Florida's 70-Foot Bamboo

Possibly the tallest bamboo in America grows in Arcadia, Fla., and is about 70 feet high. The clump has a spread of 50 feet and the diameter at the ground is 12 feet. The specimen is only 8 years old.

This is the common bamboo of India, probably brought to south Florida from the West Indies. In Jamaica it has become naturalized and is popularly supposed to be indigenous. It makes an astonishing growth during our rainy season, the canes often attaining their full height in six weeks after which they begin to put on leaves. The canes are from four to five inches in diameter at their base. Unfortunately this species cannot stand low temperatures, and the specimen in Arcadia has frequently been damaged by cold.

A Good Business.

I'd like to own a street car line, it ought to pay.
The people ride when it is fine, to heat alley.
Of course they ride when it is wet, for then they wish
To quickly under shelter get;
Man is no fish.

And so a street car line, you see,
No matter what conditions be
With human kind,
Then to another point is my
Attention drawn:
No other business profits by
Its hangers on.

SHIP SUBSIDY URGED

President Tells Southern States They Should Work for It.
ROOSEVELT'S POLICY IS UPHELD

Taft Also Wants Federal Health Bureau, to Look After Sanitary Conditions of Nation.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 9.—President Taft yesterday played at golf with his host in Augusta, Major Joseph B. Cumming, defeating him 2 up and 4 to go, opened the Georgia Southern Interstate Fair; rode through the streets of Augusta amid the cheers of his "fellow citizens" and left the city at 3 P. M. for Florence, S. C.

A call upon the president at the golf links on his invitation by Ty Cobb, the baseball player, the extreme cordiality of the reception of the president in his "winter capital" and the good fellowship extended to his entourage were the features of the day.

In his address at the fairgrounds the president touched upon a number of matters of national importance. The keynote of his address was national sanitation, that a national board of health should accomplish for the nation what the nation had accomplished for others in Cuba and Panama.

The president also talked ship subsidy and suggested that the plan merited the support of the South—especially of cotton manufacturing states like Georgia and South Carolina. Mr. Taft's speech in part follows:

"It seems to me that the most important subject and the most important collection of subjects is that which relates to the conservation of our natural resources. Unless we can secure uniform state operation, uniform state legislation with reference to the preservation of our forests and the equalization of the water, which falls from the clouds, and the preservation of our soil from being washed out to sea, we shall not be able to carry out the program set for us by Theodore Roosevelt, which to every thoughtful man must commend itself as of the highest importance to the safety and preservation of our nation."

Regarding national sanitation the president said:

"We now have various bureaus in Washington which have functions connected with the suppression of diseases and the study of the different diseases, but they are scattered and they need to be united in one bureau which shall direct its attention to the study of questions of health under all conditions prevailing in this country, so that by the circulation of the knowledge obtained it may enable the people to live hygienic lives."

"Now it is true that the health of the citizens is directly committed to the state, but it is also true that the question of agriculture is committed by the constitution to the state. Nevertheless the agricultural department has found much that it can do to assist the agriculture of the country."

"I expect to recommend to Congress that there be a union of all the experimental departments of the government for the discovery of lines of health and study of disease."

TRAINMEN DEMAND INCREASE

All Lines on Atlantic Side of Chicago to Be Involved.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Demands for uniform schedules and a wage increase of about 12 per cent are to be made by conductors and trainmen on every railroad system east of Chicago. The movement involves 125,000 men, and includes every railroad east of the Illinois Central's main southern line and south of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad. It is said to be the most stupendous wage movement ever made by the railroad brotherhood, and has been under consideration two years. There are hints tonight that all western railroads will be drawn into the struggle.

Incident to the eastern demands, the switchmen and yardmen in Chicago, who are controlled by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, are asking a wage advance of 10 cents an hour.

Eighteen of the large trunk lines with terminals in this city were served with notice November 2. Under existing contracts 30 days' notice must be given by either side of a contemplated change in wages or working conditions.

Eight Perish in Flames.

New York, Nov. 9.—Iron-bound windows prevented the escape from death of eight workers in Robert Morrison & Sons' comb factory in Brooklyn, which caught fire today, and five other men probably were fatally injured in making their escape from the structure.

William G. Morrison, son of the owner of the plant, lost his life in the flames while trying to reach the safe and close its doors. His father was among the injured. Forty employees were in the factory when the fire started. Many jumped from the third floor windows and were injured.

Mythical Mountain Beached.

The Hogue, Nov. 9.—The famous "Snow Mountain" in New Guinea, which was considered a myth by many scientists, though it has attracted the attention of explorers for several years, has been reached by the third expedition organized for that purpose by the Dutch government. The peak was attained after the expedition had sailed up the Digabel River near the western frontier of the British part of the island. The mountain was formally christened Prince Juliana. Its height was found to be 15,999 feet.

Hopgrowers Grow Rich.

