Amusements.

FORD'S ATHENÆUM. Last Week of February Engagement.—Mr. Forrest's gratifying announcement of several weeks will be heard with a shout on Friday evening next, when this unequaled artist will leave us to renew elsewhere those popular triumphs which his undimmed genius has here achieved. His brilliant success here through a season notoriously unfavorable to theatrical amusements, and in despite of all the drawbacks and disadvantages incidental to the times, demonstrates, with equal force, and with conclusive effect, the undiminished force and elasticity of his genius, and the fondness with which he is cashed in the popular affections and regard. The three nights yet remaining of his engagement, will unless we have much mistaken the general delight in Mr. Forrest's masterly efforts, be really brilliant in the popular significance of their success.

To-night he appears as "Brutus," in the touching historical tragedy of "Brutus, or the Fall of Tarquin," by John Howard Payne, the lamented author of "Home, Sweet Home."

OPERA AND GOTTSCHALK TO-MORROW.—The first performance of L. M. Gottschalk and Grau's opera company, will take place this evening, at Grover's theatre; and if we are to judge by the merits of the company and the brilliancy of the programme, it will be a success. Mr. Gottschalk will play Transcriptions from the Miserere of Trovatore, Fantasie of Norma, and his new piece, Repondo Moi, composed by himself for four hands. He will be assisted in it by Signor Muzio.

The second part of the programme includes the last act of Donizetti's opera, La Favorita: Mme. D'Angri as Leonora; Brignoli as Fernando; Susini as Balthazar.

To-morrow evening will be performed Rossini's celebrated comic opera, with Mme. D'Angri, Brignoli, Manousi, Susini, Amodio, and Mme. Morra in the principal roles; and Mr. Gottschalk will play, between the acts. Friday, Donizetti's celebrated opera, Betly, will be given. Seats for either of the three opera nights can be secured at Metzerott's music store.

CANTERBURY.—This splendid hall and popular place of amusement now ranks among the first in the country. At an enormous outlay, the energetic proprietors have engaged a combination of talented artistes, such as was never before seen upon the stage; for instance, the two celebrated vocalists, Ida Duval and Julia Mortimer, either of whom are sufficient to attract crowds for weeks in succession. In addition, they have the fascinating and graceful dancseuse, Millie Fowler, who has no superior upon the American stage. These talented artistes, with a host of others, comprising the entire company, appear to-night in a well-selected performance, embracing the great and beautiful "Gipsey's Lay." This afternoon, the proprietors offer great inducements to the ladies to attend the matinee, which will be one of the most entertaining ever given in this city.

Board of Trustees of Public Schools.

Board met in its regular monthly meeting, yesterday, at 5 o'clock.

Reports were received from the various schools.

The application of Mr. Edw. D. Tibbet, for appointment as teacher, was presented and referred.

The Chair stated that he had conferred with Mr. W. W. Corcoran, and he had agreed to allow the school now occupying the room on E street, the use of it for three months longer.

Mr. Stewart, from the committee on the subject, reported a plan for the enlargement of the school-house on the corner of Seventh and G streets south, adding an area of 200 square feet, which alteration would cost about $800; an additional sum of $150 would also be required to repair the roof of the building.

A resolution was adopted asking the Mayor to lay the subject before the Councils, and ask for an appropriation for the purpose.

Mr. Stewart also reported a plan for a new school house on the corner of D and Third street east, costing $4,000.

A resolution was adopted asking the Councils to merge the appropriations for the building of two school houses into this one.

The following teachers were elected for the newly established primary schools, Nos. 6 and 7, in the fourth district: Miss Sarah E. Eckloff and Miss Genevra Reed.

On motion of Mr. Wilson, a new standing committee was chosen—on "School Buildings and Schools"—whose duty it shall be to investigate all propositions relative to school buildings and school rooms referred to them, and also to make such reports and suggestions to the Board, from time to time, as they may consider calculated to improve the condition of the same. Messrs. Wilson, Utermehle, Wight and Holmead were appointed such committee.

