LOCAL NEWS.

Amusements.

CANTERBURY.—To-night there will be an entire change of programme, and the beautiful Queen of Song, Miss Fanny Forrest, having recovered from her severe indisposition, will to-night entertain the audience with new and popular ballads. Miss Ellen Colleen will appear in new and splendid dances, assisted by the established favorites, Lizzie Francis and Maggie Vernon. Budworth, Denny Gallagher and Emerson will perform new acts, and the Delevante brothers will appear in several of their most surprising feats. The new after-piece, "New Year's Calls," is destined to have quite a run, and we advise our friends to see it ere it is withdrawn from the stage. Notwithstanding the intensely hot weather, Canterbury is crowded each night, and the hall is so well ventilated that not a single complaint is heard of want of comfort. The audience find no trouble in keeping cool.

PURDY'S VARIETIES.—This place continues to be the favorite place of resort even in the hottest weather. The best talent in the city is employed. See the list of performers published in another column. The best of refreshments.

Meeting of Department Clerks—A Grand Fizzle.

An adjourned meeting of the Department clerks was held last night, at Willard Hall, for the purpose of effecting a military organization of the different employees of the Government in this city.

W. W. Danenhower, Chief Clerk in the Fourth Auditor's office, presided; and J. F. Jones, clerk in the Third Auditor's office, acted as Secretary.

A resolution was introduced, tendering the services of the Department clerks to the Government, and asking them to suggest some plan of organization.

This resolution did not seem to suit a portion of the gentlemen present, who were evidently anxious to effect an immediate organization, and tender their services as other military bodies. But a controlling and very industrious element of the meeting was evidently in no very anxious mood to serve their country in any capacity except in their present official relations, and used sufficient influence in motions and counter-motions, substitutes and resolutions, to defeat the honest intentions of those who really desired to do something for the defence and purification of the national capital.

After considerable discussion, this resolution was tabled, and another resolution, in harmony with the original call of the meeting, calling upon all who desired to serve in this military organization to come forward and enroll their names, was passed. This caused quite a stampede of the non-combatants, who commenced "skedaddling" from the hall.

One of these patriotic gentlemen attempted to get a resolution engrafted on the above, tendering the services of this organization to the Government, as privates, without compensation, to be sent into active service, provided their places shall be reserved and restored to them after the war is over!

After the above stampede, there seemed to be a sufficient amount of the discordant element to defeat the object desired by the originators of the meeting.

One man said he thought he came to a Union meeting, but he feared that too much of a secession spirit was manifested to do much good.

Without accomplishing anything, the meeting adjourned to meet in the same hall next Thursday night.

We have been informed that this meeting is a repetition of the meeting held in the same place last Tuesday evening.

These meetings, we understand, were originated through the influence of the employees of the Third Auditor's office, who met recently at the Gymnasium, when, after enrolling a sufficient number to form a company, they resolved to extend an invitation to their fellow clerks in the other bureaus of the Department to co operate with them in the organization of a number of military companies, but failing to have that harmony so much desired, they are still determined to pursue their first purpose, of having a crack company, well drilled, and ready for any emergency; and we think the other employees of the Department would do well to follow their example, and not be so afraid of soiling their broadcloth and patent leathers by a little wholesome drill out of office hours.

Contributions for the Disabled Soldiers.

Mrs. J. T. Fales, 413 C street, takes pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of the following sums of money, in addition to former receipts made public, for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers, viz:

From S. & W. Welsh, Philadelphia,..... $100
From Rev. Wm. M. Thayer, Ashland, Mass., 37

As Mrs. F. will shortly leave for the Peninsula, it is desirable that all contributions will be sent to her at once. Surely the self-sacrificing Florence Nightingales of this war ought to be encouraged. They leave homes of comfort and ease to share the hard fare of the soldier for the purpose of ministering to his necessities and providing for his wants in the trying hour of sickness, danger and death. Among all who have thus labored, none have been more industrious and persevering than Mrs. Fales. We hope a liberal supply of the "needful" will be constantly furnished to her, from time to time, as long as she is engaged in this work.

Sent to the Workhouse.

