officers that the same corresponds with the manifest and invoice, and the duties estimated on the value and quantity of the invoice, and on the execution of a bond as hereinafter provided, the collector shall deliver the same to be immediately transported to such port of destination, at the sole cost and risk of such owner, agent, or consignee. And goods and merchandise imported to any of the aforesaid ports of entry, and designed for any port designated by the thirty-fifth section of this act, the collector of said port shall give priority in time to the examination of said goods and merchandise for the purpose of forwarding the same to their port of destination, and said examination shall not necessitate the transportation of said goods and merchandise to the warehouse or appraiser's office; and such merchandise so entered for immediate transportation shall not be subject to appraisement and liquidation of duties at the port of first arrival aforesaid, but shall undergo such examination as the Secretary of the Treasury shall deem necessary to verify the invoice and entry, and the same examination and appraisement, thereof shall be required and had at the said port of destination as would have been required at the port of original importation if such merchandise had been entered for consumption or warehouse at such port.

SEC. 30. And be it further enacted, That the bond required by the foregoing section shall be in a penal sum of at least double the invoice value of the merchandise, with the duties added, and in such form, and with such number of sureties (not less than two) as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury; and the said sureties shall justify, by affidavit taken before the collector of customs and attached to the said bond, in an amount at least double the penalty of the bond, and the said collector shall certify to their sufficiency; and the said bond may be executed at the port of final destination, and transmitted to the collector at the port of first arrival, as provided by the act of March two, eighteen hundred and thirty-one.

SEC. 31. And be it further enacted, That merchandise so entered for transportation shall be delivered to and transported by common carriers, to be designated for this purpose by the Secretary of the Treasury, and to or by none others; and such carriers shall be responsible to the United States as common carriers for the safe delivery of such merchandise to the collector at the port of its destination; and before any such carriers shall be permitted to receive and transport any such merchandise they shall become bound to the United States in bonds of such form and amount, and with such conditions (not inconsistent with law) and such security as the Secretary of the Treasury shall require.

SEC. 32. And be it further enacted, That merchandise transported under the provisions of this act shall be conveyed in cars, vessels or vehicles, securely fastened with locks or seals, under the exclusive control of the officers of customs; and inspectors shall be stationed at proper points along the designated routes, or upon any car, vessel, vehicle, or train, at the discretion of the said Secretary, and at the expense of the said companies respectively. And such merchandise shall not be unladen or transhipped between the ports of first arrival and final destination.

SEC. 33. And be it further enacted, That merchandise so destined for immediate transportation as aforesaid, except the packages designated for examination, shall be transferred, under proper supervision, directly from the importing vessel to the cars, vessel, or vehicles in which the same is to be transported to its final destination; and if transferred from the importing vessel to any bonded or other warehouse, or to any other place than such car, vessel, or vehicle, it shall be taken possession of by the collector as unclaimed, and deposited in public store, and shall not be removed from such store without entry and appraisement, as in ordinary cases. But the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, and with such precaution as he shall deem proper, authorize the establishment of bonded warehouses especially and exclusively appropriated to the reception of such merchandise in cases where its immediate transfer to the transporting car, vessel, or vehicle shall be impracticable. But merchandise remaining in such warehouse more than ten days shall be deprived of the privileges conferred by this act, and shall be taken possession of by the collector as unclaimed, and held until regularly entered and appraised.

SEC. 34. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe forms of entries, oaths, bonds, and other papers to be required, and all needful rules and regulations not inconsistent with law, to be observed in the execution of this act, which shall have the force and effect of law.

SEC. 35. And be it further enacted, That the privilege of this act shall extend to the ports of New York, in the State of New York; Boston, in the State of Massachusetts; Providence, in the State of Rhode Island; Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania; Baltimore, in the State of Maryland; Norfolk, in the State of Virginia; Charleston, in the State of South Carolina; Savannah, in the State of Georgia; New Orleans, in the State of Louisiana; Portland, in the State of Maine; Buffalo, in the State of New York; Chicago, in the State of Illinois; Cincinnati, in the State of Ohio; St. Louis, in the State of Missouri; Evansville, in the State of Indiana; Milwaukee, in the State of Wisconsin; Louisville, in the State of Kentucky; Cleveland, in the State of Ohio; San Francisco, in the State of California; Portland, in the State of Oregon; Memphis, in the State of Tennessee; and Mobile, in the State of Alabama; and to importations from or to Europe, and from or to Asia, or the islands adjacent thereto, via the United States.