The Chair presented a communication from the school trustees of Louisville, Kentucky, asking the mode of conducting schools, &c., in this city, and stating their plan. The Chair was directed to reply.

Mr. Walsh moved the appointment of a committee of four to prepare a programme for the annual examination, to inquire into the propriety of presenting premiums, the quality and number of such premiums, and for what merits they should be awarded. Adopted, and Messrs. Walsh, Ellis, Wilson and Miller were appointed.

A resolution was adopted forbidding the female pupils of the schools going about in public places selling tickets for the concerts held by the schools.

A motion to purchase sixteen copies of the "Washington map" was laid over to the next meeting, as also the subject of the purchase of "Philbrick's Tablets." Adjourned.

Dust.

Yesterday, the winds being high and dry, the dust was again rampant to such a degree as to almost blind the unfortunate wight whose duty called him on the street. Not only the dust, but balmorals and crinoline seemed to have a buoyant tendency in the market quotations of yesterday.

Offensive enough.

Some days since, a man by the name of Barnes Symington was detected in the act of robbing a trunk in the Central Hotel, who on trying to put him out of doors. On taking him to the station, the witness found on him in his pocket that he was a thief and burglar. He had a splendid gold watch, a certificate of the genuineness thereof in a gold and copper mine in North Carolina, a bunch of skeleton keys of all sizes, some of them of great length, so as to reach through thick doors, a pistol, fifty dollars in Treasury notes, &c.

On searching his quarters at the hotel, a new suit of clothes belonging to a man in the Washington Building, who was recently robbed, was found and identified, and yesterday a gambler lost in Baltimore named Charles F. Smith, of the firm of Smith & Co., 23 South street, came on here and identified the watch, certificate, pistol, and some other articles as his, and stated that they had been stolen some time since. The robber is doubtless an old adept at the business, and an exceeding dangerous fellow in a community, as he goes well dressed, is of a smooth and pleasing address. He attempted to swallow the certificate while the officers were searching him. The authorities of Maryland will doubtless make a requisition for the prisoner, and he will have his trial in Baltimore. It reflects credit on our officers that such a desperate villian is caught.

Goodwin's Fluted Battery.

Many of our readers may have witnessed experiments in this city with a French leading cannon, very simple and novel in construction, capable of being fired twenty-five times in a minute, with a shield so constructed as to rebound a ball three hundred yards, if fired from a point one hundred yards distant. It has been heated so hot as to ignite powder, by inserting bars of red hot iron, and yet loaded and discharged without danger. It is the invention of Wm. F. Goodwin, of Belmont county, Ohio. It has been loaded and fired by President Lincoln, examined by ordnance officers, machinists and others, and pronounced, with remarkable unanimity, a successful surmounting of all the difficulties attending the use of breech loading guns. Guns of all sizes, including rifles and small arms, are being constructed upon the same principles. We have examined it, and can attest its successful operation. Col. Stewart, of this city, convinced of its great value, has purchased an interest in the patent. Measures have been taken to secure European patents upon this remarkable invention, which bids fair to become another of the agencies which seem destined to revolutionize the present system of national warfare.

A trial was yesterday made, to the perfect satisfaction of all eye witnesses, of loading and discharging the gun while heated so as to ignite powder. It was done with perfect safety.

The Great American Traveler.

We have heard of an amusing incident in the life of the immortal Daniel, of recent occurence, which is worth relating.

For a week or more, Daniel was the honored guest of the Fourteenth Massachusetts regiment; but some of the boys began to think they should be "twice glad" if the great traveler would begin to travel. A plan was hit upon, as follows: Bogus correspondence with Jeff Davis was inserted in his pockets; he was arrested on the charge of being a spy; a mock trial was held, and Daniel was sentenced to be shot. He was blindfolded, taken out of camp, and a dozen blank cartridges fired at him, when the valiant Daniel tore off the bandages, and made a most masterly advance on Washington.

