BAD BREAK IN STOCK

Failure of the Passage of Silver Bill Did It.

WAS A BEAR MARKET

London Was a Seller and Much Stock Forced Out on Stop Orders. Wheat Was Lower.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Money on call has been easy, ranging from 2 to 2½ per cent, last loan at 2 per cent and closing offered at 2 per cent.

Posted rates, $4.84@4.86.

Government bonds have been weaker.

Lower prices were the rule of the stock exchange today. The action of the senate in the silver matter was a severe disappointment both in this and foreign markets. Under the circumstances, it was no surprise that the temper of circulation underwent a marked change. The bears were unusually aggressive and took advantage of their knowledge that some of the light-winded traders had loaded up with stocks recently on account of the easier condition of money and their confidence in unconditional repeal. London turned up as a seller of its specialties and a good deal of stock was forced out here on stop orders. Several attempts were made to rally the market and at one time prices showed a recovery of ¾ to 1⅝ per cent from the lowest notch and every advance only served to invite fresh assaults and the result was that speculation was weaker just previous to the close than at any other time of the session.

Wheat Closed Lower.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Wheat was very weak today. There seemed to be no support to the market and prices at one time showed a decline of 1⅝c from last night's close. Before the opening December was quoted on the curb at 66c, ⅛c lower than the close last night. The news that the senate had adjourned and the indications that the repeal of the Sherman act was doomed, acted on traders like a wet blanket. The opening was the same as the curb price, ⅛c below final figures of yesterday.

Closing prices were:

WHEAT—October, 62⅝; December, 65⅝c; May, 72⅝c.

CORN—October, 38½c; December, 38½c; May, 42½c.

OATS—October, 26½c; December, 27½c; May, 30½c.

His Version.

As a Frenchman reads aloud the details of a little accident:

"The one, named Jean Tirrella, mounted before yesterday in the evening the board of the steam shep. The foot coming to him to fail, he fell to the sea. They succeeded to refish him, and he has been conducted to the Hospital Centrals, where to him have been prodigaled the cares necessaire. Not having received the wound, he has been able, this today, to wander to his affairs."—Chat Noir.

"Parker seems to have got rich all of a sudden."

"Yes. He caused it to be reported that he was dead, and all the papers printed obituary notices of him. He got all these together and instituted suits for libel against the publishers. They compromised, and Parker's living on velvet in consequence."—Harper's Bazar.
