DR. GONZALE'S PERUVIAN MEDICINES.—These valuable Medicines can be had of the General Agent, J. W. CARLE, No. 60 Liberty-st; Demas S. Rance, No. 202 Broadway; F. C. Wells & Co., No. 115 Franklin-st.; J. Sibords, No. 52 Dey-st., and J. Young, No. 130 Varick-st.
Translated from the N. Y. FRANCO-AMERICAN of 19th March: "Sarsaparilla, as a medicine, has had its day. Quacks, under that name, have sold so many preparations as injurious to the health as nauseous to the taste, that the afflicted, rather than resort to their use, despairingly submit to disease. Peru now furnishes a remedy which will ultimately replace Sarsaparilla, and which no quack can imitate. We refer to Dr. GONZALE'S SYRUP DE LOXA. Several that we know, who have tried it, pronounce it unsurpassed for cutaneous diseases, impurity of the blood, female complaints, biliousness, and old ill-cured secret diseases. Judging from the statements of a few of our friends, it is actually a blessing, and of incalculable value for the extirpation of Gout and Rheumatism, when used with
DR. GONZALE'S GOUT and RHEUMATIC
PERUVIAN OINTMENT.
We knew long since that GONZALE'S PULMONIC PERUVIAN OIL was in high repute in South America, but from appearances, the SYRUP DE LOXA will acquire a still greater fame."
SYRUP DE LOXA, for impurities of the blood, cutaneous diseases, inveterate biliousness, female complaints, ill-cured secret diseases, etc., $1 per bottle.
PULMONIC PERUVIAN OIL, for bronchitis, incipient consumption, colds, hoarseness, etc., $1 per bottle.
GONZALE'S GOUT and RHEUMATIC PERUVIAN OINTMENT, warranted, if used with Syrup de Loxa, to extirpate Gout, Rheumatism, etc., 75 cts. Sent everywhere on receipt of funds. J. W. CARLE, Agent, No. 60 Liberty-st.

TROPICAL BALSAM.
PREPARED BY CARRENO BROTHERS & Co.
This celebrated and unparalleled medicine, composed only of salutiferous and purifying vegetables, has been, for many years past, the great popular remedy of South America, and is an infallible remedy for the speedy cure of Phthisis, Croup, and all other Diseases of the Chest and Throat, affections resulting from falls, blows, or bruises, however severe; Hemorrhages, Wounds, Contusions, Ulcers, Felons, Burns, Piles, Headache, Toothache, and other diseases. (See directions around the bottles.)
Ever since this valuable medicine has been introduced in this country, its internal and external use has never failed to produce the most wonderfully successful results.
Heads of families are advised to keep always this Balsam by them, in order to use it in time in cases of Wounds, Hemorrhages, Burns, Bruises, &c.; also, those who are devoted to such occupations as expose them to danger, or require the use of instruments wherewith they may be injured in any way.
The following are some of the many valuable testimonial letters in our possession, testifying to the marvelous efficacy of this Balsam:
NEW-YORK, Nov. 26, 1863.
MESSRS. CARRENO BROTHERS & Co.—Gentlemen: I received a few weeks ago a severe wound on my right arm from a sharp instrument at the machine shop of Hunter, Keller & Co., No. 144 Centre-st., where I am employed. I was dressed by a surgeon, but the inflammation and pain were so great that I could not make any use of my arm. I was then advised by a friend to dress the wound with the celebrated Tropical Balsam you prepare. I did so, and am happy to say that shortly after the first application of the Balsam the inflammation and pain subsided, and with a few more dressings I got entirely well, and was doing my work again. Respectfully yours, MICHAEL TOYE, No. 60 Elridge-st., New-York.
NEW-ORLEANS, Dec. 2, 1863.
MESSRS. CARRENO BROS. & Co., NEW-YORK—Gentlemen: I have the pleasure of certifying, by the present, that I have been cured by your "TROPICAL BALSAM" of a serious affection of the Lungs, attended with cough and great sufferings. Mrs. Julia Guevin of this city has also been cured with the same Balsam of a dangerous cough and a serious disease of the chest. I am happy to testify to such a complete success of your Balsam, and you may rest assured that I will do my best to propagate with all the extent of my power a remedy whereby I have obtained so successful results.
Respectfully yours, CHARLES LAMBERT.
NEW-YORK, Oct. 9, 1862.
MESSRS. CARRENO BROTHERS & Co.—Gentlemen: This is to certify that I had one of my hands terribly bruised by having it caught in machinery as I was backing in our truck in the house of Hook and Ladder Company No. 2. My hand became swollen to an enormous extent, and was very painful. I was recommended by a friend to try your valuable Tropical Balsam. After a great deal of suffering and trying a number of remedies, I procured a bottle of your Balsam. I applied it, and to my astonishment in three hours took the swelling and the pain subsided; in the course of two days I was entirely well, able to resume my business and do fire duty. I consider the Tropical Balsam the wonderful medicine of the age, and can truly recommend it to all, and would not be without it if the price was $5 per bottle. You are at liberty to publish the above at your pleasure.
Yours truly, REUBEN O. DREW,
No. 20 Carmine-st., New-York.
NEW-YORK, Dec. 16, 1863.
MESSRS. CARRENO BROTHERS & Co.—My Very Respectable Sirs: The satisfaction of seeing my wife pass from a deplorable state to that of complete health leads me to give the tribute to Cæsar which is due to Cæsar.
My said wife had a dry and steady cough day and night for more than a month, which not only prevented her from sleeping, but also gradually caused her to lose her appetite. After having tried, without any effect, innumerable pectorals and other remedies, I determined, by the advice of a friend, to give her your "Tropical Balsam;" and I have the pleasure of saying that after she took the second bottle of it, the cough disappeared, and upon taking the third one she not only regained her appetite, but recuperated her entire health. Be so kind as to accept this statement as a proof of the satisfaction I feel in having an opportunity of giving due praise to your Balsam.
Your most obedient servant, J. FERNANDO SAUEI,
No. 150 East 26th-st., New-York.
NEW-YORK, Feb. 1, 1864.
MESSRS. CARRENO BROS. & Co.—Gentlemen: I have the pleasure of certifying that one of the men employed at the machine shop of Messrs. Hunter, Keller & Co., No. 144 Centre-st., of which I am foreman, fell out of a wagon and had his face severely wounded, which caused it to bleed, and become very much inflamed; he applied to it some cotton drenched in your "Tropical Balsam." The hemorrhage stopped instantly, the inflammation disappeared in a few hours, and with a few more applications of the Balsam he was entirely well.
Yours respectfully, S. J. GEOGHEGAN.
