

CORRESPONDENCE

SCAPPOOSE

Mrs. Bessemer's mother, from Kent, Washington, is visiting here. Roy Bishop and family of St. Helens spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Miller. Mr. Grewell has been in Portland the past week, painting property for Mr. Gillmore and other work. J. E. Miller has been busy this week, erecting a building for the extraction of honey. Ollie Stoltenberg and Helen Watts are home from Eugene for the summer. Ollie has accepted a position in Milloy's Confectionery store. Mrs. W. G. C. Woods and son, Clyde, visited Dr and Mrs. Hatfield, the early part of the week. Gilbert McKay is home from Clatskanie. He was struck in the face with the crank of a machine and badly bruised. Margaret Couch, who underwent an operation on her leg some time ago is at home and improving nicely. She has been staying with her sister Ella, in Portland. Mrs. Getchell spent the week end at Mommouth. A Jersey bull calf, 11 months old, donated to the Red Cross by Harry West, is to be raffled off. The calf is a son of the noted bull, Fussy Fern's Noble and a full brother to the calf purchased by S. Barr and shipped to Japan. Burl Smith was operated on Tuesday for tonsils and adenoids. Roy Freeman is home. E. D. McKay is spending a few days at Camp Lewis with his son. Armond Duncan is in Tacoma, he has accepted a position there. An important note of interest to every man, woman and child is the W. S. S. campaign meeting at the school building on next Friday, June 28th at 8 p. m.

Frances Ometette Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Smith, is one of the graduates at the Mt. Angel academy and normal, Mt. Angel, Oregon. The commencement was held on Wednesday. Mr. L. G. Smith has accepted a position as head of the dairy at O. A. C., and is moving his family to Corvallis. We are sorry to lose them. The annual school meeting was held Monday afternoon in the high school. Asa Holoday was elected the new director and Andrew Cholic, the new clerk. A church meeting was held Monday evening which resulted in extending to Rev. C. H. Johnson a unanimous call. Mrs. Roscoe, Mrs. Gerlach, Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. Crowley and Miss Crowe were guests of Mrs. Niblock on Wednesday. A young peoples choir is being organized, ages 8 to 16 inclusive. They will meet Wednesday evening, 8 o'clock at the church. The choir is in charge of Misses Helen Watts and Lorlei Blatchford. Miss Blatchford sang in the Glee Club and a quartette at the Vancouver high school. Miss Watts has been studying music at Eugene, sang in the Methodist choir and had charge of the Boys Glee Club in the high school there. The parents are urged to send their children, the instruction will be beneficial.

WARREN

Miss Anna Sandstrom of Warren died in Portland on Friday. She was 19 years of age and was a sister of Mrs. S. W. Dahlgren. The funeral was held from the Swedish Lutheran church. The services were conducted by Rev. Nystrom of Portland. John and son, Leo Farr, Lewis Snider and County Agent Howard, were attendants at the Holstein breeders picnic in Portland on Saturday. "Liberty" measles are very prevalent in the neighborhood and a number are now suffering from this mild form of "kaiserism" pest. Miss Francis Older, who has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hyskell for the last month returned to Portland last Sunday. The non-commissioned officers of the Home Guard held an officers drill Monday evening with a full attendance. The patriotic celebration on July 4th is forming tangible shape. The Home Guards will have a detachment of 16 men under Corporal Gust Isaacson to prepare the grounds for all stands, seats and tables. The Guards in uniform will patrol the grounds in military order. A prominent speaker will give a patriotic address and some talks will be given by local men. Music, reading and song, with games and innocent sports will occupy the afternoon. The Yankton people have been invited as well as the surrounding towns, including St. Helens, as Warren proposes to show what it can do in patriotism. The floats of the nations will be a feature of the parade, which will form at the Methodist church. A flag of all the Allied nations will float from their respective floats. Mrs. Garriott has arrangements completed for this section of the parade. The Guards have received part of their uniforms. The balance is expected this week. Miss Martha Ryser, a music pupil of Dr. Enna, who appeared in a public piano recital in Portland last week, paid a visit to her mother, Mrs. F. W. Boesel. Martha will continue her musical studies in Portland during the summer. T. Brandell of Linn County, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boesel. Mr. Brandell is an old time neighbor of Mr. Boesel. A very important meeting of the Oregon Dairyman's League will be held in Portland on June 22, at which a large delegation from Warren will attend. The price of milk F. O. B. Portland has been raised from $3.00 to $3.50 and of butterfat to 75 cents to take effect on June 20. This is the highest price ever obtained by the farmer. The meeting will be held in the Public Library and a general invitation is extended to all milk and cream producers to be present as matters of great moment to them will be discussed. A meeting of the warehouse committee will be held on Wednesday and Thursday to meet with a representative of the S. P. & S. Ry. Co. regarding a site for the warehouse on the right-of-way. Saturday evening's meeting of the Grange promises to be lively. Besides being social night, matters of interest to the members and farming in general will be taken up. It is the earnest request of the officers that a full attendance be present.

