REAL ESTATE.

NEW-YORK, Monday, Nov. 9, 1868.

No sales to-day at the Exchange. The Messrs. Johnson & Miller will sell at the Exchange Salesroom, at noon to-morrow (Tuesday), 200 lots in the Eighteenth Ward of Brooklyn. Forty of them are located on the Bushwick-ave. Boulevard, comprising the entire front of two blocks on the north and south sides between Hull, William and Furman-sts., in the immediate vicinity of Broadway and the proposed Ridgewood Park. The East New-York lots are situated on Broadway, Van Sindren, Snedkier, Williams, and Alabama-aves. This is to be peremptory, and it will afford a good opportunity to those desiring to invest in Brooklyn property. Messrs. Muller, Wilkins & Co. will dispose of some property on the north side of Seventy-first-st., near Central Park, at the Exchange, also, to-morrow.

It is proposed to connect the central avenue grand drive, at the southerly end of Westchester County, and the river drive on the New-York side of Harlem River, with an iron bridge, ornamental and useful. The owners of property are to ask the Legislature for the passage of a law empowering the Central Park Commissioners to lay out a section of Westchester County and connect it with their improvements on the New-York side.

The Messrs. A. P. Smith & Co. have sold to the Messrs. Scott & Shannon of this city 15,000 acres of coal and oil lands, situated on the line of the Covington and Ohio Railroad, for $20,000; also, a valuable plantation and gold mining estate in South-Western Georgia, to a gentleman of this city, for $20,000; also, 2,000 acres in Lura Valley, Virginia, to a practical wool-grower from Ohio, for $10,000.

Persons having real estate for sale or to let and those desirous of purchasing or renting such property, will find it to their interest to advertise in THE TRIBUNE. Its aggregate circulation exceeds that of any other newspaper, and in addition to this advantage THE TRIBUNE will be found, not only in New-York and all its cities and villages, but in every State and Territory within the Union. The advertisement should be made as brief as will allow of the advantage offered being clear to the reader. We would especially dwell on the fact that the subscribers for the three editions of THE TRIBUNE, Semi-Weekly, and Weekly, comprise individuals in every profession or business; consequently advertisements in each disseminate among all classes. THE TRIBUNE devotes especial attention to the reports of sales of real estate both in the city and country, thus adding greatly to the value of its columns as an advertising medium. The charges for advertising are as follows: DAILY TRIBUNE, 25 cents per line for each insertion; WEEKLY TRIBUNE, $2 per line; SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, 25 cents per line. About ten words average a line, after the first line, which usually contains only four or five words. Terms, cash in advance.
