THE TIGER HUNTER;
OR,
A HERO IN SPITE OF HIMSELF.

By Captain MAYNE REID, author of the "Scalp Hunters," "Rifle Rangers," etc.

PRICE $1 50.

The above book contains nearly 400 pages, handsomely embellished with original designs, engraved in the highest style of the art, by N. Orr, esq.

Mayne Reid has surpassed himself in the dashing pages of this fascinating romance. The indomitable valor of the Castilian and the Mexican, when they crossed steel, is done ample justice to. But oh! how matchless is the huming when his pen describes the beauties of the dark-eyed maid, Gertrudis, and details her eventful life.

The attention of the public is called to the new and handsome editions just issued of Captain Mayne Reid's former works.

This Uniform Series is complete in Thirteen handsome Volumes, beautifully illustrated, and bound in beveled boards.

PRICE, $1 50 PER VOL.

THE TIGER HUNTER;
OR,
A HERO IN SPITE OF HIMSELF.

Mayne Reid has surpassed himself in the dashing pages of this fascinating romance. The indomitable valor of the Castilian and the Mexican, when they crossed steel, is done ample justice to.

THE MAROON;
OR,
PLANTER LIFE IN JAMAICA.

This new and timely book, by Mayne Reid, will strike a chord of the popular heart already thrilling. It portrays the strange and romantic life of those escaped victims of tyranny, the Maroons of Jamaica—wild fugitives who organized in bands and defied for years the whole power of England in the West Indies.

THE WILD HUNTRESS;
OR,
LOVE IN THE WILDERNESS.

In no other leaves can be found personages to approach these here. The flower of her sex, growing up in purity, tenderness and loveliness, flourishes in the rough backwoods. It is shown that the noblest heart may best far from the city, and that a hero's breast may as well be covered by a deer-skin hunting-frock as by a kingly robe.

THE WOODRANGERS;
OR,
THE TRAPPERS OF SONORA.

The knowledge of the world of savage life which Mayne Reid possesses in so remarkable a degree, is strongly exhibited in this forest romance. It is penned in his usual fluent and forcible style.

WILD LIFE;
OR,
ADVENTURES ON THE FRONTIER.

This Tale of the Early Days of the Texan Republic may truthfully be styled unsurpassable. Without reading it and all should—no idea can be formed of the immense enjoyment that can be derived from it.

OSCEOLA, THE SEMINOLE;
OR,
THE RED FAWN OF THE FLOWER LAND.

Florida, with its luxuriant vegetation, its everglades, with their red-skin rovers, venomous and ferocious denizens, finds in Captain Mayne Reid the romancist it deserves. The famous Warrior of the Seminoles lives his savage yet noble life over again in his book.

THE RANGERS
AND
REGULATORS OF THE TAHANA;
OR,
LIFE AMONG THE LAWLESS.

Only a person like Mayne Reid, who had lived in the midst of the wild scenes herein depicted, and only a writer of talent, could have penned so thrilling, so earnest, and so fascinating an interweaving of real occurrences far beyond the highest flights of fiction.

THE RIFLE RANGERS;
OR,
ADVENTURES IN SOUTHERN MEXICO.

Through virgin forest and over boulders in the desert, goes the variegated thread of the story; into the muddy, reedy bed of the cougan, the aerial resort of the vulture; into the hall where is danced the fandango, into the desert where the lazy lizard starts at the Indian's war-whoop, upon the plaza of the city of Mexico itself.

THE SCALP HUNTERS;
OR,
ADVENTURES AMONG THE TRAPPERS.

The hardy hunter and the intrepid explorer, the terrible hero who becomes a white scalper, and the trapper, the trader, and the horse-stealer, the Arapahoe warriors, the dark-eyed and fine-limbed savage girl, the Mexican, the half-breed, and all such actors throng this well-molded story of the most thrilling cast.

THE HUNTER'S FEAST;
OR,
CONVERSATIONS AROUND THE CAMP FIRE.

Tales told around the "wolf-scaring fagot," (with the barks of coyotes and the miaows of the cougars prowling near the picketed horses, the soughing of the night wind in the lofty tree-tops,) by hardy hunters and fearless frontiersmen, who themselves have passed through the heart-stirring actions they relate in the speech they use in life.

THE WHITE CHIEF:
A LEGEND OF NORTHERN MEXICO.

The reader of this happily conceived working up of a well-known legend of the Texan borders, will find it difficult to overstate the deep interest it will have given him. The plot of this volume is more than good, and the execution of it is fully equal to it.

THE QUADROON;
OR,
A LOVER'S ADVENTURES IN LOUISIANA.

The sunny landscape, the stilly savannahs, the sickly swamps, the deadly serpent, the unwieldy alligator, are all portrayed in his usual varied hues by this chronicler of the "Pelican State." The love scenes have all the warmth of the Creole blood, unknown to more northern climes.

THE WAR TRAIL;
OR,
THE HUNT OF THE WILD HORSE.

Wild Indians, with dismal swamps and fathomless caverns, having been in other works splendidly painted by this forest rambler, he has given them a secondary place in the "War Trail," and taken up the pursuit of that peerless Phantom Steed which fills the legends of Western Trappers.

The attention of the trade is also called to the new editions of the following popular Standard Novels:

GRANDMOTHER'S MONEY, 200 octavo pages. Price 50 cents.

WILDFLOWER, 200 octavo pages. Price 50 cents.

ONE-AND-TWENTY, 200 octavo pages. Price 50 cents.

TO PRIVATE FAMILIES DESIRING A PLEASANT COUNTRY RESIDENCE DURING THE PRESENT YEAR.—A gentleman has just erected a large and commodious building in the upper part of Westchester County, containing some 30 rooms, with large parlors, dining and billiard rooms; delicious water at the door, ice-house, barn, stables, good garden spot, fine play-ground for children, and large pond of water for fishing or boating; the whole thing admirably arranged for the accommodation of about 50 persons, including servants. This is a fine opportunity for about four or six private families to club together, and, where the families are known to each other, would make it pleasant and comfortable as a residence during the whole year, as it is of easy access by railroad, just twenty minutes' walk from the station, and only five miles south of Lake Mahopac. Persons can be here at 9 a. m. and leave at 5 p. m.; full advantage of express trains. Rent per year, $2,000. Brokers furnishing tenants will be allowed the usual commission up to the 1st of February. References will be required as to character and responsibility. For further particulars, apply to JOSEPH PICKARD Rotunda Building, under Croton Aqueduct Board, City Hall, or to GEO. S. HICKOK, Park Bank.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.—We take this means of announcing to our customers and the public generally, that not having advanced our MUSLINS during the recent great rise, we have disposed of all bought at former prices and are now ready to enter the market and buy and sell MUSLINS at an IMMENSE REDUCTION FROM RECENT PRICES.
IMMENSE REDUCTION FROM RECENT PRICES.
The protracted stagnation in business among the Jobbing Houses during the last six weeks has brought about
A GREAT PANIC IN COTTON GOODS,
A GREAT PANIC IN COTTON GOODS,
and, as was the case last Spring, so it will be now.
DULL TRADE HAS PUT MUSLINS DOWN.
BRISK TRADE WILL PUT THEM UP.
Take our advice, then, and buy them before they advance again, and if you would buy them from five to ten cents a yard less than at any other store in the city, you must go to
