$5 SAVED.

A good, substantial, thoroughly well-made heavy overcoat is now being sold by HIRSHKIND & CO. for SEVEN DOLLARS, which cannot be bought elsewhere for less than $12. Hence to the buyer expecting to pay $12 it is $5 saved. In the construction of this coat every attention has been paid to detail, leaving nothing to be desired as to Cut, Finish, or Durability of Fabric, and in all respects it is A GARMENT OF UNUSUAL MERIT. It is well known that HIRSHKIND & CO. are not given to boasting, but prefer to leave that kind of self-laudation to up-town shoddy clothing houses. In this instance, however, they confess to some degree of pride, knowing that in the production of their SEVEN-DOLLAR heavy overcoat they have excelled all former efforts to reach the LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICE attainable in the sale of GOOD CLOTHING; and this last enterprise is in keeping with their vast general business, including original designs, pleasing styles, and varied patterns never before seen, all of which are RETAILED by them at WHOLESALE PRICES, thus saving their customers, in every instance, at least 25 PER CENT. The immediate attention of buyers is called to the SEVEN-DOLLAR overcoat, as every specialty, however large the supply, is soon exhausted in the rapid sales at
