ST. PAUL'S SCHOOL, RIVERDALE-ON-HUDSON, N. Y. Is a Boarding School in every respect of the highest grade. Thorough intellectual training, not only in the Classics, but equally in the Mathematics. Is aimed at by the Principal. Habits of prompt obedience and of order and system are cultivated by Military discipline. Above all, a sound, moral, and religious character is developed by bringing the pupils under the influence of the Church. Riverdale stands almost alone in its qualification as a site for a boys' boarding-school. It is not even a village—not a single store or shop of any kind is in the place. It consists exclusively of gentlemen's residences. In point of healthfulness it is unexceptionable. The school building was erected expressly to meet the wants of a first-class school. Able masters are employed in French, German, Drawing, Dancing, Fencing, Boxing, Piano, Violin, &c., without extra charge. Boats for boating, &c. School reopens September 4, 1879. Catalogues may be had on application to DR. JNO. B. HAYS, 22 East 49th-st., N. Y., or at Riverdale-on-Hudson.
