

CORRESPONDENCE

COLUMBIA CITY

Miss Alice Baker of Seattle is spending the week with her friend, Miss Florence Peterson.

School began September 30th with Miss McClay as teacher. The district decided to build a new school opposite the postoffice, but the building has been held up by the Council of Defense. The present school being so crowded the board has decided to build a temporary addition to the old school house.

The Columbia City Social club has postponed the Thursday night dance to Saturday night, on account of the shortage of electric power during the week.

Felix Sommarstrom is spending the week in Portland on business.

Mrs. Frisendahl, Miss Baker, Mrs. Sholander and Miss Peterson spent Wednesday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Dahl, who have been in the hotel business in St. Helens for the past ten years, have taken over the company hotel.

Mr. Swift, the new barber, and his family, arrived last week and will stay at the Annex until able to secure a cottage.

A baby boy brightened the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bosworth Saturday, October 5th. Daddy Bosworth says he will have him working in the shipyards next week.

Bernard Sanderson was called in the draft and left Tuesday for his home in Eureka, California.

Last Saturday evening our soldier boys were very pleasantly entertained at the Vester home.

Last week, much to our amazement the river rose several inches. On investigation we found that Edward E. Coad had accidentally fallen into it. When he touched bottom he was still holding fast his glasses and pipe, which almost suffocated him.

Mrs. Manin went to Portland on Monday.

Mrs. Fred Jurgewitz entertained the soldier boys last week. The community has taken great interest in the soldiers stationed here. So far they have been entertained by Coads, Gushies, Vester's, Hess' and Atcherson's.

Miss Florence Peterson entertained for Miss Baker Tuesday evening. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fresendahl, Mr. and Mrs. Sholander and Ward Hallin.

SCAPPOOSE

Floyd Grewell has gone from Silverton to Kerry, working in a camp there.

Mrs. Charles Wikstrom was elected the new treasurer of the Red Cross at the meeting last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney and children of Portland spent Sunday with Mrs. Whitney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper.

Mrs. Roy Price was in Scappoose Sunday.

Mr. Johnson, who lives on the Sandon place came home Friday with his foot smashed.

Mrs. Victor Johnson is much improved in health, but is still taking treatment in Portland.

Tom Roy of St. Helens went to the hospital last week.

The Red Cross will meet every Tuesday morning, 10 o'clock. Those who can come bring a sandwich. They are busy now with the Belgian sewing, any one desiring to do work at home can be accommodated.

Congregational Church—Sunday School, 10:15; morning worship, 11:15; evening service, 7:30.

We received word of the death of Mrs. Geo. Weist's father, Billie Weist, who died very suddenly at her home in Alberta, Canada, September 17th. They are very well known around here.

The Scappoose Lumber company are building a garage directly back of the depot, for their lumber trucks. Edwin Rawder will speak in the Congregational church Sunday morning.

School Notes

On account of a bad cold Floyd McKay was absent from school Monday, October 7th.

Miss Alexander, having resigned her position as eighth grade teacher, has accepted a position at Rainier as seventh and eighth grade instructor in music, and arithmetic. Miss Bennett from the university of Oregon has taken her place.

Fire drills were held in the school October 3, being the first this year.

Olga Johnson, having been falsely reported as having Spanish influenza, has returned to school perfectly well.

Mrs. Cooke was absent from the French class Monday.

Mrs. Hatfield's room now registers thirty pupils and things start off very promising for a good year's work.

We're glad to welcome Ellen Sheller back to the sixth grade.

Le Vern Brown has found profitable employment on the Island and is out of school for the present.

Ainer Johnson is reported as being in the hospital.

The first grade is advancing rapidly in number work. They write and count to fifty.

The children take three words in reading. They make them with little letter cards, write them on the board and find them on the chart.

WARREN

A number of the Warren ladies are preparing to form a community club. The objects are for social entertainment, consisting of dancing and social card games such as whist and "500." A meeting is scheduled for the near future.

Farm work is nearly over. A few silos are yet to be filled, but all other work is done. Fall ploughing and seeding has begun and the rains are a source of gratification to the farmer. The crops for the most part were light and below the expectation, wheat being somewhat of a disappointment.

Now that harvesting is over and the county fair a thing of yesterday, politics is beginning to take on some activity. Candidate for county judge, W. J. Fullerton is looking around his political fences and George B. Conyers is driving a stake occasionally to strengthen the wires. Martin White is quietly buttonholing the voters and the next week or 10 days promises a lively skirmish.

