From S. F.:
Korea, Jan. 2.
For S. F.:
Manchu, Honol'n, [illegible]
From Vancouver:
Zealandia, Jan. 1.
For Vancouver:
Marama, Dec. 31.

lulu Star-Bulletin

3:30 Edition

Evening Bulletin, Est. [illegible]
Hawaiian Star, Vol. [illegible]

14 PAGES.—HONOLULU, TERRITORY OF HAWAII, WEDNESDAY, JAN. 1, 1913.—14 PAGES. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

PEA[illegible] NFERENCE ENDS IN BITTER SNARL

HAPPY [illegible] GRANDS[illegible]

All Honolulu [illegible] out to [illegible]ess Clean S[illegible] at Kapiolani [illegible]--- Jockey pl[illegible] is Ability wi[illegible] mare, D[illegible] Wins in[illegible] some Styro[illegible] Dixie over ha[illegible] Mile Rou[illegible]

Under cloud-flecke[illegible] the cheerful warmth [illegible] New Year's morning, the [illegible] that all Honolulu has bee[illegible] ward to for weeks passed, [illegible] ing at Kapiolani Pa[illegible] J. Pluvius must be [illegible] Sport of Kings, for [illegible] for the first race [illegible] cloud hung threaten[illegible] Diamond Head, causin[illegible] to cast many app[illegible] doft. However, as [illegible] "scare" into seve[illegible] lane, the rain Go[illegible] with the morning's [illegible]

A fair sized crow[illegible] the opening race, [illegible] a mere fraction of [illegible] makers that the c[illegible] weather and good[illegible] to tempt to the [illegible] numbers are flash[illegible]

It was a typica[illegible] that watched the [illegible] this morning. K[illegible] hills, orientals a[illegible] efete East met [illegible] to pay homage [illegible] sovereign long [illegible] net. Bar the mi[illegible] and the Kapiolani [illegible] like an old coun[illegible] of the cut and [illegible] singed in cont[illegible] when the game [illegible] ordered herding [illegible] of the betting [illegible] of the bitting [illegible] of the paddock [illegible] clangs out th[illegible] These are mi[illegible] the races are [illegible] keeping with [illegible] spirit of the o[illegible]

In England [illegible] by too many [illegible] there are poi[illegible] open downs th[illegible] air above, whe[illegible] to spend the e[illegible] of the sport. [illegible] prevails in Ha[illegible] the box office [illegible] ed coin, still, [illegible] of leisurely e[illegible] make up for [illegible] ings.

This morni[illegible] those who p[illegible] grandstand p[illegible] tributions to [illegible] a pitiless su[illegible] by the scud[illegible] unroofed s[illegible] severe test [illegible] pleasanter o[illegible] grandstand [illegible] position, be[illegible] to be seen [illegible] ditions. If [illegible] and poured [illegible] heads it w[illegible] the same w[illegible] Once set, [illegible] Diamond H[illegible] Ruger, cou[illegible]

The sp[illegible] marred by [illegible] too scarce [illegible] the thud [illegible] and the s[illegible] bow of s[illegible] and catch [illegible] However, [illegible] ion that [illegible] the com[illegible] rumming [illegible] can't be [illegible] late [illegible] big New [illegible] those w[illegible] less ma[illegible] even if [illegible] s 4 o'c[illegible] [illegible] a c[illegible]

[illegible] RACES PACKED

[illegible]. F. TURNER KILLED BY A FALLING TREE

(Special Wireless to the Star-Bulletin)

HILO, Hawaii, Jan. 1.—L. F. Turner, manager of the Pacific Development Company, while superintending the work of a gang of laborers this morning was killed by the fall of a tree, which crushed the life out of him. He is well known here and in Honolulu, where he has many friends.

AUTOS AND HORSES VIE IN NEW YEAR'S RACE PROGRAM

Ford No. 1, Schuman Carriage Company; Bob Lillis, driver; Isaac Kanae, mechanician.

Traveler 50, entered by George C. Beckley in fifteen-mile race. A. Buffum at wheel, W. Behn, mechanician.

