FORTY MINUTES FROM YOUR OFFICE IN WALL STREET, TO YOUR HOME IN ELIZABETH, N. J.

Forty minutes from Wall street will land you in Elizabeth, by first-class, commodious boats and pleasant, well-ventilated cars, and through a section of country in full view of the bay of New York, States Island, and Newark Bay. This is one of the most picturesque routes from the city; and getting home, a sweety journey by many of the routes, is by the Central Railroad of New Jersey, a daily pleasure trip. Or, you may travel by the New Jersey Railroad, through Newark. Commuters by this road can take the Company's boats either at Cortlandt street or Desbrosses street; the latter route being a great convenience to those engaged in business near or above Canal street.

Elizabeth property has not felt the influence of speculation. Lots are now for sale here at less than one half the prices current for lots in Harlem, and for as many hundreds as lots would cost thousands in Brooklyn; and yet as a place of residence there is no comparison between those places and Elizabeth. Houses can be procured in Elizabeth at fair prices, and, too, with a certainty of enhancement of value. Attention is called particularly to the following property, offered directly by the owners:

1. By Amos Clark, Jr., some fine houses on Main st., and offices in Arcade Building.

Property on Quality Hill, by Mr. De Cass and others.

By S. J. Ahern, on Jefferson Park, genteel houses for city families; price, $1,800 to $5,000; terms easy. See plans, &c., at Mr. AHERN'S office, 58 Wall st., New York.

A GROWING SUBURB, only 40 minutes from foot of Chambers (or Twenty-third st.), is RUTHERFORD PARK, N. J., first station on Erie Railway. Eleven trains daily each way. Commutation fare only 7 cents. Choice building plots close to the station offered by the MOUNT RUTHERFORD COMPANY at private sale only. Apply to BLAUVELT & OGILBY, 157 Broadway, or E. H. BARROWS, Superintendent Rutherford Park, N. J.
