Military Notices.

TROY, N. Y., May 31, 1861.

Dear Sirs I am happy to be able to say that the "SOLIDIFIED MILK" you were so thoughtful as to furnish us at Fort Sumter proved an unqualified luxury—the soldier who cannot dispense with his coffee most always find it so—and the besieged garrison of Fort Pickens would unquestionably, relish it as highly as did we, apart from its effect in preventing scurvy.

Respectfully, your obedient servant,
T. SEYMOUR, Capt. 1st Artillery U. S. A.

To C. A. ROBERTSON, President, No. 73 Liberty-st., N. Y.

Winthrop Guard, Attention.—This Battalion is now in quarters and will leave for the seat of War in a few days. A few more recruits received by applying at the quarters of the Battalion No. 179 Prince-st., or at No. 113 Bowery (Bowery Garden), or at Mercer House, corner Broome and Mercer-sts.
by order of G. T. J. LEWIS, Lieut. Commanding.

THE TRIBUNE for 1861.
PROSPECTUS.
THE TRIBUNE is printed on a large imperial sheet, and contains Editorials on the topics of the times, employing a large corps of the best newspaper writers of the day; Full and Reliable Intelligence from the Seat of War; Domestic and Foreign Correspondence; the Proceedings of Congress; News by Telegraph from all parts of the World; Reports of Lectures; City News; Cattle, Horse and Produce Markets; Reviews of Books; Literary Intelligence; Papers on Mechanics and the Arts, &c. We shall, as hitherto, constantly labor to improve the quality of the instructive entertainment afforded by THE TRIBUNE, which we intend shall continue to be the best Family Newspaper published in the World.
We employ regular paid correspondents in Europe, in California, at the Isthmus of Darien, in the Rocky Mountain Gold Region, and wherever else they seem requisite. From the more accessible portions of our own country, we derive our information mainly from the multifarious correspondents of the Associated Press, from our exchanges, and the occasional letters of intelligent friends. We aim to print the cheapest general newspaper, with the fullest and most authentic summary of useful intelligence, that is anywhere afforded. Hoping to "make each day a critic on the last," and print a better and better paper from year to year, as our means are steadily enlarged through the generous cooperation of our many well-wishers, we solicit and shall labor to deserve a continuance of public favor.

TO MANUFACTURERS OF FIREARMS, &c.—The subscriber offers to LEASE or SELL, on liberal terms, his MANUFACTURING WORKS, located in the City of New London, Connecticut, within one quarter of a mile of the Railroad Depot. Goods can be transported either by railroad or by water, at a distance from the factory not exceeding 250 yards. The ground contains about 22 lots, 25x100 feet each. All the buildings are of brick, substantially built. The main building is three stories high, 30x100 feet, with additions equal to 25x40 feet, containing shafting throughout the first and second stories, all ready for use; also a powerful engine and boiler, in perfect order. The building one story high, for blacksmithing foundery, &c., &c., is 175 feet long and 30 feet wide, with two wings; also the Store and Office building, 30x50 feet, and two stories high. There are also on the premises a stable and shed, with iron racks, and an abundance of fresh water; and several machine lathes, which will be sold on liberal terms. The property can be seen at any time by inquiring for P. N. GALLAER, at New London. For further particulars inquire of PETER NAYLOR, No. 41 South William-st., New-York.
