
The modern Inquisition without the rack. Examining an Austrian prisoner at one of the French division headquarters.
Exclusive photograph, taken by official French army photographers. Published by special arrangement with the Minister of War.