J. J. Madeiros's Dora D., speedy Hawaiian-bred entry in running races today.

[illegible]E AUTOS DASH IN NEW YEAR RUN

Motorized Se[illegible]tion of Department Sho[illegible]s Speed in Fine E[illegible]hibition

As a spectacu[illegible] FOR [illegible] exhibition the run of Honolulu's n[illegible] automobile fire apparatus to [illegible] Kapiolani square at 9 o'clock this [illegible] was a huge success, witne[illegible] and [illegible] crowd of people [illegible] and fixtures [illegible] New office building [illegible] 26,08[illegible] ay of [illegible] 1,01[illegible] all [illegible] erest receivable [illegible] than those spe[illegible] 5,45[illegible] the [illegible] $237,15[illegible] after [illegible] with [illegible] at [illegible] box [illegible] county of Honolulu, [illegible] ory of Hawaii. [illegible] F. Damon, Treasur[illegible] chief [illegible] rm, [illegible] ly swear that the above [illegible] the [illegible] and belief. [illegible] all [illegible] bed and sworn to before [illegible] Notary Public, [illegible]

Stop watches were held on the cars and the exact time taken for the run of each, as well as the time required to reach the given point after the alarm was given, was obtained. Mayor Fern, one of the timers, said that twenty-seven seconds must be deducted from the total time of the run, to give the actual time of the apparatus en route, as the wagons do not leave their houses until the alarm has given the location of the fire, this taking twenty-seven seconds.

No. 2 engine, from central headquarters, was the first on the scene, arriving in just 52 seconds from the moment Fire Chief Thurston touched the alarm. The police patrol appeared next, passing in front of the fire chief in 1 minute, 45 seconds; the central hose flashed by in 1 minute, 52 seconds; police ambulance in 2:06; Palama hose in 3:50; Makiki hose in 4:06; Makiki traction apparatus in 4:30 and Kaimuki hose wagon in 9:15.

In the latter instance the figure given is the actual time of the run, as that house is not connected with the alarm at the Opera House, and left promptly at 9 o'clock by pre-arrangement. Despite the greater length of time required by the Kaimuki outfit to reach the destination, the record is regarded as excellent, because it covered about five or six miles, a portion of which offered some rough going. In fact the Kaimuki apparatus' time is probably the best of the records established in comparison with the time that would be required for horse-drawn vehicles to get over the same ground.

Following the exhibition the apparatus was lined up inside the capitol grounds and the new fire fighting motors, assembled for the first time in one body, were photographed in various positions.

[illegible]BOR BOARD [illegible]N'T SEE HOW [illegible] APPROVED [illegible]

[illegible]ter reviewing and discus[illegible] correspondence between [illegible]erintendent of Public Wo[illegible] Campbell and Contract[illegible] [illegible]ell concerning the plan [illegible] the latter last April for th[illegible] new wharf at Kihei, [illegible] [illegible]rd of harbor commissioners [illegible] afternoon was unable [illegible] [illegible]e definitely how Howell [illegible] [illegible]0 happened to be approve[illegible] The members did lea[illegible] [illegible]at it had been approved [illegible] [illegible] the money paid, and a[illegible] [illegible]actor himself finally expre[illegible] "I got the money, but e[illegible] [illegible]urvey I made was worth [illegible] [illegible]oes not change the present [illegible] [illegible]our present plans for the [illegible] [illegible]for a more expensive projec[illegible] [illegible]emainder of the appropr[illegible] [illegible]provide. You can't recall [illegible] [illegible]already spent, but you ca[illegible] [illegible]plans or wait and get m[illegible] [illegible]from the coming legislatur[illegible]

Howell suggested to th[illegible] that new plans, incorporat[illegible] [illegible]ent features of the presi[illegible] [illegible]calling for an expenditure [illegible] [illegible]amount remaining from [illegible] [illegible]appropriation, be made an[illegible]

[illegible]nued on Page 2)

[illegible]TAKE PART [illegible]LORAL PARADE

[illegible]ese to join in the local celebra[illegible] [illegible]f the birthday of the great man [illegible] in history as the "Father" of [illegible]t nation friendly to Japan. [illegible]gument was used by some of [illegible]ho discussed the matter pri[illegible] [illegible]nd a further argument was [illegible]ral wish to keep up the fine [illegible]ade by the Japanese in the [illegible]iving what some regard as [illegible]most striking feature of the [illegible]

[illegible]'s Letter.