Wheatland, Cal., Nov. 9.—Owing to the recent rise in the price of hops, the E. C. Horst Company has commenced planting of a new field. Poles to support the trellis all over the field are now being set. The recent rise in price meant $1,000,000 additional profit for the growers of hops in this district, and one firm, the Dursts, made one-half this amount. They own the largest hopyards in the world. Many carloads of this year's crop are now being shipped from this point.

Gold Strike in California.

Nevada City, Cal., Nov. 9.—Word was received here today that a rich strike had been made in the Omega mine at Forest, near here. Several pounds of nuggets have been taken from the gravel, one of which weighed 10 1/2 ounces.

$500,000 HIS LOOT.

Warriner Lost All in Speculation and Blackmail.

Cincinnati, Nov. 8.—An official of the Big Four railroad stated tonight that the defalcations for which ex-Treasurer Charles L. Warriner has been arrested would be far in excess of $100,000. According to his estimate, it will reach nearly $500,000.

Eighty thousand dollars is said to have been paid in blackmail. Two women and a man are mentioned as the blackmailers. Detectives are shadowing one of the women, who lives in Cincinnati, but it is stated that the railroad company does not intend to have her arrested, but will try to get her as a witness for the state.

Warriner, who is charged with appropriating $54,500, was released from custody late today on a bond of $20,000.

During the day Warriner made a remarkable change of front. In the afternoon he gave out a statement admitting his responsibility for the shortage, but declaring there were others in it. Later he changed tactics and declared that he admitted nothing. This later declaration is taken to mean that he intends to force his alleged partners in guilt into the open.

The $54,500 in the warrant for Warriner's arrest represents the present amount owing to the railroad company and not the entire amount of the shortage.

The balance, according to the statement of General Counsel Hackney, has been covered by property that Warriner has turned over to the company.

BATTLE WITH INDIANS.

Savages Yield After Five Hours' Fight With Police.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 8.—After a five hours' battle, beginning this morning at daybreak, a force of 50 special police, under Chief Constable Maitland-Dougall, and embracing virtually all male inhabitants of Hazelton, on the Skeena river, captured the Indian village of Kispiox, and made prisoners several chiefs of the tribes who have been inciting the related nations of the Skeena to war upon the whites, obstructing railway construction and this week seizing supplies and stopping provincial road work.

Chief Constable Maitland-Dougall makes no report of casualties to Superintendent Husey here, although private telegrams say firing was practical continuous from daybreak until noon.

Despite the fact that the Canadian government had ridiculed the suggestion, residents of the North country apprehended serious trouble all along the Skeena as soon as winter sealed the waterway, the Indians nursing an original and legitimate grievance as to game laws and fisheries regulations interfering with their basic supplies until it was fanned into flame by agitators who have all summer been preaching the legal rights of the Skeena nations to all the lands along that river.

CATTLEMAN ADMITS RAID.

Two Turn State's Evidence in Wyoming Trial.

sheepmen would be ordered to quit the country. Keyes denied having seen anyone shoot or having fired a shot himself. Farris admitted discharging his rifle and seeing James Allemand, owner of the sheep outfit, killed. He testified that Herbert Brink, the present defendant, fired the fatal shot. Farris stated that every man under arrest was in the party when the raid was made.

Pierre Caffarelli and Charles Heimer, sheepherders, testified that they were summoned from camp on the night of April 2 by a band of masked men, marched to Orehill at the point of rifles and kept under guard while raiders made their descent upon the camp.

Hot Tong War Is Feared.

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—The top war has assumed such a serious aspect that the police have placed the local Chinese quarter in a state of siege. The warring factions of the Yee family and the On Yick fighting tong are so closely watched that it is not believed that the battle will be resumed in the regular Chinese quarter. Detectives fear that hostilities may break out at any moment in the outlying laundries and gardens, where numbers of the warring tongs are employed. These places are closely watched.

Santa Fe Loses Money.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 8.—The Santa Fe railroad in Oklahoma has suffered a great loss since the 2-cent passenger law went into effect, according to an affidavit filed in the United States District court today by that company. The document asserts that the Santa Fe carried 237,441 more passengers in 1908 than the preceding year, its passenger earnings showing a loss of $65,525. Owing to the compulsory low freight rate, it is claimed that the receipts showed a decrease of over $200,000.

Prosecuted for Air Scorching.

Paris, Nov. 8.—The first prosecution for furious flying will shortly occur in the courts here. M. Blanch, who crashed into the crowd at Port Aviation three weeks ago and hurt several people, is the defendant. Two victims have summoned him for furious driving in the air. Curiously enough, the prosecuting lawyer is Paul Fay, who is a son-in-law of Mrs. Hartsberg, whose husband brought Wilbur Wright to France.

Spanish Army Advances.

