THE LATEST AND BEST COLLECTIONS OF CHURCH MUSIC,
BY THE MOST POPULAR AUTHORS,
LOWELL MASON, WM. B. BRADBURY, GEORGE F. ROOT, And others.

MR. BRADBURY'S LATEST WORK.

THE KEY-NOTE. A New Collection of Sacred and Secular Music, for Choirs and Singing Schools. By WILLIAM B. BRADBURY. Price $1 50 each; $13 50 per dozen.

Mr. Bradbury is so well known, and has had such pre-eminent success as an author of Church Music Books, that it is hardly necessary to commend his productions. His last work previous to this—"The Jubilee"—has enjoyed a sale of over 225,000 copies. It is sufficient to say, then, that this is his latest work in this department, and that its success is worthy of the reputation of its author. It is complete in all its departments, and is printed on clear, large type, one part on a staff.

DR. MASON'S LATEST WORK.

ASAPH, OR THE CHOIR-BOOK. A New Collection of Sacred and Secular Music for Choirs, Singing Schools and Conventions. By Lowell Mason, Dr. of Music, and William Mason. Price $1 50 each; $13 50 per dozen.

The Elements of Musical Notation are illustrated by a large variety of pleasing, social pieces, part-songs, glees, etc. The Tune Department contains mostly new music, and provides for every meter, and the Anthem Department is full and attractive. It is safe to pronounce this one of the best, most attractive works of its class which even the distinguished author of "Carmina Sacra" has ever issued. It is enriched by new tunes from Mr. William Mason, and many from eminent foreign and American sources.

MR. ROOT'S LATEST WORK.

THE DIAPASON. A collection of Church Music, to which are prefixed a new and comprehensive view of Music and the Notation; Exercises for Reading Music and Vocal Training; Part-Songs, Rounds, &c. For Choirs, Singing Schools, Conventions, &c. By GEORGE F. ROOT. Price $1 50 each; $13 50 per dozen.

Mr. Root's name is as a household word throughout the land in connection with that music which is oftenest sung and most enjoyed. A large portion of those popular songs which are ringing from every hillside and valley, such as "Tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are marching," "Rally 'round the Flag," &c., &c., are the product of his fertile imagination. Those who like his songs will be likely to appreciate his sacred music. The "Diapason" is his latest and best work in this department.

THE NEW BOOK.

THE PRAISE OF ZION, for Choirs, Singing Schools and Societies. By SOLON WILDER and F. S. DAVENPORT. Price, $1 50 each; $13 50 per dozen.

A new book, recently published, and its success justifies the very confident predictions in regard to it. A prominent teacher of music writes thus respecting it: "To say that I like it would be too mild a phrase. I am thoroughly and decidedly in love with it. Its harmonies are so unusual in a work of the class, and so rich and effective, that I have a real feast every time I treat myself to an hour for its perusal."

The following are characteristics of this book: 1. Its music is fresh, original, popular; not meaningless on the one hand, nor too difficult on the other. 2. It has much variety, presenting for the first time original compositions by celebrated composers; as Chas. Zeuner, Novello, Neukomm, &c., &c. 3. It has a great amount of new music. 4. It has a fine variety of Tunes of all meters, as well as Anthems and set Pieces, arranged as Choruses, and also with Solos, Duets, &c. 5. It has as a careful selection of the best old tunes from Carmina Sacra and other sources. 6. Its Singing School Department is clear, concise, practical. 7. It is rich in Singing School music; Part-Songs, Glees, Rounds, &c. 8. The type is large and clear, one part on a staff. We are confident that Singing Schools and Choirs who adopt "The Praise of Zion" will be pleased with it.

THE STANDARD BOOK FOR ALL TIME.

THE NEW CARMINA SACRA, being one of the most complete and popular collections of Psalm and Hymn Tunes, Anthems, Chants, Sentences, &c., for Choirs, Congregations, Singing Schools, and Societies, ever published. By LOWELL MASON. Price $1 50 each; $13 50 per dozen.

If any American book of sacred music is entitled to be held as classic, it is this. Originally published twenty-five years since, it has had an amount and continuance of popularity never enjoyed by any other book. Over half a million copies have been sold, and it still continues one of the best-selling of church music books. Scarcely a singer can be found who has not used it; and whatever other books they may have or lack, few choirs feel that they can do without "Carmina Sacra." It is good, very good; every page is good. This book more than any other—perhaps it would be true to say more than all others combined—furnishes the material from which nearly all the hymn and tune books are compiled. Its Elementary Department, or Guide to Musical Notation, has recently been made new, and the "New Carmina Sacra" has no superior as a Singing School book. There is no danger in recommending such a book. It will probably continue to sell and be used longer than other book now before the public. MASON BROTHERS, No. 596 Broadway, New-York.
