VICTOR HUGO'S GREAT NOVEL.

COMPLETE IN FIVE VOLUMES.
CARLETON'S EDITION.

LES MISERABLES—VALJEAN.

The FIFTH PART and last of HUGO'S Great Novel is now ready.

The parts are:
PART I.—FANTINE. PART II.—COSETTE.
PART III.—MARIUS. PART IV.—ST. DENIS.
PART V.—VALJEAN.

Such works as this appear but once in a century. "Les Miserables" is too humbly designated a novel by its author, for the novel is but a screen behind which the master sits proclaiming as with authority the grandest and most vital truths. The Parables of Christ have had in essence and purpose no more successful imitator. Victor Hugo is in the decline of life: he has been an author of mark for more than a quarter of a century: he is an exile and outlaw because he is a republican and will not abjure his faith; yet not a trace of bitterness, of narrowness, deforms these august volumes. Royalist, imperialist, aristocrat, conservative, may peruse them without aversion, for their author has risen through observation, reflection, experience, suffering, to that serene height whence is comprehended the good in evil, the truth in seeming falsehood, and the benignant uses which Omniscient Wisdom extracts from human frailty, hypocrisy, bigotry and crime.

Proposals.

OFFICE OF ASSISTANT COMMISSARY GENERAL OF SUBSISTENCE, No. 4 State-st., New-York, Oct. 16, 1862.

ARMY SUPPLIES.—PROPOSALS will be received by the undersigned, until 4 o'clock p. m. on SATURDAY, the 18th inst., for supplying, for the use of the United States Army, SUBSISTENCE STORES, to be delivered in New-York or Brooklyn as follows, viz:

1,000 barrels First Quality MESS PORK, or PRIME MESS PORK (which to be tested), to be full salted, 200 lbs. meat, in full-hooped oak barrels with two iron hoops; meat to be free from rust or stain.

950 barrels of first quality EXTRA MESS BEEF—The meat to be packed in four-hooped oak barrels, with two iron hoops.

150,000 pounds first quality smoked BACON SIDES or SHOULDERS (which to be tested), and if the latter the shank cut off close to the orielet. To be packed in air-tight tierces of about 300 pounds or in boxes of 250 pounds, like sample to be seen at this office.

55,000 pounds of first quality thoroughly cured SMOKED HAMS, average weight not to exceed fourteen pounds, to be packed in air-tight tierces of about 300 pounds. Propose to state whether their Hams are pickle-cured or dry-salted, also their average weight.

1,500 barrels of first quality extra superfine Southern, St. Louis, or other brands of FLOUR, suitable for keeping in a warm climate. The barrels to be full head-lined.

Bidders will state in their proposals the earliest time at which their deliveries can be made.

Proposals for different articles must be on separate sheets of paper.

Small samples to accompany proposals for Flour.

Each bid must have a printed copy of this advertisement pasted at its head, and must be specific in complying precisely with all the terms. Each bid, to have consideration, must contain the written guaranty of two responsible names, as follows:

"We, the undersigned, hereby guarantee that should all or any part of the above bid be accepted it shall be duly fulfilled according to its true purport and condition; also, that a written contract with bonds to the amount of one-fourth the value of the stores proposed to be furnished, shall be executed if required."

Bidders may propose for the whole or part of either article.

Certificates of inspection by professional packers or inspectors other than the party furnishing the provisions, will be required for all the meats, certifying on the part of the vendor their present quality and condition and the immediately preceding inspection. The meats will also be examined and passed upon by Robert P. Getty, Inspector, on the part of the United States. The seller's name, place of business, with date of purchase, is required on each package of every article.

The Flour will be inspected at the date of delivery, and compared with the retained samples.

Contractors are expected to hold their goods, without expense to the United States, until required for shipment.

Proposals which may not be accepted are requested to send for their samples on Tuesday, 21st October.

Blanks for Proposals will be furnished at this office, which must be inclosed in an envelope addressed to the undersigned and indorsed "Proposals for Subsistence Stores."

A. B. LAFON, Lieut.-Colonel and A. C. G. S.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, October 15, 1862.

PROPOSALS for ANCHORS and KEDGES.—The NAVY DEPARTMENT will, until the 30th October, 1862, receive proposals for the manufacture and delivery, at such Navy-Yards as may be designated, of the following Iron-Stocked ANCHORS and KEDGES:

6 of 2,400 pounds	20 of 1,100 pounds	12 of 500 pounds
10 of 2,100 pounds	17 of 1,200 pounds	30 of 400 pounds
15 of 1,500 pounds	14 of 1,000 pounds	40 of 300 pounds
50 of 1,500 pounds	35 of 700 pounds	30 of 200 pounds
	79 of 600 pounds

The above weight is exclusive of the stock, which will be in the usual proportion, and they are to be made of the best scrap iron, of the form, dimensions, and finish of those made for the naval service, and be subject to such inspection as the Department may direct.

Twenty-eight of these anchors, of each of the sizes of 1,500, 1,200, 1,100, 700, 600, 400, and 300 pounds each, must be delivered in ninety days from the date of the notification of the award of the contract, and the remainder in one hundred and thirty days from the same date.

The conditions of the contract will be similar to those usual in the Navy.

The bids must be accompanied by the guaranty required by law, that if awarded the contract will be executed.

The proposals must be indorsed "Proposals for Anchors," that they may be distinguished from other business letters, and be addressed to the "Secretary of the Navy."
