The Marine.

NOW AT THE TRANSMITTING HOUSE AT THE RAINY DARIANS.

If you'll patiently listen, my friends, for a while,
With a song a few moments I'll try to beguile;
No high-sounding phrases or long words you'll find,
But in good plain English I'll tell you my mind.
You may go on a journey, the wide world around,
From the Japanese Empire to Long Island sound,
But all to the board, we all to be sure,
You'll find nothing ahead of a Common Marine.

When first he enlists he gets everything new,
From the power of this cap to the sole of his shoe;
With a beautiful stock to thrust under his chin,—
Sure, he wears such fine clothes every day in a six.
When rigged out in full sail he's a sight to behold,
With his bottoms all shining like No. 1 gold;
When first you look at him your eyes you must screw,
Or you'll surely be dazzled by a Common Marine.

You should see him on Monday, dressed out in his best,
With a uniform coat bottoned over his breast,
Jacket cut of a "star box" tipped over his eyes—
You would swear, on your word, "twas a prince in disguise.
Now don't think for make-up is showing enough,
You have only to glance at his "government gruff"
And the much mistaken, while you're very green,
If you don't say he's gorgeous, the Common Marine.

He's a beautiful object, when out on a pass,
Strolling up to a bar with his hand on a glass,
With his cap jaunty hung on the back of his head,
While his legs, wide apart, like a sea-horse, are spread.
Your morning he marches in through the main gate,
And the sergeant informs him he's three minutes late.
In a hurry don't time your John may be seen
In a cell with expressly for a Common Marine.

Variety.

Lord Nelson sweeps out the court room of Iberia parish, Louisiana.

It is easier to live within an income than without one.

When a man is too tired to work he is glad to sit on a jury.

As twice eleven is twenty-two, how can twice ten be twenty too?

Modern statesmen—Men who promise more than they perform.

Proverbs are the texts from which sinners draw their line of conduct.

Every pound of cochineal contains 70,000 insects, killed to death.

The sentinel who didn't sleep on his watch had left it at the pawnbroker's.

A discharged Boston lady being helped to chicken said she "preferred the waist."

Indianapolis has a citizen called by the Journal "Billy Body, the belly billiardist."

A place of worship in Austin, Texas, is called "Honey Church." A bee-coming name.

With a good conductor, we should dismiss all fear, in the case, of being struck by lightning.

It is said that Andy Johnson has the constitution of a horse and the United States.

A popular doctor has been presented with a silver mounted skeleton by his admiring patients.

A convict in the Washington jail recently cracked a secondmy by breaking out—with the moss-ulse.

Marble top tables are unhealthy, according to the Herald of Health, but it does not mention their disease.

Miss Sterling, an American contralto, has become a great favorite in England. She has a sterling voice.

John Pulaskaskurkwinskinski was married to Julia Sliskamanawlanskinski at South Bend, Ind., the other day.

According to a French journal, there are still living in France and its colonies 21,000 men who fought under the first Napoleon.

There are said to be only three women in Milwaukee who can direct an envelope outright without drawing a line with a pin.

The other day a Buffalo man named Farthing married a young girl whose mother, although quite wealthy, wouldn't give her absent.

Water-proof bonnets are advertised in London. We do not imagine they are intended for a very long reign, with the Worcester Guests.

When a man reminds you that you owe him, just make a note of it. He will take more interest in the matter if you humor him in that way.

An Indianapolis father shut six times at a supposed burglar, and was astonished to hear the fellow ask, "Mister mister, haven't I wanter doing?"

St. Louis men will stand most anything, but when a stranger says that the ark didn't rest on the side of St. Louis, that calls for blood.—Chicago paper.

A Minnesota Dogberry has decided that stealing rails from a fence is not stealing all that; that a fence is a part of the realty, and real estate cannot be stolen.

All the axes and buck-saws found in the ruins of Pompeii are of light make, as if constructed for women's use. Those old ancients knew their little business.

A tired girl in Delaware got rid of the job of milking seven cows by setting the barn on fire. All she has to do now is to mend a few clothes for State Prison convicts.

An eminent foreign doctor asserts that the drinking of coffee invigorates and preserves the sight, and so prevents the use of spectacles. Chromatic is considered injurious.

Two handsome New Hampshire girls have the past winter thrashed 48 bushels of wheat with flails, set up with beaux every Sunday night, shot a hawk and spelled a school down.

Somebody who has heard of the proposition to have separate street cars for women, says that he sees no necessity for it, as he never had any objection to riding in the same car with a woman.

Distressed: Young Lady (who has missed "the meet"): "Do you know where the hounds are, Robert?" Old Keeper (compassionately): "They're just too late, Miss—the gentlemen be all gone."

Mr. Tilton has three or four hundred unanswered applications for locks of his hair. The fair solicitors are requested to exercise patience until he can get time to start a jute factory.—Brooklyn Argus.

Ben Butler was caricatured in the Mardi Gras effigies in Louisville. He was represented as supporting a colored maiden on one arm and with the other holding across his shoulder an immense silver spoon.

Up in Troy, says an exchange, a man recently entered one of the Holly Tree Inns, and before any one could stop him he ate six square meals. He said he was a hollow tree himself, and wanted to be filled up.