About 12 o'clock on Thursday Officer Drill, of Georgetown, arrested a notorious prostitute who most inappropriately calls herself Margaret Maiden. She was fully convicted of prostitution and sent to the workhouse.

George Simmes and Thomas Agleton, arrested on the same day, in Georgetown, for assault and disorderly conduct, were also consigned to the same quarters.

John Hurley, arrested in the Sixth ward for being drunk and disorderly, was also sent to the rogues retreat.

A boy, about 12 years of age, named Terrance O'Bryan, was arrested on Thursday by Officer Wilson of the Seventh ward, for throwing stones at his mother. He was also sent to the workhouse.

Mary Harrison, arrested in the First ward for being drunk and disorderly, was sent to the rural home to work out a sober character "with fear and trembling."

Grand War Meeting at Alexandria.

Arrangements are now being made for a grand war demonstration at Lyceum Hall, in Alexandria, on Tuesday afternoon next, at 5 o'clock.

A band of music will be engaged, and distinguished speakers from this city and Alexandria have already signified their willingness to be present to take part in the exercises. We shall announce the names of the speakers in our next issue.

We have no doubt, from the character of those who have this matter in hand, that it will be an affair worthy of the occasion. We hope there will be a general turn-out of the loyalists of Alexandria city and county.

P. S. After the above was in type, we ascertained that the following speakers have been engaged to address the meeting on that occasion:

Senators Harlan of Iowa, and Pomeroy of Kansas; Hon. L. E. Chittenden, Register of the United States Treasury, and Gilbert S. Minor; Hon. James T. Close and Jefferson Tacy, of Alexandria.

Correspondent Arrested.

Mr. Wm. Mitchell, lately employed in the Capitol Bakery as a clerk, but more recently attached to the bakery at Arlington, and who also acts as a correspondent of the Lawrence (Mass.) American, was arrested, on Thursday, at Arlington, by order of the Provost Marshal, and brought to the city, on the charge of writing a letter to that paper, charging some of the officers of the Fourteenth Massachusetts with unfitness for duty, &c. He was sent to the Old Capitol prison.

Temperance Meeting.

Meetings are still kept up at the music stand at the west front of the Capitol, every Sunday afternoon. Last Sunday, notwithstanding the rain, an excellent meeting was had. Addresses were made by Senators Pomeroy, Harlan, and others. To morrow Messrs. A. H. Shurtleff, of New York, John M. Davis and Wm. D. Myers, of New Jersey, will speak at the music stand at 4 o'clock. Let the friends of law and order rally.

Personal.

We regret to say that Mr. Hay, the President's secretary, is suffering from indisposition in the shape of the ague.

A person signing himself "A Unionist," in a communication in the Star, denies that Mrs. C. J. Faulkner is a secessionist. She has recently been in Washington.

Belle Boyd is not a sister of Mrs. Chas J. Faulkner.

Drunk and Profane.

Yesterday afternoon Officer Eckloff, of the Fourth ward, arrested Sarah A. Doyle in Prather's Alley, for being drunk and using profane language. She was taken before Justice Clayton, who, finding her only occupation to be of a disreputable character, concluded that the best place for her would be the workhouse. She was committed there for sixty days.

Capture of a Rebel Flag.

On Thursday, a detachment of the Twelfth Massachusetts regiment, stationed at Fort Tillinghast, on the opposite side of the river, learning that a rebel flag was in the possession of a man named Bagaby, who resides about three quarters of a mile beyond Ball's Cross Roads, obtained permission from their superior officer to capture the "rag." They accordingly set out on their expedition on Thursday evening, arriving at Bagby's house about nightfall. They immediately surrounded the house, and demanded the surrender of the "flag." Bagaby himself was not at home. His wife, however, made her appearance, and denied having a flag of that description on the premises. The "boys" were not to be bluffed off in that manner, and immediately commenced a search of the premises, the result of which was the finding of the identical "rag" which had been displayed to visitors with so much satisfaction by members of Bagaby's family. The old woman, when she found that she had been caught, became very wrothy, saying that even if her husband had taken the cloth she had not, and what was more never would; besides heaping abuse upon the heads of our soldiers such as can only be done by the tongue of a rebel virago. Besides the "flag," our boys discovered and took possession of a considerable amount of Government property, over which they placed a guard.

