CUBAN POLITICS ARE UNSETTLED

Mass Meeting to Be Held to Proclaim Principles of Independence.

Havana, Jan. 31.—Four thousand persons, men in their best clothing and women gaily dressed, stood amid a pouring rain in Paula squares today listening to six intensely patriotic eulogies of Jose Marti, the Cuban patriot and first president of the Cuban revolutionary government. A tablet to his memory was unveiled at the house where he was born in a street near by, and 82 societies, consisting of 2,500 persons, with banners, flags and five bands, marched through the principal thoroughfares to the square.

The procession, whose distinguishing feature was 500 girls wearing white dresses and red liberty caps, started at 1 o'clock, reaching the square two hours later. The streets were gaily decorated with Cuban and American flags, and though the interest ran high, there was no disorder of any kind.

Marti's widow, mother and son, led the parade, with the first Cuban flag used by the patriot, which was loudly cheered.

This promise to be a lively week in Cuban politics. The special commission from the Cuban military assembly will return to Havana, after its interviews with the Washington government, and popular interest is increasing in the preparations for the mass meeting February 6 at the Tacoo theater, where a separatist party, proclaiming the principle of independence, will be founded, under the direction of such men as Senor Giberger, a noted autonomist; General Leyte Vidal, General Lacret, Senor Fontasterling and other opponents of annexation.

More Dreyfus Agitation.

Paris, Jan. 31.—The government's decision to submit to the chamber of deputies tomorrow a bill providing that the cases of trial revision shall be brought before the united sections of the court of cassation has reopened the floodgates of the Dreyfus agitation. Paul Jones' Pilot Found.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 31.—The body found near Fort St. Philip was today identified as that of Captain Sturtevant, the pilot of the launch Paul Jones. Under the regulations, the court, having reached the conclusion that the accused was guilty, had no choice in selecting a penalty, the regulations prescribing absolutely that one punished—diminished—for the offense. Therefore, the only hope for General Egan is in the direction of commutation, mitigation or disapproval by the president.

Payment of the Cuban Army.

Havana, Jan. 31.—Senor Frederico Mora, the civil governor of Havana, in an interview declared that the question of the payment of the Cuban army was of much greater importance than the Washington government seems to realize. He said of the Cubans were to collect the customs of the islands, which are their property, their first action would be to meet Cuba's sacred obligation to the army by payment in full to the soldiers. The customs administration being in the hands of the Americans, the Cubans make a simple business proposition to the United States government that it shall advance money to pay the troops, holding the customs as security.
