HOW TO KEEP WELL

Valuable Suggestions to Girls and Mothers.

ON SUMMER RULES OF LIFE

Plenty of Time, Water, Frequent Baths and Other Means for Health and Comfort.

Do not make to many visits, and where you go be sure that your visit is a convenient one. Do not entertain too generously; summer should be a time of rest, and it is difficult to rest with a house full of guests.

Before going for a midday sail rub your face, neck and hands with simple cream, and powder gently with cornstarch. Wipe the powder off, and on returning wash the complexion well in warm water and with castile soap. Camphor-ice and buttermilk both give relief from sunburn.

Place a large dish of water in a room where the heat is very oppressive. Change once or twice and the temperature will be preceptibly lowered.

Sponge your babies with cold water at bedtime.

Give your children water to drink during the hot weather. They need this to make up for the loss from perspiration.

In washing summer frocks, if the colors run put half a cupful of salt in the last rinsing water.

For insomnia in summer time take a bath at bedtime.

Press towels, folded as usual, through your clothes wringer and save your laundress.

Have mercy on your cook in your arrangement of meals for hot days.

Bathe daily.

Have your house gowns made with open necks and elbow sleeves.

Save your steps.

Allow double the amount of time in catching boats and trains that you do in winter.

Eat your meals slowly.

Drink milk slowly.

To wash summer silks remove all grease or other spots with soap and water before proceeding. Make a solution of a teaspoonful of ammonia and a little soap in a pail of water, and in this dip the silk again and again until the dirt is removed. Do not wring out, but press between the hands. Rinse in water from which the chill is gone, and hang in a shady place until partly dry, when lay between two cloths and press with a hot iron.—Ada Chester Bond in the June Ladies' Home Journal.

SUGGESTION FOR GRATE WHEN THE FIRE IS OUT.

Iced Tea and Coffee.

The secret of delicious summer beverages is their iciness, writes Florence Wilson in an article on "Summer Beverages" in The June Ladies' Home Journal. They may be unwholesome in their frigidity, but in this way only their "true virtue lies." Iced tea and coffee are probably the least injurious of summer drinks. To prepare the former pour a cup of freshly-boiled and boiling water over three teaspoonfuls of tea, set to steep, when add a quart of freshly-boiled water. Five minutes later strain into an earthen jug, and when cool—not lukewarm—add one or two large pieces of ice. Serve with a large quantity of finely-chopped ice, granulated sugar and thin slices of lemon. If iced coffee be desired make a fresh pot of very strong coffee, and when cold serve with large quantities of ice and sugar; cream is but seldom used.

Underwear for Traveling.

Combination suits are recommended for traveling, but if you are not accustomed to this style of underwear my advice is not to experiment with it away from home. If you are going to Chicago for the first time you may not be aware of the sudden changes to which this city is subjected, and may not think to take a set of light-weight flannels in your trunk in addition to the gauze you will probably wear.

The new all-wool taffeta skirts in black and natural wool colors are a positive boon for travelers. They are as light as silk and have a sheer, silken appearance, while they are guaranteed to wear twice or three times as long. They can be bought from $6, according to the amount of trimming required.

Three Million Bachelors.

According to the last census reports there are over 3,000,000 bachelors in the United States—by which is meant there are 3,000,000 men over thirty years old who have never been married.

How many of these 3,000,000 bachelors are single from choice rather than necessity?

The factors affecting the ability to support a wife have been much changed under the newer industrial and commercial conditions. So great has become the competition for places among the higher pursuits, and so largely have women come to fill positions once exclusively occupied by men that the bureaus of industrial statistics show a larger and larger percentage of men in these pursuits whose incomes, from their point of view, will not permit them to marry.

It is easy to scold the young men in this matter—quite as easy to find fault with the young women who are looking out for husbands with plenty of ready money. But there is nothing in the published census figures regarding the average earnings of certain classes of workers which at all warrants the conclusion that the majority of these 3,000,000 unmarried men remain single through wilfulness rather than what they deem necessity.

Gold and Silver Paint.

"Let me tell you how to buy gold or silver paint," said a lady. "Don't get it mixed or in the little bottles of powder and liquid that come prepared in boxes. Get the gold, silver or bronze powder by the ounce and buy the liquid medium separately, as many ounces at a time as you wish. You know the bottle of liquid never lasts as long as your powder, because it dries away and evaporates so rapidly. In this case you get any amount you want. Mix a small amount at a time, use it as quickly as you can after it is prepared, and always keep your bottle corked."

