Mrs. Blaine, Jr., Writes to Her Father-in-Law.

WANTS HER LETTERS PRINTED

She Demands the Publication of Her Billets Doux—If Not Done in Ten Days She Will Make Trouble.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., March 2.—Mrs. James G. Blaine, Jr., has furnished the Associated Press an open letter in reply to the "personal statement" made by James G. Blaine, Sr., through the same channel last Sunday regarding the relations between Blaine, Jr., and his wife, who was recently granted a divorce:

The Letter.

"SIOUX FALLS, S. D., March 2.—My Dear Sir: You have furnished the public with a remarkable production under the caption of 'a personal statement.' I consider it my duty at this time to address you with that degree of dignity which your position as a public man entitles you to. I acknowledge your well-deserved, richly deserved fame as a diplomate and appreciate fully the weight which your utterances possess as fully as do I appreciate my own weakness and my total inability to cope with you in a personal encounter, but I shall expect from you that considerate and honorable treatment which I am sure your keen sense of dignity and fairness will dictate.

Not Sympathy but Justice.

"The powerful man of a great nation will surely accord to a weak and defenseless woman her full meed of justice. You surely can ill afford to withhold it. I wish it distinctly understood by you that I am not asking sympathy. I respectfully demand justice.

"It is in your power to grant this simple request. It remains to be seen if you will do it. I will aid you by a suggestion. Have the kindness to publish in connection with your statement the full text of the letters you quoted from. Do not, like a shrewd and unprincipled person, select only such pages as may be needed to make out a case, but give the entire contents to the public, that I may be judged righteously. You have the documents, surely, else you could not quote from them.

Ten Days to Answer.

"I will give you a sufficient time in which to conform to my reasonable demand—say ten days. If at the end of that time you fail to respond I shall deem it my duty to give in substance their contents and corroborate my statement by publishing letters from your son both prior and subsequent to our marriage.

"You know full well that your charges against me regarding the marriage are unfounded. I give you ample opportunity to retract. You have two alternatives, the one suggested or silence. Your consideration for your grandson will surely induce you to decide in favor of the first. This is not a proposed diplomatic engagement on my part, for your success in dealing with powerful nations is too well known for me to meet you on any other ground than as the mother of your grandson.

Wants Her Love Letters Published.

"I take it that your sentiment was prompted chiefly by the remarks of Judge Thomas in tendering his decision which gave me my freedom. I have no defense to offer in his behalf, I simply demand, now that you have arraigned me by the use of fragmentary quotations from my love letters to your son, that you be fair enough to publish the originals in full. I will then prove to the world that your son was far from a weakling, and that you, his proud father, well knew it long before he married me. Truly yours,

"MARY NEVINS BLAINE.

"To Mr. James G. Blaine, Washington, D. C."

MONEY TO LOAN.

DO YOU WANT MONEY?—If so you will find it to your advantage to see us before borrowing.

We make loans on household goods, pianos, horses, wagons, or personal property of any kind at the lowest possible rates and in the quickest possible time.

Our loans are made without publicity and the property is left in your undisturbed possession.

Loans can be carried as long as desired or can be paid in full, or in part, at any time to suit your convenience, and any part paid reduces the cost of carrying the loan.

If you owe a balance on furniture, piano or other property, we will pay it up for you and carry it at such as you desire.

Our offices are the most pleasant in the city and are so arranged that parties calling upon us may be waited upon quickly and courteously.

Remember that you have the use of both the property and the money and can return the money at any time.

CHEATING IN HORSE BLANKETS
Nearly every pattern of 5/A Horse Blanket is imitated in color and style. In most cases the imitation looks just as good as the genuine, but it hasn't the warp threads, and so lacks strength, and while it sells for only a little less than the genuine it isn't worth one-half as much. The fact that 5/A Horse Blankets are "copied is strong" evidence that they are THE STANDARD, and every buyer should see that the 5/A trade mark is sewed on the inside of the Blanket.
