Mount Pleasant Homeopathic Hospital.

Influenced by the urgent solicitations of many friends of Homeopathy, residing in different States of the Union, I have obtained an order from Brig. Gen. James S. Wadsworth, Military Governor of the District of Columbia, for the occupation of the spacious and airy house and out-houses on the Mount Pleasant Farm, for the purposes of a Homeopathic Hospital. These buildings are one mile and a-half north from Pennsylvania avenue, on Seventh and Boundary streets. The location is delightful—presenting a grand and picturesque view of the cities of Washington and Georgetown. The Capitol and other public buildings, the Smithsonian Institution, the Washington Monument, and the church spires of these cities, fill the eye with delight, and stand as monuments of "freedom of thought, freedom of speech, freedom of the press, and freedom of worship." Arlington Heights and the Arlington House, Hall's Hill, Upton's Hill, Munson's Hill, Mason's Hill, and the Theological Seminary, in Virginia, with their romantic environs, are in full view from this farm, and the eye stretches far down the Potomac, overlooking the city of Alexandria, and giving a splendid view of the shipping, moving on the waters of that renowned and magnificent river. On the left, or Maryland bank of the river is seen an extensive and beautiful country, variegated with hill and dale—woodland and the ploughman's fields—taking in the Hospital for the insane, and many ancient and splendid country residences—the abodes of the descendants of revolutionary patriots. The elevated position of this charming spot makes it both beautiful and healthful.

The medical department of the hospital will be under the direction of the most eminent homeopathic physicians of this city—gentlemen whose medical and surgical skill have secured to them the honor of being family physicians of Cabinet officers, United States Senators, Members of Congress, Foreign Ministers, and other eminent citizens. In this department, I feel assured that every attention will be given to the patients that high character, experience and scientific attainments can secure.

The matronal department will be under the personal superintendence of the writer, who has long been connected with hospital service, in this city, and, from experience, has become familiar with the wants of the sick soldier.

The financial department of the hospital will be in charge of R. Garter, Esq., of New York, who will be its business director.

The establishment of this hospital is a private enterprise, and has been urged upon the founder by feelings of humanity and patriotism, and she appeals to the friends of the soldier everywhere for sympathy, influence, and substantial aid. By the action of Congress, homeopathy is denied a place in the army. The unfortunate soldier whose powers of endurance give way under the hardships of camp life, is compelled to take his gun and go to duty or go to hospital, and take allopathic doses, willing or unwilling.

I submit this enterprise to the consideration of a generous, humane, and patriotic public—feeling assured that the friends of homeopathy, if no others, will avail themselves of this opportunity to aid in the establishment and maintenance of a hospital, in which their sick and wounded friends in the army can place themselves under that system of medical treatment approved by their judgments. The mind has much to do with the prevention and cure of disease.

Donations, furnishing materials, and hospital stores of every kind, will be thankfully received and faithfully applied to the uses of this enterprise.

The hospital will be in full readiness for the reception of the sick and wounded on the 1st of May next. A few patients could be accommodated as soon as the 25th inst.

This is a private or boarding hospital, and for terms of admission application will be made at the hospital, one mile and a half north of Pennsylvania avenue, on Seventh and Boundary streets. All letters and boxes will be addressed,

Mrs. L. M. PAYNE, Matron,
Mt. Pleasant Homeopathic Hospital,
Washington, D. C.

I take great pleasure in acknowledging my thanks to the Government for the very kind and liberal manner in which this enterprise has been treated by the Departments, and I feel under special obligations to Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War; James L. Wadsworth, brigadier general and military governor of the District of Columbia, and R. A. Wood, acting surgeon general, for aid rendered through their several departments; and to Caleb B. Smith, Secretary of the Interior; D. P. Holloway, Commissioner of Patents; D. Kilgore, M. C., and Dr. L. Gaburri and other friends, for sympathy and influence given in the establishment of the hospital. And I must not forget to remember, with feelings of gratitude, the liberality of the Sanitary Commission, in loaning to this humane and arduous enterprise partial supplies from their well filled warehouses.

Editors of city and country papers, favorable to this enterprise, will please copy, and oblige

Mrs. L. M. PAYNE.

WASHINGTON, April 22, 1862.

Amusements.

GROVER'S THEATRE.—The performance last evening was one of those attractive ones which always draws full houses, and remunerates the manager for his taste. "Irish Assurance and Yankee Modesty" was never performed in better style than it was last evening. Miss Lotty Hough's comic song was loudly applauded, and we believe that it will ever remain popular. The great "hit," however, is the ludicrous extravaganza, "Wanted, 1,000 Milliners!" In the character of Madame Vanderpants, Setchell is, to use an ordinary expression, immense. The piece kept the audience in a roar of laughter during its entire performance. To night, the most attractive bill yet provided will be submitted. "Toodles," "Irish Assurance and Yankee Modesty," and the piece so laughable, "Wanted, 1,000 Milliners," will be repeated. Those who desire a hearty laugh, will be accommodated at Grover's theatre to-night. We are informed that Mr. Grover, with his usual tact and energy, is preparing a number of attractive novelties, one of which is the "Babes in the Wood." We believe the public desire to see Mr. Tilton in some of his great characters. Can we not?

FORD'S ATHENÆUM.—This highly popular place of resort was filled to overflowing last night to witness one of Shakspeare's best tragedies—"Hamlet." The great genius of the greatest of bards, the immortal Shakspeare, are fully revealed in this highly interesting and thrilling play. How true to nature! is the exclamation of every cultivated mind as he reads "Hamlet," and the same expression involuntarily fell from the lips, last night, as the admiring audience watched the career of the hero Hamlet. Mr. Ford certainly deserves the thanks of this community for the rare intellectual entertainments he is furnishing our citizens, and we hope he will reap a substantial reward.

