THE LAST DAY.

A Nice Little Story With a Nice Little Moral.

The editor of the Grass Valley Herald has tired of appealing by mournful editorials to his delinquent subscribers. He is on a new tack now. Here is his latest:

It was the evening of the last day of the world. The heavens had been rolled together like a scroll, the seals had been opened, the last trump had been heard. The righteous people of the earth had been gathered to the fold and the unrighteous had been sent down into the bottomless pit, divided into day shifts and night shifts, and set to work digging sulphur for the old serpent, who was chained for a thousand years. There was darkness upon the earth: the sun, covered with sackcloth and ashes, had sunk from sight, and the moon, a blood-red ball, was hanging low above the horizon. There was an awful silence. The earth had been turning slower and slower upon its axis, and there was reason to expect that it would soon stop altogether.

Alone in that vast solitude, with his haggard features dimly lighted by the crimson rays of the blood-red moon, with frozen tears upon his cheeks, and a wild, hungry look in his eyes, sat one man upon a stone. The last man. The only man on all the deserted earth, waiting for the final throe when the world would become a defunct body, a dead sphere.

Suddenly there was a soft whirring of wings, and an angel sped down through the vast space of the infinite realm, and alighted by the side of the forsaken man.

"Why are you here?" asked the angel.

"Why did you not follow the procession when it left for the pearly gates of heaven?"

"Alas!" said the man.

"Why," said the angel, "did you linger here? Was it because you loved the earth?"

"No," said the man.

"Was it," continued the spirit, "because you were ashamed, or proud, or undeserving?"

"No, no!" cried the unfortunate man.

"Then," said the angel, "what was it?"

"Alas!" groaned the man. "I'm a country editor, and I was starved to death by my delinquent subscribers. I could not follow the procession. I was too weak. I—"

But the angel stopped him. Tenderly he took the editor up under his arm, and swiftly he floated through the space, up and up, until he reached the pearly gates. A whispered word to St. Peter and the gates flew open. There was a burst of celestial melody, and a ray of celestial light shot forth and shone forever through the awful voids of space. At the same time there came up from the bottomless pit a wail of most horrible agony. The old serpent was flogging the delinquent subscribers with his tail.

Police Court.

FRIDAY, Nov. 21.

Two drunks had to pay the usual amount.

On the civil side Police Justice Foster gave a decision in the case where W. S. Wond had been sued under the new garnishee law. The defendant Wond argued that the law does not apply to debts contracted before the passage of this law, and that the Chief Justice signs his draft for salary, not the Minister of Finance. The Court decided against Wond, and an appeal was noted to the Supreme Court.

Personal.

The appointment of Mr. Walter Hill to be a member of the Board of Education, announced in our "By Authority" column, is one that will meet with the approval of the entire community. That gentleman has done a great deal for the cause of education during his sojourn in this country. The Reformatory School was never in a more satisfactory condition than when he was presiding over it as principal, his influence being something remarkable among the boys. We heartily congratulate our friend on this recognition of his services by His Majesty the King.

An Accident.

Mrs. N. P. Jacobson was driving out of her yard on Beretania street on Wednesday noon, when the horse became frightened at the gate and ran away. The carriage was turned over, and Mrs. Jacobson thrown out, but beyond several cuts on the forehead she was not otherwise hurt. Dr. Wood was quickly on the spot, and attended to the injured lady. The horse when the carriage was turned over, got free and ran along Beretania street towards town, but was soon stopped.

A Monument to Tavernier.

The Zealandia will bring on Saturday from the Bohemian Club of San Francisco, a granite column, similar in design to the Cleopatra Needle, for a monument for the tomb of Jules Tavernier, the artist, who is buried in the Nuuanu cemetery. It is about four feet square and ten feet in length, and bears the following inscription, "In memory of Jules Tavernier, Artist, by the members of the Bohemian Club."

FAREWELL DINNER.

Admiral Brown and Capt. Remey of the Charleston Entertained at the Hotel.

On Friday evening the Hons. W. H. Cornwell and Samuel Parker gave a dinner at the Hawaiian Hotel in honor of Rear Admiral George Brown and Capt. George C. Remey of the Flagship Charleston, which vessel shortly leaves for San Francisco.

