Mr. and Mrs. Foss Cox and family from Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Casey and daughter May of Olney were guests at the N. A. Anders home Christmas week.

Ronald Lewis had the misfortune to get his arm broken last Saturday night. Returning from the Goble dance the team got off the road upsetting the spring wagon and it was very fortunate that the results were not more serious.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. McConnell had a large house party Christmas week. Among the out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. Allison, Mrs. T. Davis, Harold and Lucile Davis and Mrs. McConnell, all from Sherwood, Ore.

Frank and Eldrid Murdock who have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. O. J. McConnell, returned home Monday. Frank has recently been mustered out of the navy, having enlisted in 1917 and serving in both the Atlantic and Pacific fleets. He had a rating of pharmacist's mate and is now studying medicine to make it his profession.

Miss Leathia Schane spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Daly.
Norman Fritchard has returned to Deer Island and resumed his work for the Deer Island Logging Co.

Mrs. A. Beatty, who has been visiting with relatives in the East returned to her home Christmas Eve.

There will be special meetings starting with the evening service Jan 4th, continuing throughout the week every night. There will be some outside help.
Another new truck will soon make its appearance on the lumber route. Fritz Robinsky evidently finding this method of more value than teaming.

Mrs. Sarah Miles of Oregon City, wife of F. A. Miles, an aunt of Geo. W. Grant died at her home Christmas night. Mrs. Miles was an old time resident of Scappoose.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Paisley and Bernice Paisley of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Merrick of Davenport, Ia. spent Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Van Cleave.

Miss Lorlei Blatchford of Salem was the guest of Miss Vera Price for the week end and on Saturday evening Mrs. Price entertained for Miss Blatchford by having all the young folks in for a good time.

The cantata rendered Christmas Eve in the church was the finest Christmas entertainment ever held in Scappoose and the little folks taking part deserve credit and praise. A amount to $23.50.

Several friends called Christmas night at the Nivlock home to bid Mr. and Mrs. James Nivlock farewell as they were leaving Friday morning for their home in Philadelphia, Pa., after spending three months here. Their opinion of the west and western people is very complimentary.

A party consisting of 8 young folks from Chapman went over to Burkenfeld and spent the Christmas season with Mrs. Clarke, their former school teacher. Mrs. Clarke had quite a house party and they were all enthusiastic over the good time she gave them.
Community Church, Geo. W. Mc-

Clare, Pastor. Sabbath School 10:15. Morning worship 11:15. Subject "Fellowship of Faith." Evening service 7:30. Subject "Definiton of Revival." Communion will be observed at the morning service.

Fred DeGraff came from Spokane to eat Christmas dinner with his mother. They were all entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Holaday and the following day had a dinner party at the home of Mrs. DeGraff. Fred DeGraff served as a soldier in the Phillipine war when just a mere boy and was in the tank service during the late war.

Several real estate transfers have taken place in the neighborhood recently. The R. Van Cleave place sold recently to Mr. Kilworth, a new comer to Scappoose. The consideration, we understand, being approximately $3000. The Lange place also changed hands, being taken over by Roy Van Cleave.

A very enjoyable program was given Tuesday, Dec. 22, by the pupils of the South Scappoose school under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Chas. Van Cleave. The school house was artistically decorated with Christmas greens, while the stage presented a very homelike atmosphere with its cheery fire glowing in a brick fire-place. Old Saint Nick was present with his customary good wishes and gifts for the children who had prepared a lovely tree for his coming. Each child who took part in the program deserves special mention, but lack of space forbids. Perhaps the most pleasing feature of the program was the singing of Christmas songs by the school which showed splendid preparation.

GOBLE

The Goble schools will start on Monday, January 5th.

R. E. Brown is building an addition to his home.

D. Link was in Portland Monday on a business mission.

The heavy fog which hung over the river and mainland Saturday and Sunday interfered to a considerable extent with river navigation. It also made travel by road very unpleasant.

Fred and Rudy Anliker have bought the timber on the R. Hartman place and will cut cord wood for shipment by rail.

After having been idle for some weeks, the Columbia Timber Company started up their camp on Tuesday giving employment to more than 100 men.

The rural mail route out of Goble may be resumed in the near future. John Patrick who recently returned home after service with the Marines, will take an examination on January 12th for the position and the many farmers along the line hope he will pass and soon take up the duties of the job.
Quite a party of relatives motored up from Marshland to visit with the F. A. Colvin family Dec. 26th. Jack Newart at the wheel of his new Premier described the roads between the two places as fine except on this end of the line. W. B. Colvin, who brought his Oakland through without mishap, gave the time between the two places as three hours, with quite a stop at Rainier.

WARREN

John Johnson and family, former residents of Warren, are living on the Skvin place for the winter.

Miss Hattie Grewell of Portland spent the Christmas holidays with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Grewell.

The Warren grange held its annual election of officers on Saturday evening. The result was as follows: A. J. Hollingsworth, Master; Leo J. Farr, Overseer; Arthur Olson, Steward; Miss Elizabeth Hyskell, Lecturer; Mrs. John Farr, Chaplain; C. M. Hyskell, Secretary, and P. H. Lund, Treasurer, the latter two being re-elected. The grange has just closed its most successful year in its history and has doubled its membership and now stands as the strongest grange in the State. The new hall which will be exclusively under the supervision of the grange is nearing completion and will be ready for opening within 30 days, giving the local organization its own house. The retiring officers are: A. L. Morris, Master; K. F. Larsen, Overseer, A. H. Tarbell, Lecturer, and F. A. Hoyt, Steward. The grange at its meeting on Saturday evening unanimously recommended and endorsed A. H. Tarbell for a member of the County Board to be appointed by the County Court at the meeting in January. The Yankton grange took similar action recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Riggs are

SCAPPOOSE WEDDING

A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Parrison Wednesday evening when Miss Ethel Westover became the bride of Orville Barrison, Jr. The house was decorated with holly and Christmas bells and the American flag hung as a foreground for the bridal party. Before the ceremony Miss Beth McKay played the Flower Song by Large. Just at seven the bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March.

Miss Westover was beautifully crowned in white Peorgette crepe and wore veil held in place by orange blossoms, her bouquet was of white carnations. Miss Gladys Garrison, maid of honor, wore pink Georgette and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was accompanied by his cousin, Mr. Roy Freeman. Miss Westover has resided in Scappoose for the past year and is a graduate of Corvallis high school. Mr. Garrison was a member of Company G, 361st Inf., of the Famous 91st Division and saw active service in France and Belgium, being in the battles of St. Mihiel, Meuse, Argonne, Lys Scheldt and Chateau Thierry.

After January 1 Mr. and Mrs. Orville Garrison will be at home to their many friends at St. Helens, Oregon. Only relatives and immediate friends were present at the ceremony, which was an impressive ring ceremony performed by the Rev. George V. McClure.
