Amusements.

GROVER'S THEATRE—Handy Andy.—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Florence continue to draw crowded and fashionable audiences. No night since their engagement commenced has there been room for all of the anxious applicants for seats, and some nights there has been no standing place available after 9 o'clock.

This evening the management has selected a bill of comic attractions full of rich fun and refined wit. The glorious roaring Irish comic play of "Handy Andy" is first on the programme; in which Mr. Florence appears as the blundering Irishman. This will be succeeded by Koppitz's potpourri, "A Day with the Irish Brigade," which will be performed this evening for the last time. The performance will close with Mr. Florence's Protean play, "Mischievous Annie," in which Mrs. Florence will sustain five characters, singing a number of songs—among which are "Bobbin' 'Round," "My Mary Ann"—and dancing several elegant French and Spanish dances.

FORD'S THEATRE.—French Spy—Miss Mitchell. Manager Ford always keeps up with the times. This evening will be presented at his new theatre, the thrilling military drama of "The French Spy," a play in days gone by made celebrated by Mad Vestris, afterwards attempted by scores of actresses, but left at last to achieve a great success by the artistic acting powers of Miss Maggie Mitchell, the several characters of which she represents in a remarkably attractive manner. The play combines combats and tableaux, a showy military dance, a touch of singing, a dash of pantomime, some tragic speeches, flashes of the comic muse, startling situations, orchestral accompaniments. This evening will be Miss Mitchell's last performance of "The French Spy" on any stage. It is only acted by her this evening at the beseeching request of many friends. On Monday evening, the astonishing romance of varied beauties, that has been performed for the last five nights in such able dramatic form, known all over the principal cities, (and so universally in Washington,) as the magnificent "Panchon, the Cricket," will be again produced. It will also be performed next Saturday afternoon, for the special enjoyment of families.

CANTERBURY.—An immense crowd were in attendance last evening, all of whom seemed greatly to enjoy the varied, interesting, and very amusing performance. This afternoon, at 3 o'clock, a grand matinee will be given for the especial accommodation of ladies and children, when all of the great company, including the bright particular stars, Marietta Ravel and Miss Agnes Southerland, will appear. To-night a grand gala bill is offered, embracing the combined talent of the entire splendid company. Beautiful Marietta will appear upon the rope in her difficult feats, among others, standing upon one tiptoe, and distributing flowers to the audience, without the aid of a balance pole. The Scottish Nightingale, Miss Agnes Southerland, will sing several of her choicest musical gems. Hart and Simmons will keep the audience in a laughing mood by their funny delineations of negro life and character, and the Court of Beauty will appear in their chaste and admirable dances.

GREAT AMERICAN CIRCUS—This Afternoon and Night.—Gardner & Hemming's Circus and Equestrian School, from New York, will open this afternoon, with a performance for families, ladies and children. Madame Louise Tournaire, the great French equestrienne, from Nixon's Cremorne Garden, is among the number of female riders, as also are Mlle. Helonin Bregy, from the Royal Cirque, Paris; Miss Eliza Gardner, the danseuse and equestrienne; and Mlle. Camilla, the lovely and daring female rider. Messrs. Dan Gardner and James Reynolds will dispense the gifts of Momus.

Arrival of Released Union Soldiers from Richmond.

About 1,950 released Union soldiers from Richmond arrived in this city yesterday, and a more ragged and dirty looking set of persons we never saw. The description they gave of Richmond and their sufferings while in prison there, is sorrowful in the extreme. They say there are a great many Union people in and about Richmond, and they don't hesitate to call themselves such; but speak out openly and boldly. The most of these prisoners are without hats, coats, or shoes; some are with only pants, and others had no shirts to their backs. They say that every Sunday night, regularly, the citizens, or rather the secessionists, used to congregate in front of the prison, and taunt them with threats of violence, and called them the "d——d Yankees." They bore all these taunts like patriots and soldiers, without the least murmuring. We hope the Government will see to it, that they are properly cared for, because if there is any body of men who should have the favor of the Government, it is these patriots who have so nobly sacrificed everything to uphold the integrity of the Government, and to put down this unholy rebellion.

New Hospitals.

Some half dozen new hospitals are now being fitted up in a temporary manner, in consequence of the pressure for hospital room in this locality. Among these are Island Hall, in the Seventh ward; the Almshouse; Park Hotel, on Seventh street; the old Wigwam, or printing office, on the corner of Indiana avenue and Second street; the St. Aloysius hospital; and the Federal hospital, nearly opposite the Douglas.

