authority for a vocabulary of the vernacular."—[N. Y. Tribune.

"This work has character and material enough for a Library of the ordinary novels that over-stock the fiction market."—[Troy Times.

OFFICE OF CLERK OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS,
No. 7 CITY HALL, NEW-YORK, Oct. 22, 1860.
THE following was received from his Honor the Mayor, laid on the table, and directed to be published in one or more of the newspapers employed by the county.
JOSEPH B. YOUNG, Clerk.
MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW YORK, 22d Oct., 1860.
To the Honorable the Board of Supervisors.
GENTLEMEN: I return here with a resolution directing the Controller to draw his warrant in favor of George H. Stout, Clerk to Commissioners of Excise, for one hundred and fifty dollars, to compensate him for extra expense and labor as such Clerk, and withhold my assent to the same.
My objection to the resolution is based on its contravention of the provisions of the act creating the Board of Excise, and fixing the compensation of the members and clerks of those bodies. Section fifth of the act regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors, passed April 16, 1857, provides that each of the Boards of Commissioners of Excise shall have the right to appoint a Clerk for the time they may be actually in session in accordance with the provisions of such act, such Clerk to receive the same compensation as is allowed each of the Commissioners. The same section fixes the compensation of the persons composing such Boards of Excise at three dollars per day, and that no other or greater compensation can be allowed.
The compensation of the Clerk is thus fixed by statute and confined to the days of actual session of the Boards. The same limits can hence attach to it as to that of each member of the Board. Any extra allowance beyond the compensation given under the statute is thus clearly beyond the control of the Supervisors of the County. FERNANDO WOOD, Mayor.
