LITERARY ITEMS.

Mrs. Lushington, the sister of Alfred Tennyson, once engaged to Arthur Hallam, but now the wife of the Greek Professor of Glasgow, is a remarkable singer, and renders her brother's songs, it is said, with fine expression.

Detroit papers make mention of Mr. J. Madison Bell, a colored poet, by trade a mason, whose poems "The Charge of the Black Brigade," and "A Claim for Suffrage," have "real excellence, such as is appreciated by cultivated and candid minds."

A letter-writer from Edinburgh reports the author of "Rab and his Friends," Dr. John Brown, as still manifesting the effects of a continued illness. "The Country Parson," Mr. A. H. K. Boyd, has removed to St. Andrews, where he has charge of the largest church in the North.

A BIT OF BIOGRAPHY.

A statement in a New-York paper, to the effect that "Fanny Fern" won her first literary success in the columns of a long defunct comic paper called The Carpet Bag, has called forth the following characteristic note:

SIR: Fanny Fern's first article was written for a one-horse religious magazine in Boston, called The Mother's Assistant, or some such name. The remuneration for that article was fifty cents, and the writer went up four pair of stairs five times to the office of the editor to get it, beside being put through this catechism:

Widow, eh? Sez you have on black? Children? How many? Girls or boys?

Yours respectfully, FANNY FERN.

INDISPENSABLE TO EVERY LAWYER AND MERCHANT!
JAMES'S BANKRUPT LAW.

HARPER & BROTHERS will Publish Immediately
THE NEW BANKRUPT LAW,
WITH NOTES TO EVERY SECTION OF THE ACT.
And a Collection of all the principal
AMERICAN AND ENGLISH DECISIONS UPON THE LAW OF BANKRUPTCY.
Adapted to the use of the Lawyer and Merchant
BY EDWIN JAMES,
Of the New-York Bar, and one of the Framers of the English Bankruptcy Amendment Act.
One Volume, 8vo.

This important work was prepared by Mr. James during the time the bankrupt bill in Congress on the subject was proceeding, the main provisions of the law having been carefully supervised by him. The novelty of the practice has left American lawyers without experience in Bankruptcy cases, and Mr. James has therefore endeavored to supply the practitioner with a treatise on the subject upon which he may confidentially rely. His experience as one of the Commissioners for the amendment of the English Bankruptcy Law, and as an extensive London practitioner in Bankruptcy cases, has peculiarly fitted him for the task.

The author has carefully collected all the principal American decisions upon the Bankrupt acts of 1800 and 1841 so far as they are applicable to the act. As the law adopts for the first time in this country the more important provisions of the English Bankruptcy system, the author has also collected all the cases decided in the English Courts—which must necessarily be consulted to support and illustrate the principles by which the construction of its provisions should be guided—to the most recent date.

The Author has also endeavored, by the adoption of a clear and mechanical style, to render the work a guide to the merchant and the layman.

From the American Law Register.

"Mr. James has had unusual opportunities to become familiar with the Law of Bankruptcy, having been a Member of Parliament at the time the English Bankrupt Act was passed, and having himself carried through important amendments to the bill. He was also for many years a successful practitioner in the English Bankruptcy Courts."

PROSPECTUS OF THE NEW ORLEANS REPUBLICAN.—We propose to establish in this City a Daily and Weekly Paper, to be called "THE NEW-ORLEANS REPUBLICAN," the first edition to be published on the 25th of March, 1867.

It will be devoted to the political, commercial, and industrial interests of Louisiana; in furtherance of which it will support the principles of the Republican party, and the policy of Reconstruction adopted by Congress.

In furnishing the latest intelligence, state of the markets, river views, &c., it will spare no endeavors to deserve public patronage; while its position as an official paper for this State, under an Act of Congress, approved March 2, 1867—publishing all the laws and treaties, and such advertisements as may be ordered by any United States Judge, or by any officer of United States Courts, or by any executive officer of the United States, within the State of Louisiana—will give it peculiar advantage as an advertising medium.

Intended not only as a political and business, but also a family newspaper the tone of its columns will be such as to commend it to the approbation of those who desire to see the daily press enlisted in the cause of morality and religion. It will likewise devote due attention to the interests, educational and otherwise, of that large and important class, the recently enfranchised citizens, making it a point to aid them in the proper understanding and exercise of their rights, their duties, and their responsibilities.

TERMS OF THE NEW-ORLEANS REPUBLICAN.
Daily.....$12 00 per annum, in advance.
Weekly.....4 00 per annum, in advance.
Liberal arrangements will be made for standing advertisements.
Address S. L. BROWN & CO., New-Orleans, Louisiana.

The undersigned, who have been in command of the Department of the Gulf, Headquarters at New-Orleans, in the years of 1862, 3 and 4, have investigated the enterprise of publishing a loyal paper in Louisiana, proposed to be set on foot by S. L. Brown & Co., and we do hereby certify that all the departments are true and loyal men, and that a majority in number and interest were known to us in New Orleans, while we were there, as true to the Union cause. We therefore cordially recommend "The New Orleans Republican" to the support of all loyal men.

Washington, March 6, 1866.
BENJ. F. BUTLER, M. C.
N. P. BANKS, M. C.

The undersigned concur in the foregoing recommendation:
B. F. WADE, President U. S. Senate; THADDEUS STEVENS, M. C.; S. SHELLABARGER, M. C.; SCHUYLER COLFAX, Speaker House of Representatives; JOHN A. LOGAN, M. C.; O. O. HOWARD, Major-General U. S. Army.
