New Publications.

THREE NEW BOOKS THIS WEEK.

THE SUPPRESSED BOOK ABOUT SLAVERY!—A remarkable work, in every respect; written and stereotyped in 1857, but never published till now. Why it was SUPPRESSED, will be apparent to the reader. It is no hackneyed hash of ancient sayings on Slavery, but fresh, vivid, awakening, cutting to the quick, and compelling attention. Plentifully illustrated with wood cuts in the highest style of xylographic art. The public are already clamoring for it. 12mo., tinted paper, cloth bound, $1.

NEARER AND DEARER.—A charming and amusing Love Story, by the author of that splendid college book "Verdant Green." It is filled with comic illustrations, and will be one of the best selling books of the year. 12mo., cloth, tinted paper. $1 50.

THE WINTHROPS.—A very clever new American novel. 12mo; cloth, $1 75.

EVERY AMERICAN CITIZEN who wishes fully to understand his duty in this CRISIS OF OUR NATIONAL AFFAIRS,
AND THE DANGERS WHICH BESET
DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS,
SHOULD READ
DEMOCRACY IN AMERICA,
BY ALEXIS DE TOCQUEVILLE,
TRANSLATED BY HENRY REEVE, ESQ.
Edited by Francis Bowen, Alford Professor of Moral Philosophy in Harvard University.

The Cambridge Edition. 2 vols. Post 8vo. Bound in Maroon Vellum. Price $6.

"M. De Tocqueville has written of America and Democracy in a manner that no other man has ever approached; nor do we believe that his book will soon be equaled."—[Boston Traveller.

"This long famous work, read by tens of thousands in the original French, and by millions in an English translation, has at length found fitting expression and manifestation in the truly beautiful volumes before us."—[Philadelphia Inquirer.

"The work is such an able exponent of the Republican principle embodied in our Constitution that every American is in a manner bound to make himself familiar with it."—[Chicago Journal.

"If the instruction and the admonitions of this work were already valuable to American readers, they come with a special claim to their attention at the present time, when the very foundations of our social and civil order are threatened with upheaval and destruction. The chapter on the dangers resulting from a disruption of the Union is one that startles by its vividness. Much that was prophecy when De Tocqueville penned the sagacious outlines of the future awaiting the great Republic has since become history, 'written in blood.'"—[National Intelligencer.

"It is a book that ought to be generally studied here, for no writer has more thoroughly comprehended the great principles on which our government is founded than De Tocqueville."—[Portland Transcript.

The special claims of the CAMBRIDGE EDITION of this remarkable book are, that the original translation, which was very defective, has been carefully revised, and in great part rewritten, and that the additions made to the later Paris Editions are here first translated. The volumes are beautifully printed on tinted paper at the University Press, and tastefully bound in maroon vellum, and have received the unanimous and unqualified praise of the press as being the most elegant books ever made in America.

STEINWAY & SONS' GOLD MEDAL GRAND AND SQUARE PIANOS are now considered the best in Europe as well as this country, having received the first Prize Medal at the World's Exhibition in London, 1862.
The principal reason why the Steinway Pianos are superior to all others is that the firm is composed of five practical piano-forte makers (father and four sons), who invent all their own improvements, and under whose personal supervision every part of the instrument is manufactured. Warerooms Nos. 71 and 73 East Fourteenth-st., between Union Square and Irving Place, New-York.

THE WEBER PIANO FORTE—
Is admitted to be the BEST Piano Forte made, because the maker, he being a practical mechanic of long experience, is also a THOROUGH MUSICIAN, thus combining advantages possessed by no other manufacturer in the United States. Fradel, Max Maretzek, Carl Anschütz, John Zerulo, Maurice Strakosch, Gottschalk, Arnoldi, and every good musician in the United States. All musical ears at once admit their great superiority. Warerooms, No. 155 West Broadway, near Canal-st.