Shooting.

A soldier, who was riding up Eleventh street Thursday night last, about 10½ o'clock, was spoken to by some colored people, when the soldier fired his pistol into the crowd. The ball struck a woman, and glanced and passed through the body of a man, who is not expected to live. The soldier rode off; the patrolmen on the beat could not catch him, nor find out his name.

Attention, Afflicted!

Dr. Veliny is yet engaged in an extensive practice in this city, and we would call the attention of the poor, puny, emaciated victims of their own sins to the best sources of remedy. First, give up your present course of life at once and forever; and secondly, call on the most skilful physicians, (and none are better than Dr. Veliny,) and be cured of the disease which is now undermining the constitution and sending you to a premature grave.

(COMMUNICATED.)

(Extract from a Letter on the Battle-Field.)

* * * * * * * *

This battle (Antietam) has been the most sanguinary of the war, and the only one fought with design and upon military principles. The arrangement of our corps—the overlooking position of the Commanding General—the sending into action the right and the left—the closing up of the centre, and final success—excites bewildering admiration, and carries the mind to the great fields of Austerlitz and Wagram, fought by Napoleon. Of all this have I spoken. The heart history of such a conflict, purchased by the life and blood of twenty thousand men, must be found in the hospitals. War has its glories—but it has its ten thousand demons in these human tortures, that make the eye-balls ache—the heart bleed—the lips palsy, and the brain reel. The sight is at first positively unendurable. The life blood of some is still trickling away in silent calmness—while the disevered limbs and maniac brain of others give rise to sounds God grant I may not again witness.

But ye mothers who now seek a son—or wife a husband—or sister a brother—or sons a father—know and be consoled that even here the hand of mercy is watchful, and better care is bestowed upon your loved one than might at first seem possible. It was in the hospital where rested the gallant Hooker, that I learned the history of those mythical words so often seen and so little understood, "S. T.—1860—X." Anything alleviating the sufferings and saving the lives of our soldiers is a national blessing. I witnessed some astonishing results from this article.

It is well known the effect of burnt gunpowder and excitement is thirst, which, added to the loss of blood in the wounded, creates the necessity of a reviving stimulant. In this particular hospital, the physicians were allowing their patients to drink Plantation Bitters, otherwise called S. T.—1860—X, and although the wounded are most numerous here—this division having opened the fight at 6 in the morning—the men were mostly composed, and there was but very little fainting. The article acts upon the stomach, and nerves in a most incomprehensible manner, superior to brandy, and without subsequent stupifying reaction. It originated in the West Indies, containing calisaya bark, winter green, lavender, anise, clove buds, orange, snake root, &c., preserved in St. Croix Rum—the S. T.—1860—X being a secret ingredient, not yet revealed to the public. It is principally recommended for want of appetite, disordered liver, intermittent fevers, stomachic difficulties, &c. I understand it was somewhat known in the Southern States previous to the war, and it appears an agent of Jefferson Davis recently applied to the proprietors for the privilege to make it for hospital purposes during the war, to which they made the following reply:

NEW YORK, Jan. 16, 1862.

Mr.———, Agent of, etc:

Dear Sir,—In reply to your communication, offering us "Fifty thousand dollars for the recipe and right to make the Plantation Bitters for hospital purposes during the war," we beg to say your price is a liberal one, considering it would cost us nothing to comply, and that otherwise we can derive no revenue from the Southern States; but, sir, our duties to our Government and our ideas of consistency would not allow us to entertain it, although it might please us to assuage the sufferings of your misguided followers.

We remain,
Very respectfully yours,
P. H. DRAKE & Co.

These gentlemen give the history of certain ingredients of their article for over two hundred years—showing that through all changes of the medical profession and its practitioners, strength, composure and cheerfulness have been derived from these sources. Dr. Woods in the Washington Hospitals informed me that he had been unable to produce an hour's sleep in one patient for nearly two weeks, and he was fast sinking and crazy, until the Plantation Bitters came to his knowledge, when one day's trial gave him a night's rest and he was now fast recovering. I am surprised our Government has not equalled Jefferson Davis in energy, and adopted this invaluable article in all our hospitals. As a lay member, I can bear witness it is "good to take," and affords more energy and life than anything I have ever tried. Success to the Plantation Bitters.

But I have digressed. In my next I shall speak of gathering in the wounded, burying the dead, &c.
