

THE OREGON MIST

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00 PER YEAR

ST. HELENS, APRIL 1, 1892.

ELECTION OF SENATORS.

The United States senate shows a ready willingness to act in favor of providing for the election of senators by the direct vote of the people.

"That the senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, who shall be chosen by a direct vote of the people of the several states for six years; and the electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislature, and each senator shall have one vote. If vacancies happen, by resignation or otherwise, the executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next general election in such state for membership of the house of representatives in congress, when such vacancies shall be filled by a direct vote of the people, as aforesaid."

After the amendment has been proposed by congress by a two-thirds vote, it must be ratified by the legislature of three-fourths of the states. This will necessarily take some time, but as there is already a strong public sentiment in favor of the amendment, it may be an accomplished fact within a year.

The republican state convention meets in Portland next Wednesday, April 8th, at which time and place a candidate for supreme judge and all the district judges and district attorneys will be nominated. Judge Moore seems to have a majority of the people of Eastern Oregon and a great many of the counties in the Western district supporting him for the supreme judgeship.

The republican county convention for Clatsop county, met in Astoria last Saturday and elected delegates to the State convention. A resolution was adopted instructing the delegates to the state convention to use their utmost endeavor to secure the nomination of Hon. T. A. McBride for judge of the Fifth Judicial District.

Hon. J. B. HUNTINGTON, register of the land office at Burns, Harney county, was in St. Helens Wednesday on business connected with Indian depositions claims. Mr. Huntington has many old acquaintances in Columbia and adjacent counties. Speaking of politics, he said that for the supreme judgeship Hon. F. A. Moore was almost unanimously endorsed by the Eastern Oregon people, and that among the many congressional aspirants from his section W. B. Ellis, of Pendleton, seemed to be in the lead.

Judge BENNETT, of The Dalles, who will be remembered by our readers as the first circuit judge of this the fifth judicial district, is talked of by the democrats for congress. During his short term as judge of this district Judge Bennett made many warm friends by his impartial rulings on the bench, and would make a good showing at the polls on election day should he be nominated for congress from the second district.

It is said that Judge F. A. Moore, of Columbia county, would accept the republican nomination for the supreme bench if tendered him. There is no better qualified man in the state available for the position, nor one more deserving of the honor it would confer. We believe he would be elected by a large majority.—Salem Statesman.

For taking a human life, one year in the penitentiary; for stealing two salmon, three years in the penitentiary; for an editor giving his opinion of a man, one year in the county jail.—Judge Taylor.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 26, 1892.

The president's back bone is made of true blue American material. When he received Lord Salisbury's evasive answer to his plain request for information as to what Great Britain proposed to do in regard to the preservation of the sealing industry in Behring sea, he sent what is in effect an ultimatum to the British government.

The big silver fight is over, for the first time since the anti-free coinage man made the best showing in the oratorical line, but when it came to voting they were not "in it" with the free coinage. It is now said that Speaker Crisp made pledges, as to the makeup of the coinage committee and the committee on rules as well as to his own action in the chair, while the democratic caucus for the nomination of speaker was in session, the last of which he has filled to the letter, this week.

Representative Dingley, of Maine, believes that the subletting of contracts for carrying the mails is an evil of large proportions and he proposes that congress shall declare it illegal, and back up his proposition with a numerously signed petition asking that it be done.

Even the democrats on the house judiciary committee refused to endorse the amendment which Representative Enos introduced a short time ago for the sole purpose of trying to get some evidence from employees of the pension bureau against General Raum. The bill proposed to be for the protection of such government employees as might testify before congressional committees concerning abuses in the public service, but its real object was to encourage sneaks to vent their private spite against officials over them, either by "putting up jobs" or by outright perjury. The bill is dead.

Speaker Crisp considers the term "mugwump" unparliamentary and so ruled during the silver debate, when Representative Taylor, of Illinois, was called to order for referring to the Massachusetts democratic members as mugwumps.

The first amendment reported from the committee on Indian affairs to the Indian appropriation bill, which is now being considered by the senate, provides for the striking out of the section of the bill directing the president to detail army officers to act as Indian agents whenever vacancies occur. This amendment will probably cause a lively little fight in the senate, with the chances against it being adopted.

Senator Gorman stirred up a regular hornet's nest by the publication in the New York Sun (which it is said, will at the proper time support Gorman for the democratic nomination) of an interview, and he has been kept busy all the week explaining and denying references made therein to other democrats.

The senate this week passed an independent bill appropriating $18,750,000 for the improvement of the Mississippi river, in accordance with the plans of the Mississippi river commission, not more than $3,750,000 to be expended in a single year. Only five senators voted against the bill, Call, Kyle, Perkins, Pugh and Vance. This bill has no connection with the river and harbor bill, which has been completed by the house committee, and which carries nearly $21,000,000 of appropriations.

If there be any truth in rumors, Senator Hill has not profited by getting knocked down by the house election committee which, in spite of his orders to the contrary, reported in favor of giving the seat now held by Rockwell, New York, to Col. Noyes, the republican contestant, and he will make the Tammany members fight the report of the committee on the floor of the house. If he does he will regret it the longest day he lives, as the Cleveland democrats would ask nothing better than such an opportunity to show up the methods of Hill.

E. H. Derby has moved back with his boarding camp awaiting the Northern Pacific railroad company's steam shovel, which is expected any day. The supervisor has had C. H. Spencer build a bridge across Sprague creek, which was much needed. The bridge was 71 feet as to be above all high water; the bridge is 120 feet long, and was built at the cost of $22.

Messrs. Bevis, Nicholas & Splawn intend to move their mill to Kalama, Wash., in a few days.

George Blacklee started with his family for New York last Tuesday.

Mrs. Susan Merrill passed her 62nd birthday on the 26th, inst. Major E. G. Adams, in an issue of the Columbian, March 24th, 1892, said: "We were driven Monday to attend the birthday party of Mrs. Susan Merrill at St. Helens. It was a splendid affair. The lady is a connecting link between the revolutionary mothers and the best women of later times. She was born March 24th, 1830, and is 62 years old."

years old. She was born in Virginia where so many noble women, patrons of Mary, mother of Washington, was born, etc. The good old lady is now blind and has been for the last two years or so, otherwise she is in excellent health and able to be up every day.

It is rumored that a company is to start a new logging camp soon.

Miss Donna Davey has gone to Deer Island.

The farmers have their plowing mostly done and are now waiting for the "cold naps."

Will Graham and George Sutherland took "beat" over the mountains Sunday, but only killed time and wasted ammunition.

S. M. and C. M. Graham are repairing their boat and getting ready for the fishing season.

James Wallace is busy sowing timothy seed on his farm.

Louis Jarvy and Silvio Graham have taken the contract of building S. M. Graham's hay.

A. S. Graham visited Astoria last week. A people's party meeting was held at the school house Saturday evening.

An entertainment will be given at the school house next Saturday evening.