Mrs. Pomeroy was called to Falls City on account of the illness of her little grandson, Robert Clement. Will Lee was over from Bremerton this week visiting his mother. He returned to his work Tuesday evening. A. L. Fuller has returned from California and accepted a position with the State Bank of Rainier. Mrs. Fuller and son are expected in the near future. Harry Van Horn is a busy man these days. In addition to looking after the affairs of the telephone company at both St. Helens and Rainier, he is appointed chairman of the W. S. S. drive that will start here next Saturday. The marriage of Lue Macon of this city to Miss Mae Bows of Hood River took place at St. Helens last Saturday. The marriage was featured by being performed during the total eclipse of the sun. The young people will make Rainier their home for the time being. Mrs. C. Ray has resigned her position at the telephone office and in company with her husband has gone to Portland where they expect to make their future home. -Rainier Review.

H. B. Adams is aiding his son Paul in farming. Mr. Adams practices law in Portland as a side issue during these times of farm labor shortage. Messrs. Hargrove and Platt of Scappoose will begin work this week on repairing the residence of F. W. Boesel. Rev. and Mrs. Bowersox and Mrs. and Mrs. Wilkinson spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Tarbell and family. W. J. Fullerton, chairman of the County Fair board, is busy preparing matters for the annual show. Much interest is shown here and Warren will be well represented. Col. Fullerton is very anxious that every farmer should have something to exhibit, as he is intent on making this the banner year in production and exhibition. The Pig Club boys are making every effort to have a strong competition and some fine stock will be on exhibition. The committee on W. S. S. for Warren District No. 7 has been organized and is ready for their canvass. Warren's quota is $12,000, hence all will have to "dig." It is not only mandatory but compulsory that every resident shall aid or he will be reported to the secretary of the treasury on a yellow card. The percentage of the quota assigned to each resident is pro rata with their assessed valuation, hence those owning the largest properties will be called upon for heavy purchases. No one will be allowed to refuse under pain of a "yellow card" report. K. F. Larsen, Mrs. F. A. Hoyt and A. L. Morris have charge of the drive. K. F. Larsen is chairman and A. L. Morris is secretary. All reports must be in by June 25th, the date of the mass meeting in the school house.

Bathing Suits are going to be very scarce. You had better get yours, while you can—at Taber's.

RAINIER

Mrs. Elmer Connell has been appointed chairman of the War Savings Stamp drive of this place. Mr. J. Steiner of Jefferson, father of Mrs. Connell, has been visiting with "Bill" the past week. As a result of the school meeting Monday evening Albert Adams was elected director for a three-year term.

