WHO KILLED COCK ROBIN?
HURD & HOUGHTON,
No. 401 Broadway, N. Y.,
Have just published a new and elegant edition of the
DEATH AND BURIAL OF POOR COCK ROBIN,
Lithographed in the best style of the art from ORIGINAL AND HUMOROUS DESIGNS BY H. L. STEPHENS.
1 vol., 4to., with 46 full-page illustrations, printed on tinted paper, with the letter-press in gold. Price, $1 25.

Also, uniform with the above,
A FROG HE WOULD A-WOOING GO.
DESIGNS BY H. L. STEPHENS.
1 vol., 4to., with 16 full-page illustrations, printed on tinted paper. Letter-press in gold. Price, $1 25.
☞ These books are illustrated with exquisite grace, humor, and pathos, and will be appreciated and enjoyed by both young and old.
The Evening Post says: "Hurd & Houghton have republished these two redoubtable poems, with capital new illustrations from designs by H. L. Stephens. The German writers and artists are very happy in writing and illustrating such works for children, who almost by instinct attribute in their fancy the gifts of humanity to birds, insects, and animals. * * * Mr. Stephens, in his illustrations, clothes his birds, and frogs, and animals in a style which fully equals anything the German or French artists have ever done. His volumes ought to be 'standard' editions of the works they represent."

WAR POWERS
UNDER THE
CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.
BY WILLIAM WHITING.
Tenth Edition. 8vo. Price $2 50.
This volume treats of the most important Legal questions now agitated by the great Political Parties in the Free States; and of the principles of International, Belligerent, and Constitutional Law, which determine the Rights, Liabilities and Obligations of Citizens or Subjects of the United States in time of Civil War. It is addressed to the Loyal Statesmen, Judges, and Jurists of the Union, to aid them in exploring the deep and permanent foundations wherein the right of our Republican Government rests to defend itself from Treason and Rebellion and to restore and secure, by a lawful exercise of the War Powers of the President and of Congress under the Constitution, the permanent Peace of the Country.

Separate proposals, in duplicate, must be made for each article enumerated, and bidders may propose for such quantity as they wish to contract to deliver.
A printed copy of this advertisement must be attached to each proposal, and the proposals must be specific in complying precisely with all the terms. Each bid, to have consideration, must contain the written guaranty of two responsible names, as follows:
"We the undersigned hereby guaranty that should all or any part of the above bid be accepted it shall be duly fulfilled according to its true purport and conditions; also that a written contract, with bonds to the amount of one-fourth the value of the states proposed to be furnished, shall be executed, if required."
The seller's name, place of business, and the date of purchase, as well as the name of contents, with weight and shipping marks, to be hereafter designated, must be plainly marked on every package. All other old marks must be obliterated.
Certificates of inspection by professional packers or inspectors, other than the party furnishing the provisions, will be required for the meats, certifying on the part of the seller its present quality and condition, and the immediately preceding inspection. The meats will also be examined and passed upon by Robert P. Getty, inspector on the part of the United States.
Payment will be made in currency, or its equivalent.
Blanks for Proposals will be furnished at this office, which must be inclosed in an envelope addressed to the undersigned, and indorsed "Proposals for Subsistence Stores."