The dinner was held in the private dining room. The table was chiefly decorated in golden tones, radiating from the surah scarf of yellow silk which stretched across the center to the delicate tints of choice flowers scattered artistically about the table. At either end stood a piano lamp, which when lighted made a very pretty effect. The menu was a dainty one, served in excellent style under the management of Steward P. M. Lucas. The Hawaiian Quintette Club was present on the veranda and rendered vocal and instrumental selections during the dinner.

Those present were: Rear Admiral Geo. Brown, Capt. Geo. C. Remey, Hon. John O. Dominis, His Ex. Hon. Godfrey Brown, Minister of Finance, Lieut. W. L. Field, Lieut. N. J. K. Patch and Lieut. Geo. L. Dyer, of the Flagship Charleston; Honorables William G. Irwin, Paul Neumann, Cecil Brown, Samuel Parker and W. H. Cornwell, Col. the Hon. G. W. Macfarlane, H. M.'s Chamberlain, Messrs. Paul R. Isenberg and H. Focke.

SHOOTING AT WAILUKU.

The Union Gun Club Holds Its First Public Meeting.

On Saturday, November 15th, the first public shooting match of the Union Gun Club of Wailuku was held at their range at Kahului, and was well attended. Three prizes were shot for, each one to be won three times before the winners can be distanced.

It was a delightful day, with a light breeze from the north east, consequently the firing was with the wind, and very good, considering it was their first attempt. The range is a good one, and the house, 30x16 feet, is very convenient and comfortable, and will accommodate over one hundred people. It is expected that the Union Club will make a match with the Makawao club shortly for the championship of Maui. The distance on this occasion was 200 yards, and each man fired 10 rounds. Decoration and Presentation.

His Majesty entertained Hon. E. Muller, Consul for Austria-Hungary, at luncheon Thursday, and then decorated him with the order of Knight Companion of the Royal Order of Kalakaua.

THANKSGIVING.

The following is the customary Thanksgiving proclamation by the President of the United States:

Proclamation—By the grace and favor of Almighty God the people of this nation have been led to the closing days of the passing year, which have been full of the blessings of peace and the comforts of plenty. Bountiful compensation has come to us for the work of our minds and our hands in every department of human industry.

Now, therefore, I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States of America, do hereby appoint Thursday, the 27th day of November, to be observed as a day of prayer and thanksgiving, and I do invite the people, upon that day, to cease from their labors, to meet in in their accustomed places of worship, and to join in rendering gratitude and praise to our beneficent Creator for the rich blessings he has granted us as a nation, and invoking a continuance of his protection and grace for the future I commend to my fellow-citizens the privilege of remembering the poor, the homeless and the sorrowful. Let us endeavor to merit the promised recompense of charity and the gracious acceptance of our praise. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eigth hundred and ninety, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and fifteenth.

[Seal] BENJAMIN HARRISON.

By the President:

JAMES G. BLAINE.
Secretary of State.

Personal Mention.

Mr. Rudolph Neumann, a nephew of Hon. Paul Neumann, arrived on the Zealandia on a pleasure trip. He is connected with the Alaska Commercial Company.

Mr. H. A. Parmelee of the firm of Hollister & Co. returned on the Zealandia from his business and pleasure trip to the Coast. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. L. M. Parmelee, who comes on an extended visit.

Mr. A. S. Hartwell arrived on the mail steamer direct from Boston, looking very well.

Mrs. M. Hirshberg, mother of Mrs. N. S. Sach's, and Miss D. Hirshberg were passengers on the Zealandia, and will remain in the islands several weeks visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Wilder look none the worse for their three months' visit on the Coast.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

UNITED STATES LEGATION,
HONOLULU, Nov. 24, 1890.

RECOGNIZING THAT THE PRINciples of Christianity are essential to the true life of civilized men, President Harrison has appointed THURSDAY, November 27th, to be observed as a day of prayer and thanksgiving, and invites the people of the United States on that day to join in rendering gratitude to our beneficent Creator for the blessings he has granted to the American Nation. I am requested to give notice to American citizens in Honolulu, and all others who sympathize with the American people in observing a revered religious custom, that there will be services at the Central Union Church and at St. Andrew's Cathedral, at 11 A. M. on the 27th, and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to participate.

JOHN L. STEVENS,
U. S. Minister Plenipotentiary.