[illegible]wing letter from the con[illegible] explains his attitude of [illegible]eration in the proper ob[illegible] [illegible]he day and was received [illegible]-general Chillingworth [illegible]atification:

FIREMEN COME TO DEFENSE OF CHIEF

The following letter was handed to the Star-Bulletin today:

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin,

Sir:—Pertaining to the article in your paper yesterday relating to Chief Thurston and his working in politics, we, the undersigned firemen, would say this much:

"Why don't the newspapers tell all about the fire department?" asked Mr. Trent. They do. What Mr. Trent should have asked is this: "Why don't the newspapers tell what I want them to about the fire department?"

We absolutely deny that Chief Thurston or any officer of the department pinned any Parker badges on a single one of us, and we defy Mr. Trent to prove that the chief used his position as a means to defeat Fern, and also to prove that he told any one of us for whom to vote.

As for the houses at Palama, what the chief said will be proved by the

(Continued on Page 4)

BANKS, TRUST COMPANIES, ALL HAVE BIG YEAR

With the bumper crop of sugar and high prices for the commodity during the greater part of the year 1912, it is natural to suppose that a degree of general prosperity would prevail which would be reflected in the financial institutions. Statements of bankers and trust company managers below leave no necessity for other elucidation of financial conditions here. Business on the Honolulu stock and bond exchange for a large part of the year was at record height, declining only in the last two or three months to a low plane for reasons which are fully set out in this paper.

"The year 1912 has been a very profitable one generally," said A. Lewis, Jr., manager of the Bank of Hawaii, to the commercial editor of the Star-Bulletin. "The payments to the plantations of steady [illegible] interspersed with [illegible] through the year get hold of the [illegible] expending of freedom and pow[illegible] "do things" that comes [illegible] returning health.

DEMOCRATS IN COMBINE AGAINST FREAR

Governor and Mott-Smith Are Slated for the Discard by Bourbon Senators

By C. S. ALBERT

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 14.—The nominations of Governor Frear and Secretary Mott-Smith continue to be slated for the discard. Their situation was almost hopeless from the beginning. It has now grown worse. Unless the unforeseen happens, or the Republicans can bound themselves up and give the Democrats a good trouncing, both will fail of confirmation. It will not be for lack of a good fight but because the brevity of time will enable the minority to prevent final action.

The entire matter went over until January 4 without opportunity being afforded for the presentation of even a good word in behalf of Governor Frear and Secretary Mott-Smith. The committee of five Democratic senators detailed to pass on the matter of Taft's appointments by a caucus of that faith, were unable to agree. In fact, they were split up on the basis of three to two. They made this known and were given until January 4 in which to adjust their conflicting views. They expressed the firm opinion that a unanimous verdict could be presented on that date. A Democratic powwow will be held January 4 to take final action regarding just what nominations shall be confirmed and what shall be left hanging in the air on March 4.

The preponderance of sentiment among the Democrats is to confirm none but diplomatic appointments and promotions in the army and navy. It is regarded now as unlikely that this position will be changed by the gathering of next month.

According to the program arranged no attention whatever will be given the appointments of Frear and Mott-Smith. They will be labeled as purely political and tossed into a pigeonhole.

The Republicans have reached a specific determination to fight the Democrats to a standstill. They began carrying out this plan on the day preceding the holiday recess adjournment. No progress was made and none can be expected until after the Archbald impeachment trial is concluded, about the middle of January. This will be followed by the great rush of money bills, with less than seven weeks of the session remaining. The chances for a successful battle are remote.

ARREST MARKS CITIZENS' MOVE

The first move made by the Citizens' Protective Committee in a definite campaign to protect women and girls of Honolulu came yesterday, when a warrant for the arrest of Silvester Marks, a young man of the city, was served and he was taken to the police station.

Marks is accused by Thomas McGiffin of this city of persistently annoying McGiffin's young daughter. Two weeks ago the case was brought to the attention of the Citizens' Protective Committee by John C. Anderson, probation officer of the juvenile court. The case was talked over and Anderson was advised to secure all the facts and have the man arrested if the evidence warranted it. Judge W. B. Lymer, who is a member of the committee, volunteered to offer his services to the prosecuting attorney to help prosecute the man if it was shown that he was anoying the girl and menacing her safety.