Victor H. Dougherty, a nephew-in-law of W. J. and Robert Fullerton, with Mrs. Dougherty, is visiting here. They are formerly from Virginia, but spent the summer in Montana where Mr. Dougherty was employed in government work.

Albert Hunt of Burlington, Iowa, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hyskell. Mr. Hunt came to Portland last week and enlisted in the Merchant Marine and will spend the time until assigned to duty on the Oregon Berkshire Ranch.

C. R. Miller predicts as follows: "We have Bulgaria now. We will have Turkey for Thanksgiving and Austria (Austria) for Christmas."

Much complaint is heard of the hunters who visit this section. They will walk along the railway and shoot from there; also on the public road. They may not be aware that this is contrary to law, but they should be warned.

William Eujstrom, who is in the service at the Benson Polytechnic at Portland, visited friends here Sunday.

The W. O. W. will give a grand social ball in the hall here, on Saturday evening, October 19th. These events are becoming very popular and are looked forward to in the social events with interest.

Hereafter the Home Guards will be treated to coffee and cake after every weekly drill on Monday night.

A minstrel show is in embryo under the supervision of the Home Guard, to be given between now and the holidays. Action was taken and talent will be selected at a meeting to be held Friday night. Capt. Hoyt will have charge of the musical program and intensive rehearsals will be held from now until the event takes place.

The departure of Lieutenant F. A. Beeler to enter the service of Uncle Sam leaves a vacancy in that office in the Home Guards. An election is called for Monday night to fill the position. Appropriate resolutions were drawn up and forwarded to the absent officer, who was always present and took a very keen interest in the work here.

Arthur E. Lund is again behind the counter at O. A. Erickson's, after an absence of our months in Seattle. His many friends welcome his return.

Much satisfaction is heard expressed on all sides at the success financially as well as otherwise of the county fair. The last two years there has been no deficit, but a nice surplus and the farmers feel well pleased with the result.

Chaplain Knoll of Vancouver barracks, will conduct the Sunday services in the Lutheran church. His address at both morning and evening services will be in English and every resident of Warren is invited to attend.

YANKTON

G. L. Tarbell & Son, who have the contract on the Kappler road, are making good progress with their work and are doing an excellent job. They are now getting ready to rebuild the bridge across Cox creek. It is understood that the county court will gravel the road as soon as the work is completed.

County Judge Morton, Roadmaster Abry and Supervisor Uther Clark, were here Wednesday, inspecting the road work being done in this vicinity.

The Yankton grange held its regular meeting last Saturday night. The most important question before the grange is the securing of dairy feed, and with the government officials taking the stand they do, it is a great problem to know what to do with the stock.

The Yankton school now has 75 scholars and the principal of the school informs us that good work is being accomplished. Yankton prides itself in its school and each resident here takes an interest in the school.

William Brannon has rented his place and sold his stock and moved his family to the Milton Creek Logging company's plant, where he is employed.

Four new silos have been built in this neighborhood during the past several months. Mr. Markkanen is completing his silo which is built of concrete. It is the first one of its kind in the Yankton neighborhood. The corn crop this year was exceptionally good, considering the dry weather, and corn cutting is now the big work of the farmers.

Politics are not causing much excitement here as the farmers have been too busy with their farm problems. At election, however, the people will pick the best man and vote for him.

Mrs. Andrew Kraft of Portland is visiting relatives in the Yankton neighborhood.

Mr. Saulser is preparing to rent his farm and move to St. Helens.

Mrs. Earl Porter has been here on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tarbell.

Little Miss Edith Thomas is a patient in the St. Vincent hospital in Portland undergoing treatment.

A surprise party was given Mrs. Blythe Carey on Thursday evening, October 26, in honor of her birthday. The evening was spent in games, etc. Refreshments of grape juice, ice cream and cake were served. The birthday cake was presented by Mrs. Minon Murphy and Mrs. Frank McDonald. The party dispersed at midnight, wishing Mrs. Carey many returns of the day.

The dance given by the Deer Island auxiliary for the benefit of the American Red Cross, netted $115. We thank you for your patronage.

Minon Murphy and family, who have lived here for the past two years left on Saturday for Yacolt, Wash., where they will make their home. They will be greatly missed in the social affairs of this city.

Mrs. Harry Kyle is entertaining relatives this week.

The regular meeting of the Women's club was held on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Adams.

Mrs. Minnie Hollis is visiting her sister, Mrs. Tom Clark.

A Halloween masquerade and costume dance will be given by the Deer Island auxiliary on Nov. 2nd. Refreshments will be served in keeping with the occasion. Don't forget the date of the spooky dance. The famous Torry Jazz orchestra will furnish the music.