If you want "THE TOWER YOU DO NOT HAVE TO CLIMB AND THE WIND-MILL THAT RUNS WHEN ALL OTHERS STAND STILL—THE EVER LASTING STEEL AERMOTOR—give us a call or drop a postal card and we will send copiously illustrated printed matter showing every phase of wind-mill work and construction, including the geared outfit on barn, which does the work of four horses for the price of one.

As an Anti-Wind Catcher, compare this Tilting Tower and its Aermotor with an ordinary Windmill and you will find that it presents but a tithe of the wind surface to the grasp of the storm that the other does.

It is an Age of Steel. The AERMOTOR is a Steel Wheel. It has cold rolled Steel Sails Steel Bands, Steel Arms and a Malleable Iron Hub. Even the Bolts are cold pressed and of superior quality. We are sending out the 8-ft. Aermotor, guaranteeing it to do more work than any 10-ft. wooden wheel made, and the 12-ft. pumping and geared Aermotors guaranteeing them to do more work than any 13-ft. wooden wheel made, leaving the purchaser to be judge, and have never had occasion to regret having made this seemingly extravagant guarantee.

We are the only makers of a Tilting Tower that never has to be climbed. Our Tilting Tower brings the wheel down for oiling. A child can lower it. It saves human lives and doubles the life of the wheel.

For Irrigation, 8 Compared with 12.

The 8-ft. Aermotor you sent me last year has given good satisfaction and has done more than you claimed it would do. I attached a 5-in. lift pump to it and can tell you it surprised every one to see so small a rod run so large a pump with so long a stroke (8-in.), and do it so easy. Several gentlemen from Stockton came to look at my mill. They had seen one there pumping from a tub and they did not think it was strong enough to pump from a deep well, but when they saw mine in a 60-ft. well they were convinced of its power and very much pleased with it. My Aermotor would supply 1,000 head of cattle with water, but I do not use it for stock, but for irrigation. One day I noticed a 12-ft. * * * wheel, 4-inch stroke, standing still for 3 hours when my 8-ft. wheel with 5-in. lift pump, 8-inch stroke, was pumping nicely.
HICKSVILLE, Cal., Feb. 24, '90. LOUIS HERBERT.

8 Greater than 14.

The 8-ft. Aermotor is taking water out of a 116-ft. well, using 3-in. cylinder and 1½-in. pipe. It works like a charm. The 12-ft. Aermotors are taking water, one from a 220-ft. the other from a 195-ft. well and work finely; will run in a light breeze and pump water when a 14-ft. * * * stands idle. A. C. MASSEY.
SAN MIGUEL, CAL.

Same Work, Same Wells, 8 Equals 12.

I am entirely satisfied with the 8-ft. Aermotor, as it is doing the same work the 12-ft. * * * is doing and both with same advantages and same depth of wells.
ONEONTA, Cal., Nov. 5, 1889. H. H. HAMMOND.

Regulates Well.

I pump water for about 120 head of cattle with an 8-ft. wheel. It runs lighter than any mill I ever saw, regulates well and gives no jerk to the pump.
DAVIS, Cal., Feb. 13, 1890. S. G. LITTLE.

Less Wind, More Water.

With the Aermotor there is absolutely no jerking of the pump. It runs with much less wind than 10-ft. wheels of other makes, and hence will pump more water.
YOLO, Cal., Feb. 13, 1890. JAS. T. HADDEN.

Supplies House and Garden.

My Aermotor supplies water for the house and garden. It regulates itself right, runs with wind than any mill I have seen, and does smoothly and satisfactorily. [illegible]

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF the Hawaiian Islands.—In the matter of JACOB COERPER and RICHARD STRAUCH, Copartners, by whom a petition for adjudication was filed on the 24th day of November, 1890, in said Court. In Bankruptcy. Before Mr. Justice McCULLY.

The 24th day of November, 1890.

Upon reading the said petition, and upon proof before me taken, I do find that the said Jacob Coerper and Richard Strauch, Copartners, have become bankrupts within the true intent and meaning of the Act, approved on the 29th day of August, 1884, entitled "An Act to Regulate Proceedings in Bankruptcy in the Hawaiian Islands."

And I do hereby declare and adjudge them Bankrupts accordingly.

And I do further order that the Creditors of the said Bankrupts come in and prove their debts before such Justice of the Supreme Court as shall be sitting at Chambers, at Aliiolani Hale, Honolulu, ON THURSDAY, the 4th day of December, 1890, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and noon of the said day, and elect one or more Assignee or Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate.