CLATSKANIE

L. Rosasco was down from St. Helens Thursday, looking after the fitting up of his canning plant here. Commissioners Harvey and Weed, accompanied by Roadmaster Abry, made an inspection trip over some of the roads in this vicinity the first of the week. J. L. Campbell Sr., and family are moving to Neverstilt for the summer, where Mr. Campbell will work for the Matt Campbell Shingle Co. The family will return to town in time for the opening of school. O. J. Malcom was taken to the Soldier's Home this week. Owing to the feebleness of age it was felt to be to his advantage to be placed where he would be given every care which he required and at the same time enjoy all the comforts of home. Most of the camp buildings at Christenson's camp in the Nehalem valley were destroyed by fire last Sunday. In all about ten buildings were consumed by the conflagration, which was prevented from spreading into the timber. -Clatskanie Chief.

BACHELOR FLAT

The Christian Endeavor party given at the schoolhouse was a very enjoyable affair and quite a few from other neighborhoods were present. A dainty luncheon was served by the young people. The annual school meeting was well attended by the taxpayers. Fred Larsen was re-elected as director and Max Burkhead re-elected clerk. Mrs. Ida Lillich and daughter, Minnie, spent Sunday in Rainier with Mrs. Lillich's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fowler. Mrs. Lillich's brother, Private Fred Fowler was home on a visit the same day. He enlisted in the marine corps in June and is now stationed at Fort Stevens.

DEER ISLAND

Robt. Clapperton of Portland is spending his vacation with his father. Miss Elsie Mynuts of Yacolt is visiting with Mrs. Frank McDonald. Mrs. Chas Miller and daughter of Warren are the guests of Mrs. Gus Raugston. Mrs. Winnie Cox and sons are spending a few days with their relatives. Randolph Anderson leaves for Camp Lewis on the 24th. Mrs. Anderson, nee Mildred Loyd, will remain with her parents. The Deer Island Logging Company has purchased a new locomotive of the most improved type. The river has come up rapidly in the last day or two, but appears at this writing to be about at a standstill. Haying has commenced in this locality. The intense heat has caused the grain to head out, lack of rain, is burning the crops on the upland and together with the ravages of the aphid there is a poor outlook for feed this winter. Next. Mr. Joles and wife of Tygle Valley are visiting at the Wm. Bush home. Mr. Joles is an uncle of Mr. Bush. Mr. Elmer Connell has been appointed chairman of the War Savings Stamp drive of this place. Mr. J. Steiner of Jefferson, father of Mrs. Connell, has been visiting with "Bill" the past week. As a result of the school meeting Monday evening Albert Adams was elected director for a three-year term.

Miss Helen Larson and Miss Ruth Anderson of Portland spent the week end with relatives in the Flat. Those who attended the W. S. S. convention in St. Helens Saturday from this place were, Mrs. William Soderberg, Mrs. Frank Bordaahl and Mrs. Guy Lillich. There will be preaching in the Batchelor Flat schoolhouse Sunday, June 23rd. There will also be a mass meeting in the schoolhouse June 28th, at 8 p. m., in the interest of the W. S. S. campaign. Private Herbert Coon and wife of California, are here visiting Mr. Coon's mother and brother.

CHOLERA MORBUS

This is a very painful and dangerous disease. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from it before medicine could be obtained or a physician summoned. The right way is to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house so as to be prepared for it. Mrs. Charles Enyeart, Huntington, Ind., writes: "During the summer of 1911 two of my children were taken sick with cholera morbus. I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave them immediate relief."

Mrs. Jack Appleton attended the luncheon at the Multnomah hotel on Saturday, given by the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. Discussion of the legislation at the recent biennial at Hot Springs, Arkansas, was the call. Mrs. Chas Castner, state president of the Oregon Federation, spoke at length on the different resolutions that were passed at the biennial. Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar and Mrs. Emma I. Holmes, delegates from Oregon were on the program. Mrs. Dunbar especially issued a word of caution to the women in the different phases of war work, not to allow the pendulum to swing back far enough to react against their health. Mrs. Louise Baker and Mrs. Sten of St. Helens were in attendance.