As a result of conferences held with Judge Lymer by the people interested, a warrant was sworn out for the arrest of the man and he was taken yesterday. He will be given a hearing in police court on January 3. Marks was arrested on a charge of being unlawfully on the premises, of another. According to the statement made to the Protective Committee, McGiffin had told Anderson that the man had been on his premises [illegible] tried to talk to the [illegible] Attorneys who [illegible] committee have the first race [illegible] following it a special race be[illegible]

BULGAR MINISTER CAUSES TROUBLE

Bulgarian Representative at Court of St James warns Great Britain that his Country Regards Turkish Proposals Insulting and will again appeal to Arms—other Allies Repudiate his Action

[illegible]

2 DYNAMITERS COLLAPSE WHEN 'FRISKE DIN JAIL'

(Associated Press Cable)

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Jan. 1.—Thirty-three of the convicted dynamiters were landed behind the bars of the Federal prison here today. They appeared exhausted with their trip from Indianapolis, and two of them collapsed when the prison guards began to search them preparatory to sending them to their cells.

The guards brought word that Ortie E. McManigal, the informer, will leave Indianapolis for Los Angeles within twenty-four hours.

LONDON TAXIES OUT ON STRIKE

(Special Star-Bulletin Cable)

LONDON, Jan. 1.—All of the taxicab drivers in this city went out on strike this morning. More than eight thousand men are reported to be idle.

CARL SMITH ILL

Carl S. Carlsmith is lying at the Queen's Hospital dangerously ill. He was brought here yesterday from Hilo on board the Inter-Island steamer Maui Kea and taken directly to the hospital, where admittance even of friends to his bed side is refused. The hospital authorities refuse to give any kind of a report as to the cause of his illness. Mrs. Carlsmith is with him.

BATTLESHIPS OFF TO ESCORT BODY OF AMBASSADOR

(Associated Press Cable)

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—The battleships North Dakota, Florida and the destroyers Ross, Dayton, Nicholson and Paulding, sailed from this port this morning to meet the British cruiser Natal that is bringing the body of the late ambassador to England, Whitelaw Reid, back home. Arrangements for a formal funeral of the diplomat, statesman and editor, have been completed.

DETECTIVES HEM IN RESIDENCE OF WM. ROCKEFELLER

(Associated Press Cable)

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Swarms of detectives are besieging the residence of William Rockefeller, in an effort to serve upon the owner the summons from the House of Representatives investigating committee, to appear and testify regarding the so-called money trust.

So far the officers have been unable to force an entrance.

PALZER WAS FAVORITE IN PRE-FIGHT BETS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 1.—Al Palzer is still favorite in the betting although the wise ones are inclined to quote him at even money or less as the time for the fight grows nearer. He weighed in this morning at 218 pounds. His rival McCarthy weighed in at 205 pounds.

McCARTY WINS HARD FIGHT IN EIGHTEENTH ROUND

(Special Star-Bulletin Cable)

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 1.—McCarty wins. In the eighteenth round the referee was forced to stop the great fight with Al. Palzer to save the latter from a crushing knockout. Palzer was outclassed from the start and never had a look-in with his lighter, branier opponent.

Almost from the gong McCarty went after Palzer as though sure of winning. Palzer, clumsy, unable to judge distance and utterly outclassed swung viciously and vainly at the Irishman. Time and again he aimed blows that would have put McCarty down and out had they land[illegible] time and time again did the big fighter he was facing side ster[illegible] ward them off so that they glanced off harmless.

As early as the opening blows of the sixth round it wa[illegible] Carty's battle. At this point a straight right to the no[illegible] flowing from Palzer and a rain of blows over the h[illegible] ered the red over his entire face, and partly blind[illegible] by another stiff right and a third closed the oth[illegible]

In the twelfth round McCarty succeeded i[illegible] him to the ropes so that every one thought [illegible] ered gamely and came back for more an[illegible]

At the opening of the fifteenth roun[illegible] toward the Dutchman, but McCarty [illegible] again and with the close of the [illegible] of the situation. [illegible] Palze[illegible] the eighteenth [illegible] waved to and fro[illegible] center of the [illegible] forwa[illegible]

AIRING
Young Building

EDUCATOR SHOES
—at the—
MANUFACTURERS S[illegible]e,
1051 Fort[illegible]
Merchant St.

REG[illegible]
[illegible] made
[illegible] New

[illegible]OUR'S TOILL[illegible]
[illegible] AND NUTRITIOUS BREAD
Love's Bakery

WANTED