We learn that Bagaby, although he has taken the oath of allegiance, is looked upon with a good deal of suspicion by the Union men in the neighborhood, who regard him as "unsound on the goose."

Artistic Signs.

Mr. M. T. Parker, house, sign and ornamental painter, at No. 59 Louisiana avenue, between Sixth and Seventh streets, has recently put up two beautiful signs, one on each side of the entrance to his establishment. We desire to call attention to their artistic worth and beauty. Each sign is painted on canvas, eight feet long and six wide. Here are four choice scenes from Cowper, the great English poet, and the artist has done full justice to the descriptive powers of the author. One is a spirited representation of a shipwreck, showing the rugged rocks, the foaming billows, and the vivid flashes of lightning, strongly contrasted with the dark and wild thunder clouds in the distance. Here, also, the light-house on the distant rocks, the signal gun, the sinking ship, the struggling of the unfortunates who are vainly battling with the elements, are portrayed with an almost life-like distinctness. The other three are quiet lanscapes of equal merit, though not so spirited. Between these a graceful scroll is tastefully inscribed with the name and business of the artist, and an exquisite hand is painted on each sign, with the finger pointing to the room above. Mr. Parker has long been known as one of the best in his line, and as an excellent citizen. We are glad to chronicle these evidences of his prosperity in business.

A Curious Case.

Dennis Mahony was arrested on Thursday afternoon by Officer Healy of the Fifth ward. He is charged by Catharine McGraugh with the crime of "bastardy," as reported, by which we suppose it is intended to mean that he is the father of a bastard. Dennis thought the officer had no right to arrest him, and he broke away from him and ran. The officer fired at him but did not hit him. By the aid of two other officers he was rearrested, and taken before Justice Clark, who sent him to jail for a further hearing.

This case will involve some nice points of law as to whether his offence is a crime, or that he is only liable to a civil process merely for the support of the child. We always supposed "bastardy" to mean the state of being a bastard.

Meeting of Paymaster's Clerks.

A meeting of the clerks in the Paymaster's Department was held on Thursday night, at which Mr. J. E. Brady was called to the chair, and J. E. Holmead was appointed secretary.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That, in the opinion of the meeting it is desirable and proper that a military company shall be formed from the clerks and employees of the pay department, for the purpose of military instruction, that they may respond, if called upon.

After some further discussion, the meeting adjourned to meet to-night, at the corner of Fifteenth and F streets.

Rare Sport in Prospect.

We learn that a race between the yachts Benicia Boy and Emma F. Burdine will take place on the 22d of September next, from the Arsenal wharf, Washington, to the wharf at Fort Washington, and back. The purse is for $50, and all other yachts, from Alexandria or the District, of thirty feet and under, by the payment of an entrance fee of $25.

Promoted.

Lieut. Hanson E. Weaver, of this city, has been promoted from a second lieutenancy to a first lieutenancy, in the 8th U. S. infantry, regulars. He is now on duty at Fort Columbus, Governor's Island, N. Y.

Taking Time by the Forelock.

One hundred and forty Irishmen left this city for the North, by the cars, yesterday morning and one hundred in the evening, to avoid being drafted.

Improvement.

Flag footways are now being laid along Four-and-a-half street, across the intersection of Louisiana and Indiana avenues, in front of the City Hall. A much needed improvement.

Attention, Afflicted!

Dr. Veliny is yet engaged in an extensive practice in this city, and we would call the attention of the poor, puny, emaciated victims of their own sins to the best sources of remedy. First, give up your present course of life at once and forever; and secondly, call on the most skilful physicians, (and none are better than Dr. Veliny,) and be cured of the disease which is now undermining the constitution and sending you to a premature grave.

This is to certify that, having intensely suffered for a long time from dyspepsia, loss of appetite, nervousness and general debility, congestion, constipation, fainting, exhaustion, cholic, pains in the breast, &c, my situation was painful and distressing in the extreme. My friends induced me to try Dr. Tumblety's herb medicines, and they have cured me.
