BUCKLE'S HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION, VOL. II.
D. APPLETON & Co.;
Nos. 443 and 445 BROADWAY,
PUBLISH ON SATURDAY,
A HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION,
BY HENRY THOMAS BUCKLE.
Vol. II.
1 Vol., 8vo., 476 pages. Price, $2 50.

From The Philadelphia Bulletin.
"Buckle is a man of progress, and one who looks hopefully and joyfully to the future of humanity, one who sees that its labor will not be lessened, but that labor will be rendered lighter by genius so that greater results will be obtained at the cost of less suffering. With rare tact he takes up facts which others have passed by, and sees in them rich promise of what man will do in the future."

From The National Intelligencer.
"We regard it as one of the most valuable contributions ever made to the philosophical treatment of history."

From The Chicago Home Journal.
"This work can hardly fail to elevate the standard of general history, for its comprehensive views of the subject are exceedingly instructive, the errors common to most historians are clearly pointed out, and the philosophy of history is so elaborated as to secure the attention of every lover of science."

From The London New Monthly Magazine.
"Whoever misses reading this book, will miss reading what is, in various respects, to the best of our judgment and experience, the most remarkable book of the day—one, indeed, that no thoughtful, inquiring mind would miss reading, for a good deal."

LLOYD'S Military Map of the U. S. and Gazette of the War—Now Ready.—This Map is Four Feet large, is colored nicely in States, shows all the Railroads, Cities, Towns, Rivers, Forts, Batteries, and Encampments; also, the Grand Divisions of the U. S. Military Departments. This is the only Military Map of the U. S. that is published. On the back is printed the Gazette of the War, which gives the statistics and latest particulars of the war, alone worth more than the price of the map. Single copies 25 cents; 8 for $1; 100 for $12. Sent any where on receipt of money; no stamps taken. Agents wanted. Address EDWARD F. LLOYD, Publisher,

THE TRIBUNE for 1861.
PROSPECTUS.
THE TRIBUNE is printed on a large imperial sheet, and contains Editorials on the topics of the times, employing a large corps of the best newspaper writers of the day; Full and Reliable Intelligence from the Seat of War; Domestic and Foreign Correspondence; the Proceedings of Congress; News by Telegraph from all parts of the World; Reports of Lectures; City News; Cattle, Horse, and Produce Markets; Reviews of Books; Literary Intelligence; Papers on Mechanics and the Arts, &c. We shall, as hitherto, constantly labor to improve the quality of the instructive entertainment afforded by THE TRIBUNE, which we intend shall continue to be the best Family Newspaper published in the World.
We employ regular paid correspondents in Europe, in California, at the Isthmus of Darien, in the Rocky Mountain Gold Region, and wherever else they seem requisite. From the more accessible portions of our own country, we derive our information mainly from the multifarious correspondents of the Associated Press, from our exchanges, and the occasional letters of intelligent friends. We aim to print the cheapest general newspaper, with the fullest and most authentic summary of useful intelligence, that is anywhere afforded. Hoping to "make each day a critic on the last," and print a better and better paper from year to year, as our means are steadily enlarged through the generous cooperation of our many well-wishers, we solicit and shall labor to deserve a continuance of public favor.