The Great American Traveler has not been seen in those parts since.

Look out for Pickpockets!

Yesterday morning, a gentleman coming to this city in the 6 o'clock train, had his pocket picked of a pocket book containing twenty dollars in money and $598.28 in Treasury draft. The act was perpetrated as the gentleman was going into the smoking car, and the skill of the operator may be imagined from the fact that the property was taken from an inside breast pocket.

ANOTHER.—A gentleman by the name of Gaty, evidently from the rural districts, had his pocket picked at the depot last Thursday evening, just as the cars were leaving for Baltimore.

The light fingered gentry are very skillful in their operations, and we advise all to keep a bright lookout for them.

Fourth Ward Union Meeting.

An adjourned meeting of the Union voters of the fourth ward was held on Monday evening, at the Metropolitan Truck House, Mr. C. H. Utermehle presiding, and Edward Eckloff acting as secretary.

Dr. Clayton, from the committee appointed at the last meeting, made a report, recommending the following ticket:

For Alderman—John P. Pepper.

Common Council—Wm. Bates, C. H. Utermehle and Ashbury Lloyd.

After some discussion as to the political standing of the nominees, the above ticket was adopted.

The Smithsonian Grounds,

At this season of the year, afford a most lovely place of resort. The trees and shrubbery being comparatively young, are very thrifty and unusually bright, green, and lovely. There are but few scenes of beauty that can safely rival these grounds at this time. Just enough retired to be away from noise, the walks easy, the grass soft and lovely, the trees beautiful and bright, and the magnificent structure, with its rare attractions, which occupy the site, all combine to give unusual beauty and interest to this much-neglected portion of the city.

Pool of Filth.

We have been requested to direct the attention of the city authorities to the filthy pool of stagnate water near the Baltimore Railroad depot, between D and E, and First and Second streets. Daily additions of horribly offensive matter is made to it, and the recent warm days have caused the exhalation of what Shakspeare calls "a villainous compound of stinks."

Outrageous.

We are informed, by one of the parties injured by the explosion in the Washington arsenal some days since, where three persons were severely wounded, that those unfortunate men had half of the pay for the day on which they were injured deducted from their monthly salaries. We know not by what authority this act was done, but it is an outrage that we hope, for the sake of humanity, will be redressed.

Judiciary Square.

An improvement is about to be made in the public grounds on which the City Hall is built, which we chronicle with pleasure. The ground has been plowed up and workmen are now engaged in planting trees, shrubbery, &c., and in laying out and otherwise beautifying the grounds.

Seventh Ward Republican Meeting.

The Republicans of the Seventh ward met last night, pursuant to adjournment, and after a few remarks by the chairman, adjourned for two weeks.

The friends and acquaintances of the family are requested to attend his funeral, from his father's residence, No. 345 Fifth street, west, between H and I, at 4½ p. m., this (Wednesday) afternoon.

Oath to Before Mis Worship, George Hall, Esq., Mayor of Quebec.

QUEBEC, June 18, 1861.

This is to certify, that I have been troubled for the pains of my stomach, and for the last two months my left eye is almost blind. Have taken all kinds of medicine, but have received no benefit. Two weeks ago I was induced to try the celebrated Dr. Tumbley's Multiflora Bitters, and before I had taken one bottle my pains left me, and I have not felt any since. The Doctor, after examining my eye, said it was cured in a short time, notwithstanding most of the Doctors in town gave it up as incurable. Many of the Doctors and Dr. Wolfe, of the Marine Hospital, say they give up the cases they cannot cure, and say nothing but the Multiflora will cure the blindness. There I testify, of my own free will, that the Doctors of Quebec without the slightest payment or fee. I have been to work the first time for three days, at my usual occupation, that of a blacksmith, the St. Lawrence, and thanks to the Almighty God that he has sent the illustrious Dr. Tumbley to cure me. May God bless him.