Victoria's Long-Standing Will.

The queen made her will in 1876. It is engrossed on vellum, quarto size, and is bound as a volume, secured with a private lock. Several blank pages have been left at the end of the book for codicils, some of which have already been added. Thus, when the princess Alice died, in 1878, modifications of the bequest were rendered necessary, and in the summer of 1884, after the duke of Albany's death, further revisions were imperative. One entry relates entirely to the disposal of the queen's gifts, which are not the property of the nation.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Fads and Fancies.

Rivaling the pretty French washing silks are new serviceable English weaves called Bradford silks that are designed for summer walking and traveling costumes and children's best dresses. They are made up in simple tailor style and finished either with very narrow silk gimps or with machine stitchings and tiny frills. The fabric looks like a silk-warped cloth, is pliable, light weight and smooth of surface, repels dust and does not wrinkle easily. It is about twenty-two inches wide and costs $1.25 per yard.

A high novelty in parasols is made of knife-plaited tulle on a perfectly flat Japanese frame with a number of ribs. At the outer edge is a bordering of tiny feather tips, violets or any fine flowers. A knot of the feathers or flowers to match is tied upon the handle. Anyone with deft fingers could cover a Japanese frame with the plaited tulle, which would shape itself so easily to the contour of the ribs.

"Mirror" velvet is effectively used in millinery. It takes its name from the glassy effect produced upon its surface by the very short nap being pressed down with heated rollers. It is a trifle more expensive than ordinary velvet.

For shopping or traveling a hair line or invisible mixed cheviot in shades of medium brown, gray or navy blue is suitable.

India silks and French suraha, with a satin finish, are imported and wool surah, a popular fabric for traveling uses, is almost as light as the silken texture.

Women wear as many rings upon their fingers as they can. Rings are a perfect craze.

MR. A. D. GRAVES

Says Dr. Rankin Removed a Number of Tumors From His Nose and He Didn't Suffer a Particle of Pain.

Dr. Rankin Also Cured Him of Asthma.

The growth of small tumors or polypii in the nostrils are very common. They cause catarrh and asthma and are a source of great annoyance and often serious troubles. They can be removed by a painless method. Dr. Rankin has removed over fifty in the last year and can refer you to the patients.

A. D. GRAVES, 288 NINTH AVE.

Prominent among the union brick masons of the city is Mr. A. D. Graves of 288 Ninth avenue, who recently moved here from Newaygo. While advising a friend to consult Dr. Rankin, he related his own experience. He said:

"I never was so surprised in my life when Dr. Rankin said he was through with the operation on my nose and showed me a large polypus he had just removed. I had been operated on before for the same trouble and it was as painful as having a tooth extracted. And not only that, but they always soon returned.

"But Dr. Rankin removed several from my nostrils at two different sittings and I never felt a particle of pain and, although that was several months since, they have never returned. When I first began treatment with Dr. Rankin I not only had these polypii and a bad case of catarrh, but I had asthma, too. My asthma now has disappeared entirely, my nostrils are clear and my catarrh wonderfully better, and I am going to continue the treatment until I am cured. I am on my second month now, and the doctor has done so much for me already that I am confident he can cure me entirely.

"I shall be glad to verify this statement and also explain his superior mode of treatment at any time.

References to five hundred cured patients in this city alone.

Dr. Rankin is a graduate of Ann Arbor, and has had years of experience in his specialties.

PROPOSALS FOR NEW COURT HOUSE.

The board of supervisors of Ottawa county will receive proposals for the erection of a new county court house in the city of Grand Haven, Mich.

Plans and specifications can be found on and after June 7, 1893, at the following places:

George D. Turner, county clerk, Grand Haven, Mich.

G. Van Schelven, secretary of building committee, Holland, Mich.

W. K. Johnston, architect, No. 611, The Temple, Chicago, Ill.

Sealed proposals, properly endorsed on the outside, will be received by the county clerk, up to June 20, 1893, 12 o'clock noon.

Each bid is to be accompanied by a certified check of five hundred dollars, as a guarantee that the party will enter into an agreement within five days after awarding of contract, for the erection and completion of the building according to the plans and specifications and conditions required for the amount named in his bid. The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Committee on Buildings of the Board of Supervisors.