SEC. 36. And be it further enacted, That at each of said ports, for which an appraiser of imported merchandise is not now provided for by law, there shall be appointed an appraiser of imported merchandise, at a salary of three thousand dollars per annum, and also such number of weighers, gaugers, measurers, and inspectors as may be necessary to execute the provisions of this act, who shall receive the ordinary legal compensation of such officers.

SEC. 37. And be it further enacted, That any person maliciously opening, breaking, or entering, by any means whatever, any car, vessel, vehicle, warehouse, or package containing any such merchandise delivered for transportation as aforesaid, removing, injuring, breaking, or defacing any lock or seal placed upon such car, vessel, vehicle, warehouse, or package, or aiding, abetting, or encouraging any other person or persons so to remove, break, injure, or deface such locks or seals, or to open, break, or enter such car, vessel, or vehicle, with intent to remove or cause to be removed unlawfully, any merchandise therein; or in any manner to injure or defraud the United States; and any person receiving any merchandise unlawfully removed from any such car, vessel, or vehicle, knowing it to have been so unlawfully removed, shall be guilty of felony, and in addition to any penalties heretofore prescribed, shall, on conviction, be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years; and any person swearing willfully false in any oath prescribed in this act, or by the Secretary of the Treasury in pursuance of authority to make all needful regulations conferred upon him by this act, shall be guilty of willful and corrupt perjury.

SEC. 38. And be it further enacted, That sections twenty-nine, thirty, thirty-one, thirty-two, thirty-three, thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six, and thirty-seven of this act shall take effect on the first day of October, eighteen hundred and seventy.

Approved, July 14, 1870.

SHERIFF'S SALES.

George Nungesser vs. Widow Mary A. Stevenson (Mary Ann Woolverton, widow of Joseph S. Stevenson)—Fourth District Court for the parish of Orleans, No. 24,269.

BY VIRTUE OF A WRIT OF SEIZURE AND SALE to me directed by the Honorable the Fourth District Court for the parish of Orleans, in the above entitled cause, I will proceed to sell at public auction, at the Merchants and Auctioneers' Exchange, Royal street, between Canal and Customhouse streets, in the Second District of this city, on SATURDAY, October 29, 1870, at twelve o'clock M., the following described property, to wit—

TWO CERTAIN LOTS OF GROUND, together with all the buildings and improvements thereon, and all rights, ways, privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging or in any wise appertaining, situated in the First District of this city, in the square bounded by Bacchus (now Baronne), Dryades, Calliope and Clio streets, designated by the numbers five and six, on a sketch annexed to an act of partition passed before H. B. Cenas, late a notary public in this city, on the fifteenth day of February, 1851; said lots measure, each, as follows: lot number five twenty-one feet one inch and six lines front on Bacchus (now Baronne) street, by one hundred feet in depth, between parallel lines, bounded in the rear by an alley four feet wide, common to the same and other lots bordering thereon.

And lot number six, twenty-two feet and four lines front on Bacchus (now Baronne) street, by one hundred and twenty-seven feet two inches and three lines in depth between parallel lines being the same property acquired by defendant, by purchase from Mrs. Sarah Woolverton, widow of James Dudley, per act passed before William Shannon, notary public in this city, on the twenty-fourth day of January, 1867.

Seized in the above suit.

Terms—Cash in a sufficient amount to pay plaintiff's claim, say six thousand dollars ($6000), with interest thereon at eight per cent per annum from the twenty-fourth day of January, 1867, and costs of suit. 2. The purchaser to assume (to the extent of the amount of his bid) the payment of a promissory note secured by mortgage upon said property, drawn by the defendant, duly aided and authorized by her husband, to her own order, and by her indorsed, dated on the twenty-fourth day of January 1867, for the sum of two thousand dollars ($2000) payable four years after date, and bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum from date until paid. 3. And the balance of the price of adjudication, if any, cash on the spot.
