FIGURES OF TRADE

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—The market closed flat, with a decline of ½ to ⅝c. Corn was quiet, weak and lower; selling holders show a good deal of discouragement, and there was free liquidation, under which the market was weak. The selling of December was not so urgent as yesterday. The shorts feared the concentration of the cash into a few hands, but May was sold on the brightest weather and the most liberal movement.

Closing prices showed no change in January lard or ribs, but pork for the same month is 10c lower.

Closing prices:

Waste and Want.

A waste of flesh and a want of digestion. These go together. People who cannot assimilate the food they swallow must of necessity lose bodily substance. To remedy this, render digestion easy and thorough with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a tonic famed the world over for its strength and flesh yielding qualities. Appetite and sleep are both impaired by indigestion, which begets nervous symptoms, heartburn, flatulence, irregularity of the bowels and palpitation of the heart—the latter often being erroneously attributed to disease of that organ. All these manifestations disappear when the Bitters is resorted to. Malaria, rheumatism, liver and kidney trouble are effectually counteracted by this superb corrective, which is not only effectual, but permanent.

Or the Liquor Habit Positively Cured by administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea, or in food, without the knowledge of the patient. It is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. It has been given in thousands of cases, and in every instance a perfect cure has followed. It never Fails. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist.
