TO A DEAD JURIST

Judge Parrish's Picture Placed On the Wall

BY HIS OLD LAWYER FRIENDS

Speeches Eulogizing the Judge Made By Members of the Bar--Other Court News.

An excellent pastel portrait of Judge Isaac Parrish, second judge of the superior court, was presented to the court yesterday morning in the presence of a gathering of attorneys. Judge Parrish was one of the conspicuous figures in Grand Rapids for many years and was one of the most learned judges in this part of Michigan. He was elected in 1856 and served six years, and was succeeded by Judge Burlingame.

A few months ago the photograph of Judge Holmes the first judge of the court, was hung up in the rear of the judges' desk in the court room, and since that time the admirers of Judge Parrish have been at work preparing for the services which took place yesterday. At 10 o'clock Judge Burlingame made a brief announcement of the purpose of the gathering and called attention to the numerous deaths which have taken away some of the oldest legal men in the city. He said it was eminently fitting that these departed ones should be remembered in this way. Undersheriff H. W. Davis then unveiled the portrait and hung it on the wall.

Speeches were made by Jacob Kleinhans, M. J. Smiley, Willard Kingsley, Prosecuting Attorney Wolcott, Andrew Fyfe, W. H. Eastman and others.

Was a Costly Blow.

M. Wisse who was convicted of assaulting a fellow workman named Calhean in the Bissell Carpet Sweeper factory and nearly killing him paid $25 and costs yesterday. The men worked side by side and got into a quarrel Wisse struck Calhean with a sweeper across the face. The latter fell senseless to the floor. No one saw the blow struck but the first words spoken by Calhean when he recovered consciousness was "Wisse struck me." He also testified that Wisse struck him but Wisse denied it, said Calhean fainted and struck his face on the bench when he fell. Wisse threatened to appeal but changed his mind and his friends paid his fine.

Says He Killed Her Chickens.

Peter Valpert, a wealthy and highly respected old gentleman of the west side, was arrested yesterday on complaint of Adie B. Holland, who charges that he maliciously killed five of her chickens. Mr. Valpert was arraigned and demanded examination, which was set for next Wednesday.

Court Notes.

The bond of John A. Carpenter, executor of the estate of Bernhard Haas, deceased, was filed in probate yesterday with the American Surety company as surety, and letters testamentary issued. The estate consists of a large farm in Ottawa county and real estate in the city, the whole valued at about $12,000.

JAS. CAMPBELL, City Agent.

"One of my customers came in today and asked me for the best cough medicine I had," says Lyn Young, a prominent druggist of Newman Grove, Neb. "Of course I showed him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and he did not ask to see any other. I have never yet sold a medicine that would loosen and relieve a severe cold so quickly as the Remedy does. I have sold four dozen of it within the last thirty days and do not know of a single case where it failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by F. J. Wurzburg, druggist, 58 Monroe.

TALKING WITH ANGELS.

When a Baby Smiles in Sleep, Then She's Happy.

How Many Happy Infants if Mothers Only Knew More!

A Great Deal of Suffering Is Directly Traceable to Ignorance.

In Ireland they have a pretty fancy that when a baby smiles in its sleep it is "talking with angels."

How many more smiling, healthy babies there might be in Grand Rapids if mothers knew more of their babies' needs.

The only remonstrance to this want of knowledge that is possible to little children, is expressed in the language of suffering and disease.

Stale cow's milk—absolutely fresh milk in the city is a fiction—is not only unpalatable and lacking in nutrition, but also harmful. Mother's milk is sometimes quite as bad. Improperly prepared substitutes are worse.

But the lactated food prepared in Burlington, Vt., has become a blessing. It is the wonderful result of the great advance that has been made in recent years in the study of infant nutrition.

Probably to the end of time healthful mother's milk will be better than any imitation. But next to this, the most eminent physicians are agreed, and the experience of thousands of parents has proved, that lactated food is the most natural and nourishing diet possible for infants. Its use in the summer is especially to be desired.

It is a better preventive of the dreaded cholera infantum than all the medicine in the world.

FLORENCE WANDELL.

It is to be obtained at any drug store, and is not only easy of preparation but is so inexpensive that no family in Grand Rapids need be without it.

The following letter from Mrs. A. Wandell, 99 Rowe street, Rochester, N. Y., a picture of whose pretty baby is given above, is one of the scores that are received every week from happy parents the country over:

"Our baby weighed four pounds at birth. When two months old she weighed but eight pounds with her clothes on. The doctor said she was a very frail child. I commenced feeding her a certain food when she was fourteen days old, but she did not gain strength as I knew she ought. When she was seven months old I changed to lactated food. She commenced to gain at once, and to rest well at night. She has not been sick with bowel trouble once through her teething, and she was teething last summer. I consider lactated food has been a great blessing to our little girl. It has made her healthy, strong and the happiest two year old child in Rochester. Any mother wishing to address one that has used lactated food will be cheerfully answered at my expense by addressing me."

Last fall I was taken with a kind of summer complaint, accompanied with a wonderful diarrhœa. Soon after my wife's sister, who lives with us, was taken in the same may. We used almost everything without benefit. Then I said, let us try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy, which we did, and that cured us right away. I think much of it, as it did for me what it was recommended to do. John Hertzler, Bethel, Berks Co., Pa. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by F. J. Wurzburg druggist, 58 Monroe.

Shiloh's Cure, the great cough and croup cure, is for sale by us. Pocket size contains twenty five doses, only 25c. Children love it. Sold by F. J. Wurzburg.

BABY RUNNING SORE

Worst Sight Ever Seen. Legs, Hands, Arms, Body One Solid, Deep, Running Sore.

Began Using Cuticura. In Two Weeks Great Improvement Followed by a Complete Cure.

My child began to be sore when two months old.—Eczema on his face and head. It rapidly spread over all his body. Every one who saw him said he was the worst sight they ever saw.

He had to be wound in linen cloths over so many times a day, and then he would stick fast to his clothes. I could not dress him alone for months. His little legs, hands, and arms were just one sore and deep raising sore; he was sore all over, but the deepest sores were on his arms, legs, and face. His face and ears had great deep cracks in the flesh, and were swollen so that he did not look like a child. His sores were the worst I have ever seen of the kind. We began using the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and in two weeks we could see a great improvement, and now he is completely cured. His skin is smooth and white, and he sleeps entirely well. We are so thankful. Words indeed. I would like to tell everyone who has a suffering baby about CUTICURA.

BICYCLES

King Richard's cry, "My kingdom for a horse!" arouses little enthusiasm in these days when not a horse, but a Safety, is the one desire of all, both young and old.

It's right it should be so.

What,s more healthful or more delightful than a spin over a smooth road?

The cool air fans one's cheek as with shout and laughter we skim along.

Distance counts for nothing. Two, four, six miles we easily cover before breakfast, and with renewed health and vigorous appetites we begin a day of work or pleasure with cheerful thoughts and a clear brain because of an hour's use of our Safety.