Melilla, Morocco, Nov. 8.—Sixteen thousand Spanish troops, supported by heavy reserves, began an advance this morning over the Beni Sicar territory. The Infanta Carlos of Bourbon led the advance guard.

Honor and shame from no condition rise,
Aot well your part, there all the honor lies.
Fortune in men has some small difference made;
One flouts in rags, one flutters in brocade;
The cobler aproned, and the parson gown'd,
The friar hooded, and the monarch crown'd,
"What differ more (you cry) than crown and cow?"
I'll tell you, friend! a wise man and a fool.
You'll find it once the monarch acts the monk
Or, cobbler like, the parson will be drunk;
Worth makes the man, and want of it since the
The rest is all but leather or prunella;
Boast the pure blood of an illustrious race,
In quiet flow from Lucrece to Lucrece;
But by your fathers' worth if yours you rate,
Count me those only who were good and great.
Go! if your ancient but ignoble blood has crept through accidentals ever since,
Go! and pretend your family is young.
Nor own your fathers have been fools so long!
What can ennoble sets, or slaves, or cowards?
Alas! not all the blood of all the Howards.

Construction of Language.

An absurdly worded statement of a fact which was not in itself remarkable recently tried the gravity of the listeners. It was on the occasion of the funeral of an elderly woman in a New England town. She had left an old mother, nearly 90 years of age, and an only son who was well on toward 50.

The services were conducted by a timid young clergyman, recently settled over the parish. After praying for many and various things, he said: "And two, and especially pray that the Lord will comfort and sustain in their loss and sorrow. One is the orphan, who, although no longer young, is an orphan still, and must so continue; the other is the mother, far advanced in years, who has survived her daughter, although considerably her senior."

WILL HAVE FLYING BICYCLE.

What Jules Bole Predicts for Civilization 100 Years Hence.

Jules Bole, a distinguished archaeologist, whose hypotheses in regard to ancient civilizations have been wonderfully borne out by archaeological discoveries, has attempted to forecast the changes likely to take place in the 100 years' time, based upon hypotheses formulated on the basis of society 100 years ago and demonstrated in the light of present-day conditions, some of which, of course, not be traced to the beginning of nineteenth century.

In the first place, says a Paris letter to the New York Times, M. Bole predicts that all the great cities will be practically uninhabited except by visitors for business purposes during the daytime. All classes will live in the country or garden cities at considerable distances from the towns, to which access will be cheap and extremely rapid owing to the enormous development of all methods of conveyance, from pneumatic railways to flying cars. The motor car will have gone completely out of fashion, but the bicycle, in a new form, will be once more in favor, for a sort of flying bicycle will be invented which will enable the rider to soar in mid-air. The average height of Europeans will be increased; so will the average length of life.

Entirely new views will prevail concerning the beauty of women, for women themselves will be greatly changed; their beauty will be combined with muscular power and courage. Parliamentary institutions, M. Bole believes, will be greatly modified; indeed, will almost have disappeared, and nations will be governed by delegates of various castes.

All existing aristocracies will have become blotted out, but a new form of aristocracy, brought into being by the general alteration of the conditions of life, will be socially and politically powerful. French will become the great international language.

The Morning Chores.

Although he was pretty glad to take in summer boarders, and thus make capital of his small garden produce and his wife's excellent cooking, Jedediah Hubbard always made a great point of never letting his guests "get in ahead" of him in any way. "City folks that have been around a mite think they know it all fun A to Izzard!" he used to say. "They need somebody to take 'em down a peg or two once in a while."

One morning while he was chewing a long spear of grass, near the wood yard, he was surprised to see a newly arrived boarder, fully dressed, coming toward him. This propensity of "city fellows" to rise at "sunup" was quite regular.

"Good morning!" exclaimed the newcomer in a lusty tone.

"Morning!" responded the old man, as if uncertain just what to expect.

"Well, I s'pose you have to get up early to see that the naysocks crow properly, don't you?" said the city man, with an airy, jocular familiarity which Jedediah was not slow to resent.

"Well, no," he drawled, "not exactly that—I was just out untying some of the knots in the cordwood."

A man who associates with fools a long time, learns foul ways, and blishes when he is sensible.

Somewhere in the pages of her pleasant "Book of Life" Mrs. Lucy Fitch Perkins tells a delightful story of her New England Puritan great-grandfather, who was a man of ingenuity and resources. She says:

He employed more than one device to secure wakefulness on the part of his weary congregation. Standing during the prayer was but one of many things his grandmother used to tell us with pride of an instance which occurred at a time when a new church edifice had been proposed, and was under warm discussion. Great-grandfather thought this a worldly and unbecomingly expensive, and emphasized his opinion by pausing in the midst of his sermon on a Sunday, saying impressively as he fixed the somnolent members of his congregation with a stern look:

"You are talking about building a new church: It seems to me quite unnecessary, since the sleepers in the old one are all sound!"
