PECK'S DRUG STORE

MARSHMALLOW SOAP
10 Cents Per Cake.

This soap is manufactured by Seiga Palmer, New York. It is not made of tallow, but of French pomade. These pomades are used in making Palmer's extracts for the handkerchief. After the odor is washed from them by means of spirits, the tallow pomade is manufactured into soap. Of course the supply of pomade is limited, and the output of the soap small; but the quality is the best of any soap in the market, because the pomades are composed of the finest materials and are used for extracting the odor from the flowers. Each cake weighs five ounces. The soap is free from the alkaline nature so injurious to tender hands and faces. We have had it branded Marshmallow, to distinguish it from inferior soaps. It cannot be purchased in the dry goods stores, as the trade-mark "Marshmallow," by mutual agreement, belongs to Polk Bros., and we decline to sell it at wholesale. Try a box of the Marshmallow Soap and decide upon its merits. Six for three cakes.

Mrs. Humphrey Ward,

Author of Robert Elsmere.

"David Grieve is inexhaustible in invention. It is here that Mrs. Ward has done some of her best work and in a novel, which is nothing if not critical of modern sects, has shown that there are but two whose influence over conduct she has still to investigate—Theosophy and the Salvation Army."—Critic, Jan. 30, 1892.

THE BATTLE RAGES

THE ENEMY PUT TO FLIGHT!

WE SHOW NO QUARTER. VICTORY IS OURS, BUT IT IS A WAR OF EXTERMINATION.

We have met the enemy and although they had anticipated our attack, our continued cannonade of LOW PRICES and incessant fire of SUPERIOR GOODS soon put them to flight foot and saddle, and now with the exception of now and then a stray shot from the enemy in the ambush which falls far short of our lines, we are monarchs of all we survey.

A SPY IN CAMP.

The enemy has succeeded in sending several spies inside our lines, obtaining our plans and specifications, together with valuable information as to our defenses and mode of warfare, but their report of our impregnable fortress, HIGH GRADE GOODS, LOW PRICES and EASY PAYMENTS to their superiors, immediately brought about an UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER, and we offer to all who rally to our standard

Never Offered You Before. BARGAINS Never Will be Offered You Again

HUNDREDS have rallied to our standard during the past week. We have granted them all furloughs and sent them home loaded with presents for the dear ones to return again only when they desire bargains they can secure nowhere else.
