J. BOOTH,

SURGEON DENTIST,

HAVING been so liberally patronized by the Ladies and Gentlemen of Columbus and its vicinity, for the three last years, begs leave still to offer them his professional services, and pledges himself to perform all operations in the line of his profession, in the most modern and approved style. In addition to ordinary operations, he will perform the following in the most scientific manner. 1st. Put in whole sets of teeth, mounted on gold, with spiral springs. 2d. Supply the roofs of mouths, where practicable, (if deficient either from malformation or accident) with gold. 3d. Cure inflamation in the Antrum, (check bone) &c. He feels confident from his long experience and former success, that he will give satisfaction to all who may favor him with a call. Room on the second floor of H. Hunt's brick building, where he may be found at all times, unless professionally engaged.

People's Line of Stages for Augusta.

NOTICE TO TRAVELLERS GOING NORTH.

THIS splendid line of four horse Post Coaches is in successful operation, and runs daily between Montgomery, Ala. and Augusta, Geo. Passengers can be assured of more comfort and expedition by their line than any other now running to Augusta. The company have spared neither pains nor money to procure the best Troy built Coaches, excellent and well trained Horses, experienced, sober and careful drivers.

To avoid impositions repeatedly practised on the travelling community by contractors at all times craving monopoly, passengers will be careful going North not to take their passage farther than Montgomery, on any other intersecting line, where they will at all times have a preference on the People's line for Augusta.

This line runs forty-five miles on the Augusta and Athens Rail Road; which will land passengers in Augusta, ahead of the Mail Line several hours. GEO. W. DENT.
Agent for the Company.

NEW YORK WEEKLY WHIG.

The constant calls at our office for a weekly paper has induced us to commence the "THE NEW YORK WEEKLY WHIG." We have incurred considerable expense in order to furnish our readers with a sheet sufficiently large to contain all the necessary matter expected in a weekly paper. We now present them with the LARGEST PAPER IN THE UNITED STATES.

ON POLITICS our course is already known; our articles will be comprehensive, moderate and candid, with enough firmness and decision to convince our adversaries that they cannot drive us from the field while there is a rag of the Whig banner for us to rally under.

SCIENTIFIC SKETCHES will also appear regularly.

We have made arrangements by which we will be enabled to present every week, excellent MEDICAL REPORTS. This department will be under the supervision of one of the most eminent, experienced and skilful surgeons of this city, and cannot fail to be exceedingly interesting. There is not a medical journal published in New York, and something of the kind has been much needed. We trust our medical department will in a great measure supply the want of so desirable a publication.

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC NEWS, we shall give as fully as possible, and we intend to copy largely from the French and English papers.

FOREIGN LITERATURE will meet with careful attention. Our resources in this department are inexhaustible. German and French Literature will be particularly noticed. This department is supplied by one of the first scholars of the country.

HISTORICAL SKETCHES will appear frequently, and care will be observed to have them correct.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTICES of prominent men, will form a portion of the reading matter of the Weekly Whig. It is our intention to furnish accurate wood cut likenesses of our native poets.

THE DRAMA we shall take under our especial keeping, and while we shall endeavor to do justice to the talented, we shall also closely criticise the wretched murders so constantly committed upon the stage.

READINGS FOR CHILDREN will be furnished, with a wood cut generally accompanying. Our object here will be to interest and amuse the rising generation.

THE MUSIC of the stage needs reformation and it will become our duty to point out, as far as possible, several improvements which are absolutely required by the rapidly increasing intelligence of the community.

TO THE LADIES we have a word to say;—we shall not forget their interests;—balls, parties and the fashions will claim our notice frequently, and receive such attention as will please. We are fully aware, that to render our paper agreeable, we must receive the patronage and encouragement of our fair friends. We shall endeavor to deserve it, by always furnishing something suitable to their tastes.

TALES of engrossing interest will always be found in the Weekly Whig.

REVIEWS of late publications, and notices of novels and romances, will be regularly given.

THE POETRY we publish will be carefully selected, and we have on hand already several beautiful pieces from known writers, which we shall soon insert.

GENERAL EDUCATION will form a prominent feauture in the Weekly Whig, and we shall constantly furnish matter of the first importance to parents and teachers.

EMBELLISHMENTS. We have several capital wood cuts, and others now with the engravers, one or more of which, may be regularly expected in each weekly number. They are mostly from original designs, and will add much to the value of the paper.

COMMERCIAL. We have a person employed, who for a long time has been engaged in procuring commercial intelligence; who is every way competent, and will devote the whole of his time to the New York Markets. Under our Commercial head will be found full reports of the Markets; Prices Current; Stock and Exchange; Bank Note Table, and all matters calculated to interest business men, who will all find it to their advantage to patronize us, as we intend in each weekly paper to insert the advertisements published in the Daily Whig during the week.

TERMS. Three dollars a year, in advance, and no paper will be furnished unless the terms are strictly complied with.

COMMUNICATIONS may be addressed to the Editors, and sent also (post paid) to the office of the Daily Whig

Persons sending $5, (post paid) will be entitled to two copies of the Weekly Whig for one year; or one copy for two years.

☞ Those Editors who publish this Prospectus of the New York Weekly Whig, and send us their paper, will receive an exchange for one year. ☜

SOUTH-WESTERN JOURNAL,

THE extensive and growing interest of the South-West, its moral and social improvement, and its increasing literary and scientific demands, have awakened attention to the fact that in this highly important portion of our country there is no journal or paper exclusively devoted to literature and sciende, advocating the doctrines of no party.

Feeling the necessity of such a paper, the Jefferson College and Washington Lyceum contemplate publishing a periodical to be entitled "THE SOUTH-WESTERN JOURNAL," to be devoted to literature and science, and all subjects interesting to the general reader.

