THE DUSSELDORF GALLERY.
A NEW EDITION.
GEMS FROM THE DUSSELDORF GALLERY OF PAINTINGS. Photographed from the Originals, by A. A. Turner, and reproduced (for the first time), under the Superintendence of S. Fredeham, with Letter-press Descriptive of each Work. 1 elegant vol., large 4to., with 52 fine Photographs. Elegant, in morocco, $50.
The Dusseldorf Gallery of Paintings so long and favorably known in New-York, is, for the first time, reproduced by the aid of photography. This will enable many Art-lovers to possess copies of original pictures, the great value of which would place the possession of them beyond their reach. It is needless to attempt to eulogize this collection, for it has now been for many years before the American public, who have had, and justly so, their national vanity flattered by the knowledge that this country possesses a gallery of modern German painters' works, such as is seldom seen in Germany itself, and this not a public but a private property.

NEW PRESENTATION BOOK FOR 1864.
THE WREATH OF BEAUTY. Edited by John R. G. Hassard. 1 vol. imperial 8vo., embellished with sixteen steel Portraits, beautifully printed, and richly bound in best turkey morocco. $12 50.
In the preparation of this volume it has been the editor's endeavor to impart such a variety to its contents that no intelligent reader shall fail to find in it much that may interest him; and with this view, although a great part of the matter has been written expressly for its pages, he has not scrupled to select, from various foreign works, a number of tales which seemed to him worthy of being better known in this country than they thus far have been.

A NEW AMERICAN EPIC.
PELAYO: an Epic of the Olden Moorish Time. By a New Author. 1 vol. 12mo. Illustrated. Cloth, $2; cloth gilt, $3; Mor., $5.
This new volume of Poems pertaining to the chivalrous age of Spanish history, has been spoken of in flattering terms by several of our literary men. Among others, William C. Bryant says: "I have been charmed to perceive how skillfully the author has availed herself of the materials for poetic embellishment furnished by the history of that romantic period."

A COMPANION TO DANA'S "TWO YEARS BEFORE THE MAST."

BY REV. JAMES K. ROSSER.
Who volunteered as private in the Fifty second Massachusetts, and went through the campaign.
12mo. Beveled Boards. $1 25.
This is undoubtedly the most piquant and readable sketch ever made of the interior life of a great army in active service, and made from the inside, by a hand entirely competent.
It does for the soldier what Dana did for the sailor in his "Two Years Before the Mast," and must be immediately and permanently popular. Its tone is cheerful and patriotic, and it will do an immense service if widely scattered among the army.
Sent free by mail on receipt of $1 25.
Everybody should send a copy to some soldier in camp or hospital. No gift can be more acceptable.

It is pre-eminently a Book for Girls. The author is one of the most accomplished of the female writers of America."
JEAN ELLIN; or, THE ADVENTURES OF A LITTLE FRENCH BOY, sparkles with energy and life, and conquering difficulties, surmounting obstacles like another "Robinson Crusoe," he establishes himself an inspiring hero in the hearts of his young readers. J. J. AUDUBON'S celebrated and magnificent folio editions of the BIRDS AND QUADRUPEDS OF NORTH AMERICA.
THE BIRDS OF NORTH AMERICA. Illustrated in part by one magnificent folio volume, 27 by 40 inches, containing figures of birds, all of the natural size, in action, together with the plants and trees most frequented by them.
Folio volume of plates, and 7 vols. text royal 8vo., complete bound in 5, half Russia, extra $175
——— Full Russia, superb, gilt edges 200
This volume contains a desirable selection of more than one-third of the plates of the former edition, and these are furnished at one-half the price at which the same portion of plates was then sold.
This edition was issued under the personal superintendence of his son, the late JOHN W. AUDUBON, and every plate colored from the original drawings, still in possession of the family.
The principal reason why this volume can be sold at the present reduced price is that no account has been made of the expense of the original copper plates, which for the work was over $100,000, but on the simple cost of manufacturing, and a small profit only has been added to the cost thus estimated. Further, the volume was completed before the great advance in paper, coloring, and binding; if manufactured now, it could not be sold but at a very large advance on the present prices.
THE QUADRUPEDS OF NORTH AMERICA. Illustrated by two imperial folio volumes, 21 by 27 inches, representing 150 animals, either of life size or their scale distinctly given. Two vols. folio plates, and 3 vols. text royal 8vo., half Russia, extra $225
——— Full Russia, superb, gilt edge 250
Also, OCTAVE LIBRARY EDITIONS of the above works. Descriptive circulars sent on application. Published by

The rapid and wide-spread circulation of this eminently practical work is, we think, without precedent. Rarely has any medical publication met with such universal commendation from the medical Press both at home and abroad. It has had awarded to it the high honor of a translation into the French and German languages.
From The New-York Journal of Medicine.
"We hail the advent of such a work abounding in practical matter of the deepest interest, and illustrated by principles and laws ordained by nature. Nor can we refrain from expressing our gratification at finding the Book so remarkably exempt from the superficial views which abound in the great thoroughfare of medicine."
From The New-York Medical Times.
"Successful as the work has been at home and abroad, we were not prepared to see it achieve a triumph exceedingly rare in the history of American Medical Authorship, viz: a Translation into the German and French languages. We congratulate the Author on this high compliment paid to his labors."
From The Medico-Chirurgical Review, London.
"Dr. Bedford's able work on the Diseases of Women and Children is worthy of its author, an honor to his country, and a valuable mine of instruction to the profession at large."
From The London Medical Times and Gazette.
"It is much to be regretted that we have not more such books in Great Britain. Dr. Bedford has shown himself master of his subject."
From The Dublin Quarterly Journal of Medical Science.
"We were actually fascinated into reading this entire volume, and have done so most attentively; nor have we ever read a book with more pleasure and profit. There is not a disease connected with infancy or the female system, which is not most ably discussed in this excellent work."
From The London Lancet.
"A careful perusal of Dr. Bedford's book has satisfied us that its value will continue to be acknowledged and the author recognized as a most skillful and eminent practitioner of medicine. To get at once to the point is the prevailing characteristic of Dr. Bedford's volume. He exhibits remarkable skill in quickly arriving at an accurate diagnosis and every page in his book tends toward the treatment and relief of disease."
From The Gazette Medicale, Paris.
"This work is most ably written, and demonstrates that the author is not only a sound thinker, but thoroughly comprehends the important department to which he has devoted so much attention."
From The Edinburgh Medical Journal.
"We have been both pleased and instructed by the perusal of Dr. Bedford's work. It is characterized by great ability, and very conclusively proves the author to be an accomplished physician, and an eminently successful practitioner."
From The Midland Quarterly Journal of the Medical Sciences, England.
"To read this book is to be struck with its truthfulness and utility; we find all that is useful in practice ably communicated, and elegantly expressed. American works are not generally read on this side of the Atlantic, but we most cordially recommend Dr. Bedford's volume as worthy of the very best attention of the profession."
From The Philadelphia Medical and Surgical Reporter.
"Dr. Bedford's book is a good one. We like it, for we can digest a dinner over it without going to sleep, and that is more than we can say of most medical works."
From The Home Journal.
"The very book for mothers. It is replete with sage counsels."
From The New-York Commercial Advertiser.
"This book deeply interests every female in the land. It is written by one in all respects competent to instruct in the interesting subject he so ably discusses."
From the New-York Evening Post.
"An eloquent production, and should be read by every mother and married woman, who are interested in their own health, and that of their daughters."
