FOR MARTIAL LAW

Botkin's Friends Anxious for It to Be Declared.

MANY MEN IN GREAT PERIL

They Fear He Will Be Shot Down Unless He Is Afforded Very Strong Protection.

ARKALON, Kan., Jan. 9.—Two wounded men who arrived here Friday confirmed the indefinite report received Thursday of a running fight near the Oklahoma line between a portion of the murderers of Sheriff Dunn and the party of Judge Botkin's friends. These were Ezra B. Farwell and John Naughton, two farmers living in the southern part of Haskell county. Farwell was shot in the hip and Naughton in the arm. The two men dropped out of the pursuing party Thursday night in No Man's land and made their way to Liberal, where their wounds were dressed.

The Country in Arms.

The entire country is in arms, but no hostilities are shown in the immediate vicinity of Arkalon or Springfield, because the presence of the troops deters hostile men from making targets of their enemies. The troops that have been stationed here since Wednesday marched to Springfield Friday afternoon, the adjutant general having become convinced that it would be good policy to unite his entire forces at the latter place. The six prisoners were taken along and put in jail.

Botkin May Be Shot.

Judge Botkin will open court at Springfield, but he will have to adjourn in time to reach Santa Fe, in Haskell county, the following day, as he must open court there. Just a week later he is due at Hugoton, Stevens county, where the second attempt to secure a jury for the trial of James Brennan, the murderer of Col. "Sam" N. Wood, will be made. Unless the judge is well guarded it does not seem possible that he can make the journey across the wild country without being shot. He has asked for a military escort, but none of the forces now here can be spared, as they will all be needed in guarding prisoners and in preventing disturbances at the preliminary hearing in Liberal.

Want Martial Law.

The friends of the judge are convinced that he will be murdered unless he leaves the county. He will not do this, however, and the only way by which further bloodshed can be prevented is by the governor placing the entire judicial district under martial law. The judge's death may be postponed for a short time by being protected constantly by a strong guard, but the minute the military forces are withdrawn fighting and murdering will begin anew. J. H. Pitzer, a friend of Judge Botkin, left for Topeka Friday to consult with the governor. He will lay the facts as they exist before the chief executive and endeavor to convince him that the only way to prevent further loss of life is to resort to martial law.

The Plot to Kill the Judge.

Deputy Sheriff Custer has just returned from Springfield. He reports more of the plot to kill Judge Botkin than has heretofore been known. According to his story the plot was for the killing of Botkin at Hugoton one week from Tuesday next, and Mrs. S. N. Wood, the wife of the man killed by Brennan, was to do the killing, according to his statement. She has been practicing with a revolver in order to acquire a correct aim, but after the plans had been matured the conspirators could not be restrained. Custer claims to have proof of this.

Mix killed George Meig for making improper advances to his daughter. Friends of Meig took him from jail and lynched him. They were not sustained by the community.

They died on the same day of the year and at the same hour they were born. They were 69 years old. One was a victim of pneumonia and the other of dropsy. They lived together all their lives.

A New Trial Denied.

DENVER, Jan. 9.—Dr. Graves will not get a new trial unless the Colorado supreme court grants it. Judge Rising has refused a new trial and also denied the motion for a continuance of judgment. A motion for arrest of judgment was then filed. This will be heard Monday and if denied sentence of death will be immediately passed.

All Probably Lost.

PADUCAH, Ky., Jan. 9.—A wrecked houseboat, which belonged to John Cutar, and a family of a wife and five children, was found floating in the Tennessee river Friday evening. As none of the family can be found, it is feared they were swept overboard in the storm of Wednesday night and lost.

A GRATEFUL MOTHER

Her Son's Loathsome Disease Removed.

Boy Only Twelve Years Old—Chronic Catarrh—Great Discharge From Nose and Throat.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL

CHIPPEWA FALLS, WIS., Dec. 4, 1891.

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.—Gentlemen: It is with great pleasure that I write of the benefit derived from your remedy, Pe-ru-na. My little boy, about twelve years old, has always been troubled with catarrh very bad several years, and I had great fears of his going into consumption. He had a bad cough that I could not check, and his head was in a terrible condition. His head discharged so much for years that it was a charge on my mind to keep him supplied with handkerchiefs. I had to use every rag that I could get at hand. It was astonishing how he could discharge so much from his nose. I commenced to give him Pe-ru-na about a month ago, and the discharge from his head is entirely stopped, and also his cough. He now does not have to use a handkerchief at all. The Pe-ru-na seems to act like magic in his case. I feel as if I can not find words to express my gratitude for the medicine; but I do regret that I never tried it before. I thought there was no cure for him, and had given up trying to have him cured; but when I saw the disease so thoroughly explained in the paper by Dr. Hartman I thought I would try his medicine. I never will be without Pe-ru-na in the house, and I will recommend it to all my friends.

Very sincerely yours,
MRS. A. E. ACKERMAN,
E. Grand Ave., Chippewa Falls, Wis.

PE-RU-NA AS A FAMILY MEDICINE.

Used according to the directions, Pe-ru-na will secure the family against catarrh, colds, coughs, pneumonia, pleurisy, bronchitis and consumption. It is a fact of ever-increasing astonishment that so many otherwise sensible and provident people will, for the neglect of so simple a precaution as to have a bottle of Pe-ru-na at hand, bring upon themselves the needless suffering and foolish expense that a professional man is forced to witness every day.

A cold in the head, which a single bottle of Pe-ru-na will cure, soon becomes a case of chronic catarrh, which will require many bottles to entirely cure. A sore throat, which one bottle of Pe-ru-na will cure, soon becomes chronic pharyngitis or enlarged tonsils, which will require many bottles. A slight cough, which without a vestigate of doubt, would soon disappear with the use of Pe-ru-na, becomes chronic bronchitis, which require a presistent use of Pe-ru-na for some time. Every practicing physician sees many cases of consumption each year due directly to a neglect of coughs, colds, etc., which if Pe-ru-na had been kept in the house and used according to directions would have been prevented.

In no other department of domestic arrangements is there such stupendous disregard of the welfare of the family as in guarding against the common ills of life by the use of effective and reliable family remedies. If the following advice could reach every household in the land, and with such eloquence as to win obedience, it would convey a blessing to each of a value that would be difficult to exaggerate. The advice is this: Get a bottle of Pe-ru-na, read the instructions on the bottle until they are thoroughly understood, do exactly as they direct, and no catarrh, cold, cough, sore throat, bronchitis, pleurisy, pneumonia, or any other climatic disease will disturb the peace of the household so long as this is continued. To have this remedy at hand before the attack comes, to become intelligent as to its use, is only the most common foresight used in all other departments of ordinary business.