MEDICAL WONDER
THE GREAT CURE FOR ALL ACHES and Pains—Rheumatic, Nervous, or arising from Derangements of the Stomach, Liver or Blood.
As a Family Medicine,
To be kept constantly in the House, it is superior to any, as it is SAFE, RELIABLE and SURE.
IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE, and with the WONDER PILLS is almost a drug store.
GEO. C. McLEAN is the General Agent for these Islands.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
CHLORODYNE
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.
THE PUBLIC ARE CAUTIONED AGAINST the unfounded statements frequently made, "that the composition of CHLORODYNE is known to Chemists and the Medical profession." The fact is, Chlorodyne was discovered and invented by Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE (ex Army Medical Staff), and so named by him, and it has baffled all attempts at analysis by the first Chemists of the day. The method and secret of the preparation have never been published. It is obvious, therefore, that anything sold under the name, save Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE, is a spurious imitation.
CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne.
REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.
This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively, using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colics, Coughs, Asthma, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Whooping Cough, Cramp Hysteria, &c.
EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.
The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians, and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the ONLY remedy of any service in Cholera was CHLORODYNE.—See Lancet Dec. 31, 1864.
Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports (Dec., 1865) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE was administered, the patient recovered.
Extract from Medical Times, Jan 12, 1866.—"Chlorodyne is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practitioners. Of course it would not thus be singularly popular did it not supply a want and fill a place."
Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."
CAUTION.—None genuine without the words "Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE" on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
Sole Manufacturer, J. T. DAVENPORT,
33, Great Russell St., Bloomsbury, London.
Sold in Bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.

BISHOP SOULE'S
LINIMENT.
THE UNPARALLELED Success wherever used places it ahead of all other Liniments, or any other kind of Medicine ever used for the cure of Sciatica, Chronic or Inflammatory Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Kidney and Spinal Complaints, Lame Back, Sore Throat, Cramps, Toothache, Sprains and Burns.
Wherever Bishop Soule's Liniment is known, the People become its advocates. Its value is estimated by those who have used it at from $5 to $1,000 per bottle. The following are a few items which have come to us, and are of daily occurrence:
A man borrowed a part of a bottle of Bishop Soule's Liniment of his neighbor, for immediate use. A few days after, he bought three large bottles, returned a full bottle for the one borrowed, and told his neighbor that he would not be without Bishop Soule's Liniment in his house if it cost $250 per bottle. Another, who had suffered twelve years from a lame knee, was cured with Bishop Soule's Liniment, and said it was worth $1,000 per bottle. Another, who had suffered many years from lameness, so that he could not walk without crutches, writes that he is cured by using Bishop Soule's Liniment, and says that you cannot praise it too highly. Another, who had suffered from rheumatism four years, and could get no relief, said his friends, wherever he went, advised him to use Bishop Soule's Liniment. He had heard it so many times, that he had got out of patience with them, and would buy a bottle, and try it, but he knew it would not do him any good; and whenever any one ever recommended it to him again he would tell them he had used it, and it was no better than anything else. Well, he bought one bottle; soon after, two bottles more. He was completely cured of his rheumatism, and although he is not a dealer in medicine, he has bought of us and sold forty-six dozen bottles. Another man says: "I thank God, and Bishop Soule's Liniment, that after four years suffering from Sciatica, I am a well man again." Another, "Bishop Soule's Liniment has not only saved me from a great deal of suffering, but has also saved my life. You ought to proclaim it to the world, and let the people know that you have got something that WILL CURE PAIN." Proprietor—"But the people will not believe it." Cured once—"THE PEOPLE WILL BELIEVE IT—they can't help it; but it is your duty to tell them, whether they believe or not." Another says, "I had tried physicians and almost everything else and could get no relief; my case was pronounced incurable, but Bishop Soule's Liniment was recommended to me. I tried it, and it completely cured me. You ought to let everybody know what Bishop Soule's Liniment will do; it is the best thing in the world." Another, "I had a very severe attack of sciatica; was under my physician's care for a long time, without any benefit. I finally asked Dr.——, a prominent physician, if he could cure me. He said he thought he could. I told him I would put my time against his; if he cured me I would give him $500, if not cured, we were to quit even. He tried it, and finally gave me up as incurable. I then tried Bishop Soule's Liniment, and in six weeks was entirely cured. I want six bottles to give to my friends." Another "I had a very severe attack of sciatica; was under my physician's care for months; my leg had become almost useless. My physician finally told me he could not help me, and advised me to use Bishop Soule's Liniment, as he had heard of remarkable cures by it; I tried it; and am completely cured by it. My physician says it is a wonderful medicine." Another, "My wife had been confined to her bed for a long time, with spinal complaint. The physician could not help her. One evening a lady friend called to see my wife, and said, 'I have been just as you are; the doctor could not help me: I then used Bishop Soule's Liniment, and it completely cured me.' She advised me to try it. I bought three large bottles, used nothing else, and in six weeks my wife was as well as ever." Another, "I have suffered for years from a lame back; have worn plasters for a long time. Bishop Soule's Liniment was recommended to me; I used it, and my back is as strong as ever." Another, "I have been a great sufferer from neuralgia. Bishop Soule's Liniment was recommended to me; I used it and it cured me. While I am writing this, letters have come in from New York State and from Maine, speaking in the highest terms of Bishop Soule's Liniment."
The foregoing are daily occurrences, and are in the words as spoken or written to us. Did space allow, we might go on without limit, but will only add:—