It will be published semi-monthly, in the city of Natchez, and will contain sixteen small quarto pages, similar form to the "Penny Magazine," on fine paper, and protected by a good envelope so that it may be conveyed to any distance without injury. The pages of the envelope will be appropriated to advertisements and general notices.

The editorial department will be conducted by a gentleman long known in the community as an able and spirited editor, whose zeal in subjects of literature and science will render him an efficient director of such a publication.

It will be remembered that we have no work in the South-West similar to the one in contemplation; and every one who feels a pride in any enterprise calculated to enhance the social and moral character of our country should come forward and assist in carrying this worthy enterprise into operation.

Pecuniary emolument constitutes no part of the object of this publication. It is not intended to benefit any individual or the Lyceum in a pecuniary point of view. Their sole object is to advance knowledge and diffuse a taste for the refined enjoyments of Literature and Science.

Nothing is wanting to the accomplishment of the wishes of the Lyceum but the patronage of the community; and it is expected that this patronage will be promptly and cheerfully extended.

All communications in reference to the periodical should be addressed, post paid, to the Secretary of the Lyceum, Natchez, or Washington, Miss. The subscription price $5 00, in all cases in advance.

The first number of this paper will be issued in October.

PROSPECTUS
SOUTHERN LITERARY MESSENGER.

THOMAS J. WHITE, Editor and Proprietor.

THIS is a monthly Magazine, devoted chiefly to Literature, but occasionally finding room also for articles that fall within the scope of Science; and not professing an entire disdain of tasteful selections, though its matter has been, as will continue to be, in the main, original.

Party Politics and controversial Theology, as far as possible, are jealously excluded. They are sometimes so blended with discussions in literature or in moral science, otherwise unobjectionable, as to gain admittance for the sake of the more valuable matter to which they adhere: but whenever that happens, they are incidental, only; not primary. They are dross tolerated only because it cannot well be severed from the sterling ore wherewith it is incorporated.

Reviews and Critical Notices occupy their due space in the work; and it is the Editor's aim that they should have a threefold tendency—to convey, in a condensed form, such valuable truths or interesting incidents as are embodied in the works reviewed,—to direct the reader's attention to books that deserve to be read,—and to warn him against wasting time and money upon that large number, which merit only to be burned. In this age, of publications that by their variety and multitude distract and overwhelm every undiscriminating student, impartial criticism, governed by the views just mentioned, is one of the most inestimable and indispensable of auxiliaries, to him who does wish to discriminate,

Essays, and Tales, having in view utility or amusement, or both—Historical Sketches—and Reminiscences of events too minute for History, yet elucidating it and heightening its interests, may be regarded as forming the staple of the work. And of indigenous Poetry, enough is published—sometimes of no mean strain—to manifest and to cultivate the growing political taste and talents of our country.

The times appear, for several reasons, to demand such a work: and not one alone, but many. The public mind is feverish and irritated still, from recent political strifes: The soft assuasive influence of Literature is needed, to allay that fever and soothe that irritation, Vice and folly are rioting abroad: they should be driven by indignant rebuke, or lashed by ridicule into their fitting haunts. Ignorance lords it, over an immense proportion of our people. Every spring should be set in motion, to arouse the enlightened, and to increase their number; so that the great enemy of popular government may no longer brood, like a portentious cloud, over the destinies of our country. And to accomplish all these ends, what more powerful agent can be employed, than a periodical, on the plan of the Messenger; if that plan be but carried out in practice!

The South peculiarly requires such an agent. In all the Union, south of Washington, there are but two Literary periodicals! Northward of that city, there are probably at least twenty-five or thirty! Is this contrast justified by the wealth, the leisure, the native talent, or the actual literary taste, of the Southern people, compared with those of the Northern! No: for in wealth, talents and taste, we may justly claim at least an equality with our brethren; and a domestic institution exclusively our own, beyond all doubt, affords us, if we choose, twice the leisure for reading and writing, which they enjoy.

It was from a deep sense of this local want, that the word Southern was engrafted on the name of this periodical; and not with any design to nourish local prejudices, or to advocate supposed local interests. Far from any such thought, it is the Editor's fervent wish to see the North and South bound endearingly together forever, in the silken bands of mutual kindness and affection. Far from meditating hostility to the North, he has already drawn, and he hopes therefore to draw much of his choicest matter thence: and happy indeed will he deem himself, should his pages, by making each region know itself better, contribute in any essential degree to dispel the lowering clouds that now threaten the peace of both, and to brighten and strengthen the sacred ties of fraternal love.

The Southern Literary Messenger has now reached the 11th No. of the third volume. How far it has acted out the ideas here uttered, is not for the Editor to say. He believes, however, that it falls not further short of them, than human weakness usually makes Practice fall short of Theory.

CONDITIONS.

1. The Southern Literary Messenger is published in monthly numbers, of 64 large super-royal octavo pages each, on the best paper, and neatly covered, at 5 dollars a year, payable in advance.

2. Or five new subscribers by sending their names and 20 dollars at one time to the editor, will receive their copies for one year, for that sum, or at 4 dollars each.

3. The risk of loss of payments for subscriptions, which have been properly committed to the mail, or to the hands of a postmaster, is assumed by the editor.

4. If a subscription is not directed to be discontinued before the first number of the next volume has been published it will be taken as a continuance for another year. Subscriptions must commence with the beginning of the volume, and will not be taken for less than a year's publication.

5. The mutual obligations of the publisher and subscriber, for the year, are fully incurred as soon as the first number of the volume is issued; and after that time, no discontinuance of a subscription will be permitted. Nor will a subscription be discontinued for any earlier notice, while any thing thereon remains due, unless at the option of the editor.