CANTERBURY HALL.—This place of amusement has become an institution in our midst. The energetic proprietors have, without regard to expense, secured the services of artistes of the very highest order of talent, and the company now performing there are far superior to any other that ever appeared in this city. In evidence of this, the immense and beautiful hall is crowded nightly with our citizens of every position in life, and of the highest standing in society. Not a single person visits the Canterbury without being surprised at the excellent entertainment there given; and he who goes once, leaves determined to go a second time. The best of order is preserved there, and those who wish to be astonished and delighted, will take our advice and go to-night. Another of the great matinees will take place this afternoon.

CONTINENTAL OPERA HOUSE.—This new place of amusement is indeed a success, as it deserves to be. The managers have fitted up the old Philharmonic Hall in superb style, and have brought the finest talent of the Northern cities, and combined them in a most chaste and delightful combination of attractions. We are glad to see such a place opened where the most fastidious ladies can go without fear of shocking their sensibilities. Don't fail to go to-night. A rare entertainment in store.

The Eyesight.

Persons with impaired eyesight should bear in mind that the use of a common glass is of injurious consequence to the visual organs. The Brazilian Pebble Eyeglasses have been generally acknowledged as the best artificial aid for weak eyes. They are correctly suited and sold here only by Messrs. Franklin & Co., Opticians, 344 Pennsylvania avenue, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets. 1t.

Gold Robbery.

Yesterday forenoon, Captain Crounse, of the Fifth New York battery, missed a valuable gold watch, and $240 in money, from his tent in the encampment west of the city; and suspecting a black man whom he had employed as a servant, he sent word to Justice Ferguson, who, after learning all the particulars, set the police at work to ferret out the author of the robbery. After a long search, Officer Middleton found the darkey in one of the vilest dens of infamy on the island. The watch and $235 of the money was, very fortunately, recovered; the negro, whose name was Wm. Paxton, having spent the other $5.

The case was one of great enormity, from the fact that Paxton had been most kindly treated by the officers of the battery, and they thought so much of him as to put great confidence in him.

Justice Ferguson sent him to jail for court. The case will probably go hard with him.

[Communicated.]

There are large numbers of children—slaves, until the glorious 14th of April, 1862—now confined in chambers, attics, and cellars in this city—kept by their former owners, in the vain hope that the guardians of the poor or Orphans' Court will bind these children to them till they are twenty-one years of age. These masters and mistresses are very willing to get their full pay for these slave children, but cannot brook the idea of giving them up.

DIED,

On the 23d instant, at 12 o'clock, p. m., of pneumonia, JOHN F. RANKIN, in the 49th year of his age. He was a loving husband and kind father. A large circle of friends, by whom he was beloved, mourn his loss.

His funeral will take place from his late residence, Ninth street, corner of N, at 2 o'clock, on Sunday afternoon, the 27th instant, to which the friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited. "May he rest in peace!"

Ten Dollars Reward!

And all reasonable charges, will be paid for the arrest of the THIEF and return of my Black or Brown MARE, that was stolen from Capitol Hill, on Wednesday night, April 16th; or $5 for the Mare. She is about 11 years old, small, low-headed, in tolerable good order, small notch in top of one ear, with a scar on the inside of her left fore foot, and deep dent in the left side of her neck.

☞ We have at present to call the attention of our citizens and soldiers to the McClellan Art Gallery, 520 Seventh street, four doors above D. There is no other place in this city where so beautiful Photographs and Ambrotypes are taken, and where so much politeness is shown to customers.

☞ Photographs and Ambrotypes of all sizes are taken on a new plan only known to the proprietor of the McClellan Art Gallery, 520 Seventh street, four doors above D.

Corns, Etc.

Those afflicted with these troublesome things, whether hard or soft; also those troubled with Bunions, Callosities, club and ingrowing toe nails, can find great relief and satisfactory benefit by applying to Dr. G. White, 438 Pennsylvania avenue, between Four-and-a-half and Sixth streets, Room 7, second floor. apr 25

☞ From the high and responsible position of the giver, Dr Von Moschzisker is induced to publish the following testimonial, selected from numerous others given him since his practice in this city:

TESTIMONIAL.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, GEORGETOWN,
April 19, 1862.

This is to state that my hearing having been much impaired for some years past, I placed myself under the professional treatment of Dr. Von Moschzisker. After a few weeks of his care, I experienced a very perceptible improvement, and at this time my hearing is as good as it has been at any time within my recollection.

H. ADDISON,
Mayor.

Dr. VON MOSCHZISKER, Oculist and Aurist, 237 Pa. avenue. ap 24—3t

☞ In another column may be seen a few of the many testimonials from well known citizens of Washington, and they speak louder than anything we could say. It is with pleasure we lay them before a candid and appreciative public. Our people are tired of theories. When a man is sick he wants the physician who prescribes remedies that are sure to cure him, and such a person is found in Dr. Tumblety, Indian Herb Doctor.

Come and see for yourselves ye lame and suffering,
Oh, ye rheumatic and dying, come and see.
Light shall again the faded eye illume,
And rosy health the pallid cheek resume.
Thousands rescued from disease and death,
Invoke God's blessings on Tumblety.

I desire your prostrate hearts to lift,
Your bleeding wounds to cure,
And with the treasures of nature's gift
Relieve the rich and poor.

The Indian Herb Doctor will describe diseases and tell his patients the nature of their complaints or illness, without receiving any information from them. No charge for consultation.
