CLAIMS AGAINST the UNITED STATES.—FINLEY SIMPSON, late Register of the Treasury, and CHARLES E. SHERMAN, Counsellors at Law, will devote their entire attention to the prosecution and settlement of demands against the United States, growing out of the present war, including Accounts and Claims of States, Contractors, and Disbursing Officers; applications for the restoration of property illegally seized or confiscated, and for compensation for the use of private property for Government purposes, and for damage for the injury of such property by the army; military pay, pensions, and bounty lands and the distributive shares of monies payable at the Treasury and due to sub contractors and others.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN

I distilled in London, and put up solely in quart and pint bottles, to meet the requirements of Druggists, and those to whom Pure and Unadulterated liquor is a Necessity or a Luxury.

It is the oldest established of all the Gins (I) which have started into existence upon the basis of its well-deserved and hard-earned celebrity.

It has no connection with, and is in no way like to trashy mixtures sold as "Kentucky Gin," or "Ohio Tom," or "Lorenzo Dores," or "Lorenzo Gin," or, in fact, no matter how much "antiquity" or "respectability" is assumed by their begetters.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, says: "It is far preferable to even Irish Holland Gin, and is the best article of its kind I have ever seen." So say thousands of physicians.

The New York Herald says: "We are surprised at its beneficial effects; it is a certain safe-guard to health."

The Philadelphia Ledger says: "It has no superior, if an equal, in medicinal virtues."

The New Orleans Picayune says: "There is no remedy on earth for dyspepsia equal to it."

The Boston Journal says: "As a beverage, as a preventive, or as a remedial agent, we want no other than this pure nectar."

Women of America, for you it is particularly adapted. In sickness or health, it is your greatest friend.
