"O, SING UNTO THE LORD A NEW SONG."
SONGS FOR THE SABBATH-SCHOOL.
THE GOLDEN CHAIN;
JUST ISSUED EDITED BY
MR. WILLIAM B. BRADBURY,
Is the MUSIC BOOK that every Sabbath-School should have at once. The Editor of The Independent says:
"Mr. Bradbury's is a rare gift, and a rare pleasure, in being able thus to minister to the training of the young in 'the service of song.' Much as he has accomplished in this line, never has he been more successful than in this new book of Sabbath-School melodies. We have heard several of them sung, and know how well they ring in the Sabbath-School. Mr. Bradbury has incorporated with this collection 'The Star Spangled Banner,' and other patriotic songs."

THE TRIBUNE for 1861.
PROSPECTUS.
THE TRIBUNE is printed on a large imperial sheet, and contains Editorials on the topics of the times, employing a large corps of the best newspaper writers of the day; full and Reliable Intelligence from the Seat of War; Domestic and Foreign Correspondence; the Proceedings of Congress; News by Telegraph from all parts of the World; Reports of Lectures; City News; Cattle, Horse, and Produce Markets; Reviews of Books; Literary Intelligence; Papers on Mechanics and the Arts, &c. We shall, as hitherto, constantly labor to improve the quality of the instructive entertainment afforded by THE TRIBUNE, which we intend shall continue to be the best Family Newspaper published in the World.
We employ regular paid correspondents in Europe, in California, at the Isthmus of Darien, in the Rocky Mountain Gold Region, and wherever else they seem requisite. From the more accessible portions of our own country, we derive our information mainly from the multifarious correspondents of the Associated Press, from our exchanges, and the occasional letters of intelligent friends. We aim to print the cheapest general newspaper, with the fullest and most authentic summary of useful intelligence, that is anywhere afforded. Hoping to "make each day a critic on the last," and print a better and better paper from year to year, so our means are steadily enlarged through the generous cooperation of our many well-wishers, we solicit and shall labor to deserve a continuance of public favor.
